COLLEGIATE LIT. OFFICERS WERE ELECTED STUDENTS MADE MERRY LAST NIGHT

Yesterday afternoon about 4.30 the students who were on Kent street and the merchants and their clerks, were attracted by a large crowd of boys and girls coming down the street from the direction of the Collegiate Institute. In their midst was an old bus, which they had located in a shed at the fair grounds) on top of which were their Literary Society officers for the school year of 1911-12. The procession proceeded down the main street to the east end and back again the students running the bus along the sidewalk. Those who could not get on the sidewalk struck off to the middle of the road. At short intervals along the route of the procession the newly elected officers were called upon to make speeches. A halt was made at the Olympia Candy Walk, where everybody who wished had refreshments, after which they proceeded their way back to "the little school house on the hill."

WEDDING BELLS

LUNNEY-SKITCH.

This afternoon a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lunney, Adelaide-st., when their daughter, Olivia Lavina, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Percy Harold Skitch, of Toronto, formerly of Lindsay. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. S. J. Shorey, pastor of the Cambridge street Methodist Church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a dress of cream duchess silk with lace and pearl trimmings, and carrying a shower of cream roses and lily of the valley. Her travelling dress was a tailored navy blue serge, black beaver hat with touches of green.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Joy Richardson. Miss Marie Bryden was the flower girl, and was dressed in white, with blue trimmings. During the signing of the register solos were rendered by Mr. W. F. Skitch, of Peterboro, and Miss Joy Richardson.

There were about forty guests, among those from a distance being: Mr. J. W. Lunney, Winnipeg, brother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cowan and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bell, of Canington; Mrs. James Bryden, Lloyd-town.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, to the pianist a gold bar pin set with pearls. The bride received a silver tea service from the Epworth League of the Cambridge-st. Methodist Church. A couple of weeks ago the bride's friends held a shower at which she received many useful and beautiful presents. Besides these there were numerous other presents.

The table decorations were similar and carnations, with touches of red.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Garden Hill and Trenton, and upon their return will reside in Toronto. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of happiness.

McFEELY-CROMIE

The following from the Saturday Sunset of British Columbia will be read with interest as the bride's parents are former residents of Lindsay. The Church of Our Lady of The Holy Rosary was the scene on Wednesday morning this week of one of the most fashionable weddings which have taken place in Vancouver, the contracting parties being Miss Bernadette Grace McFeely, daughter of Mr. Edward J. McFeely and Mr. Robert James Cromie. Rev. Father Welch officiated at the ceremony, which was performed at 10.30 a.m. The Cathedral was massed with pink carnations, roses and ferns. Preceding the bride, who entered leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, came two little flower girls, frocked in white net with valenciennes lace trimming, and wide sashes. Their hats were of white satin, the ties being caught on one side by a cluster of flowers and each carried a basket of sweet peas. The bridesmaid, the Misses Florence and Dorothy McFeely followed. They were handsomely attired in costumes which, with the exception of color, were similar, Miss Florence being in blue and Miss Dorothy in rose pink. The dresses were of silk embroidered net over messaline, and around the waists were girdles of the messaline. The hats were German poke bonnets, of white satin, faced with pink silk crepe de chene and trimmed with roses. Pale pink roses were the flowers used in their bouquets. The bride was exclusively robed in ivory satin, draped with Limerick lace and from the shoulders fell a long court train. The yoke of the bodice was of Limerick lace trimmed with pearl embroidery. Around the Empire waist was a silken cord studded with pearls, and terminating in pearl tassels. A beautiful Limerick lace veil fell the full length and was held in place by orange blossoms. The shower bouquet was composed of lilies and roses. Attending the groom was Mr. Norman Sawers, while the ushers included Mr. Dick Marpole, Mr. Eugene Hombberger, Mr. Herbert Green, Mr. Frank Yaphael and Mr. C. E. Disher. Mrs. McFeely was fashionably gowned in chiffon velvet of a pale mauve shade which was made with long train, points de Venice lace falling over bodice and skirt. A white picture hat, faced with pink nixon was set off by plume and ospray. At the conclusion of the ceremony, a reception was held at 1218 Burnaby street, home of the bride's parents. In the drawing room where the young couple received the congratulations and good wishes of their friends, they stood under an arch with a wedding bell of pink and white roses and carnations. The wedding breakfast was served in a marquee on the lawn where a perfect canopy of flowers sheltered the table which was graced with roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Comrie left on a trip to Banff and on their return will be at home temporarily in the Beaconsfield Apartments, and later in their residence on Shaughnessy Heights which is not yet finished. The bride wore a smart travelling costume of blue with blouse of Irish crocheted and a helmet hat with grey silk crown and brim of Oriental embroidery. Mr. McFeely's gift to his daughter was a cheque. From the groom she received a dove wings pendant in rubies and diamonds. The bridesmaids were the recipients of pendants of pearls and coral, the flower girls of gold bracelets. The almost numberless presents received by the young couple were both beautiful and useful.

