SEYMOUR BYLAW CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. J. G. Kerry, of the Central Ontario Power Company, Ltd., wrote the Council last evening, stating that on June 14th last the Company forwarded a marked cheque for $5000, to the Council of Lindsay as evidence of the bona fides of the application for franchise which was made by the Company. An arrangement has since been made by which the Company becomes the owners of the Lindsay Light, Heat and Power Co.

The application for franchise recently dealt with by the Council was therefore made in the name of the L. H. & P. Co., but the Central Ont. Power Co. was willing that the marked cheque shall be paid by the Corporation subject to the L. H. & P. Co., completing agreement. In event of L. H. & P. Co. refusing to execute agreement when requested to do so, after approval of electors has been given on Sept. 29th, this sum of $5000 shall become forfeit to the town.

Mr. Keery said the Company had been given to understand agreement could not be executed in legal form by either party until the by-law has passed third reading.

Mr. Kerry further stated that his Company would reimburse town for any expense it might incur in submitting by-law to the electors

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zaefeldt, of Toronto are spending some weeks with friends in town before leaving for Los Angeles.

"GIVE US OUR DEAD" THE WALL FROM DESOLATED TOWN OF AUSTIN

(Special to the Post)
Austin, Pa., Oct. 3.—Twenty-four known dead, eighty-six missing and believed to be buried beneath the debris, is the official census last night of Austin's loss of life in the flood of Saturday. It is conceded, however, that several, if not indeed many, visitors and strangers were in town that day, and undoubtedly perished. Including them and allowing for inevitable errors in compilation, the total of the dead will probably reach 150. Twenty-one of the bodies recovered from the ruins have been identified and of the missing hope is entertained that some may yet be accounted for.

The problem of the hour in Austin last night is to recover her dead from the thousands of tons of debris choking the narrow valley. To do so before it becomes necessary to burn the ruins and save the living from an epidemic army of laborers must reach the town within the next 36 hours, officials say. Otherwise the torch may transform the wreckage into a pyre of most of those who have perished.

The single line of wire swinging between Austin and the outside world carried an urgent plea for workmen to the mayors of Buffalo, Pittsburg and Philadelphia. Samuel C. Dixon, state commissioner of health, supreme in command at Austin, voiced the appeal.

Encouraging responses are hoped for. "Give us our dead," is Austin's cry, voiced by State Senator F. E. Baldwin, who lost father, mother, sister and other relatives. Only the body of his father, John E. Baldwin, had been recovered up to this morning.

The nine-mile line of railroad leading here from Keating's Summit was given over yesterday to the cause of rescue and relief. Locked cars pulled out of the Summit for the scene of the disaster. When they reached the terminus here, the workers detoured; the ditches, kept aboard, were sent back.

Every man on Austin's streets except the newspaper men were conscripted in the service, but despite the vigilance of the authorities only 350 were working at sunset. Smouldering flames in the debris burst forth anew in the lower end of the wreckage yesterday afternoon, but it is not believed that the timbers shielded any of the dead.

Austin stands to a man against the suggestion that it may be necessary to put a torch to her ruins. Feeling runs high and should the authorities be forced to, there is no forecasting the result. The iron grip of the Pennsylvania State Constabulary holds the town in its grasp, however, and the troopers will remain here until Commissioner Dixon gives the word to go.

Eight men charged with looting the ruins were arraigned last night before Magistrate Johnson and committed to the Coudersport Jail for grand jury action. One man, a boarding-house-keeper, complained yesterday that his home had been robbed of $2,800; another, a storekeeper, declared that thieves had smashed his cash registers and stolen $300. A little girl entered a wrecked building and left with jewelry valued at several hundred dollars. She was stopped and relieved by the state police of her loot.

Peterboro, Oct. 2.—A local druggist was arraigned in the Police Court this morning on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor, (alcohol) without a license, and without a prescription from a medical man for same. The sale was made on the 24th ult. (Sunday) Mr. Stewart, License Inspector, laid this charge, with the result that the defendant was found guilty and fined $100 and costs.

The defendant was represented by Mr. B. Hall, who, in his defence, maintained that a druggist was within his right in selling alcohol as a medicine on Sunday, or any other day, but the Magistrate overruled his motion for an acquittal.

The Magistrate said that whiskey would be no use without alcohol in it, and whiskey would not be an intoxicating drink unless it had a certain per centage of alcohol in it, therefore the druggist was committing an infraction of the liquor license act, when he sold the alcohol without a prescription from a druggist.

