PLEASANT POINT

(Special to The Post.)

The people of this corner are busy at their fall work of ploughing, raising roots, and cutting corn and buckwheat. The corn crop is very good this year around these parts, and as a considerable amount was sown by each farmer, the prospects of having sufficient food for the coming winter is very favorable.

The potato crop is reported to be fairly good also, though some odd farmers are complaining of a slight rot.

The patrons of the North Ops cheese factory held a meeting last Friday night to discuss the suggestion of setting over one day's make of cheese to the Patriotic Fund. Nothing definite was settled upon.

We hope, however, that these men will be able to come to some settlement whereby this deserving cause may receive some help from them.

Mr. Wilson Hamilton has erected a fine driving and machine shed on his premises. The raising of the frame work took place last week, and since then the work upon it has almost been completed.

Several farmers of this vicinity have recently had their barns and houses decorated and protected by lightning rods.

Our school has opened again after the summer vacation. Miss Perdue of Bobcaygeon has resumed her duties as instructor, and we believe the pupils will make good advances during the coming year under her leadership.