ATONEMENT DAY AMONG THE JEWS

Saturday night the Hebrew residents of this town began the fast of the Day of Atonement, known in Hebrew as Yom-Kippur, and which follows upon the festival of the Jewish New Year, which was observed on Saturday, Sept. 23. The Jewish year, which has just begun, is the year of 5772.

The devout attend the eleven hours devotion without interruption of any kind. Most of the services are completely in the Hebrew tongue, the recognised language of devotion prayer psalms, readings from the Scriptures, and a short sermon from Fasthe service.

Throughout Monday a continuous service was held, which, as the day wore on, heightened in impressiveness by a most solemn commemorative service for the dead. This is followed by the Nallah or closing service in which the main ideas of the day are especially emphasised: repentance conditioning forgiveness and God's sealing the decree of man for the ensuing year. The service ends with a solemn invocation of God's name, the Shema and the seven-fold exclamation. The Lord, He is God. As a signal of the loss of the sacred day, the trumpet, (shofar) is blown once, and the devout worshipper turns homeward from God's house with the assurance that in reward for his true and sincere repentance, the sins of the past have been forgiven.

Repair the Drain

The drain across Ridout-st in front of Dr. Blanchard's residence is caving in and at last night's meeting of the Council, Alderman Babcock of the Board of Works, suggested that the matter be attended to at once. A fifteen inch tile runs from the street, through Mr. Flurey's property to the river, and the Board of Works was instructed to lay the tile across the road.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX AND ESCAPE A FINE OR IMPRISONMENT TERM

At last night's Council meeting by-law to repeal by-law No. 1067 and any amendments thereto, and to appoint a poll tax collector in and for the Town of Lindsay, was passed. It enacts as follows:

1. "Every male inhabitant of the Town of Lindsay of the full age of twenty-one years and upwards, and under sixty years of age, not exempted by law from performing statute labor, who has not been assessed upon the assessment roll, of the Town, or whose taxes in the Town for the then current year do not amount to Two Dollars, shall instead of statute labor, be and is hereby taxed the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) for this year.

2. "The said tax shall be levied and collected by John Jackson, of the Town of Lindsay, who is hereby appointed Poll Tax Collector to collect the same.

3. "Any person liable to pay the said tax shall pay the same to the said Collector on demand, and in case of neglect or refusal to pay the same, the Collector may levy the same by distress, and if no sufficient distress can be found, then upon the summary conviction, before a Justice of the Peace of the County of Victoria, of his refusal to pay the said sum, and if there be not sufficient distress, he shall incur and forfeit and pay a penalty of Five Dollars with costs, and in default of payment at such time as the convicting Justice orders, he shall be committed to the common goal, of the County of Victoria, and be there put to hard labor for any time not exceeding ten days unless such penalty with costs, and the cost of the warrant of commitment and of conveying him to the goal, are paid.

4. "The said Collector shall pay over to the Town Treasurer once every week the total amount of said taxes collected by him during the preceding week, together with a list of the names of the parties from whom he collected the same."

His Worship Mayor Beal said this was a tax that he never paid or never would pay it, as he did not believe it. Ald. McCrae said it was a just tax, as there were a large number of people around town who were enjoying privileges for which they did not contribute a cent.

THAT SUSSEX-ST. DRAIN QUESTION

The Tudhope Anderson Co., Ltd., wrote the Council at its meeting last evening stating that it was understood there had been considerable difficulty experienced in the past in connection with the Sylvester plant, which they recently purchased. They were advised that the water backs up on Kent-st., not only causing considerable damage, but a great deal of inconvenience, so serious at times as to put the plant out of commission for several days. This trouble occurs in the spring, and of course the trouble could not be remedied at that time of year, and the Company suggested that the Council appoint a Committee to take the matter up and see that a repetition of the trouble will be obviated.

In connection with this matter a letter was read from Mr. Smith, O.L.S. He stated that he omitted to make it clear his reasons for adopting the Peel street route instead of following the watercourse to Wellington-st., and thence to river.

1st-Levels are not as satisfactory by Wellington-st. route as cuttings are deeper.

2nd-To tear up old sewers along this route and reduce them to a proper grade would be more trouble than by Peel-st. route.

3rd-The work would interfere with mill business of Mr. Maunders and cause trouble.

4th-The work when done along Peel-st., will do a good work in under-draining Peel-st. West of Cambridge-st., which he noticed was badly needed.

Mr. Smith had a typewritten report about ready for the Council.

Mr. H. B. Henderson, Winnipeg was in town to-day on business.

His Worship Mayor Beal is in Toronto to-day.