Mr. S. Oliver is in Markham to-day where he is showing some fowls. Miss Eleanor Wilkinson, Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Wilkinson, Angeline-st.

SMITH TOWNSHIP GIRL DISAPPEARS

Examiner: Considerable mystery enshrouds the disappearance of Mary Weaver from the home of Mr. William Matthews, first line of Smith. The girl, who is about 15 years of age, was employed as a domestic. About 10 o'clock on the morning of the 22nd of September the girl left the house, apparently to go for a walk. She was without either a hat or coat and when last seen was wending her way towards the creek, and the efforts of the search party to locate her whereabouts have proved fruitless. Various theories have been advanced, that have tended to clear up the mystery, but are all to no avail. Some are inclined to associate the girl's disappearance with the presence of tramps in the vicinity; others venture to assert that the girl had been kidnapped. It is difficult at the present time, however, to say whether there is any foundation for these rumors.

NO DUCKS FROM NORTH THIS FALL

Did you start that furnace this morning, fill the house with smoke, then open front door, back door, and every window upstairs and down, and proceed to convert a comfortable home into a refrigerating plant. If so, you made a mistake. The prospects of the near future are for a spell of Indian summer, not an immediate plunge into the long months when furnace banking is used as a substitute exercise for golf.

The information is conveyed by observers whose judgement on weather subjects is entitled to respect. They based their predictions on a proposition which permits a little argument. No ducks have arrived in the vicinity from the north up to this time.

Therefore, forget the furnace, disturb not the camphor moth balls which shed sweet perfume on the woolen underwear, pawn not the bicycle in order to recover the fur-lined overcoat.

IMPROMPTU RECITAL AT THE CONVENT

Last evening the boarders and music pupils of St. Joseph's Academy, were treated to a delightful impromptu recital by Miss Grace McNeil, of Fort William and Miss Kathleen Bruce, of Kearney. Miss McNeil contributed four brilliant pianoforte selections with rare taste and expression. Sculis Bois, waltz in A Flat, Chopin, Schubert's Carnival Rhapsody No 12 Liszt. Miss Bruce also contributed two charming vocal numbers, "Plains of Peace," and "Sunshine and Butterflies." At the conclusion of the recital the young ladies enjoyed themselves in intercourses and dancing.

WELL MERITED REBUKE

(Hamilton Times.)

The Toronto Telegram the day after the election, outdid itself in its contemptible abuse of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and its littleness of soul and fiendish vindictiveness called out from Mr. John Davidson the following dignified and well merited rebuke: "Permit me to express the opinion, with all the emphasis at my command, that your editorial of yesterday, with its fierce personal comments on Sir Wilfrid Laurier, bears finger prints which enables us to Bertillonize its author as a black guard. Grey hairs in defeat are entitled to respect, even if the wearer has made mistakes, as you believe. And there is no decent Conservative who does not recognize that Laurier and his manifold work of conciliation and larger Canadianism will be remembered and honored in Canada and the Empire when you have long ceased to screech in capitals, and when your servant's agency and real estate exchange shall no longer strive to help the waters of your mud-puddle into mountains of lacticive with the winds of your wordiness. Yours, with the appreciation of which is due."

OBITUARY

JOHN CARR.

The death took place at the Ross Hospital last evening of Mr. John Carr, a resident of Lindsay. The deceased was employed as hostler at the Grand Union Hotel, and afterwards at the Pym House. He is survived by a daughter in Napanee and a son in the Northwest. The remains will be interred in Lindsay.

ALEX. D. MCKENZIE.

The death occurred at the Ross Memorial Hospital last night of Mr. Alex. D. McKenzie, Whitby. The deceased was twenty-six years of age. The young man's life was one of great promise. He will be greatly missed among social circles, as he was always pleasing and entertaining. The sympathy of the community is extended to his sorrowing father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. Mackenzie, of Whitby, who are in town. The funeral will take place at the noon train, thence to Whitby, where interment will take place.

CITY GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION

Peterboro Examiner: "That he would move at the next meeting of the City Council that the city of Peterborough be governed by Commission was the announcement made by Ald. Edgar last night. This question has been considered in a public way before, but no material progress was made. Mr. R. S. Harden, Smith Falls was in Lindsay for a short time to day.

CAUSE OF THE WAR

It is more than ten years ago since Italy, in return for declaring herself disinterested in Tunis, where in the past she had considerable influence, obtained French recognition of her predominant rights in Tripoli. From that time onward it has been more or less understood that in the long anticipated division of the Ottoman Empire Italy would demand as her share at least that outlying Turkish province, (Vilayet) which comprises about 400,000 square miles of desirable country bordering on the Mediterranean and bounded on the east by Egypt, on the West by Tunis, and on the southeast and south by the Sahara.

The population is about 1,000,000, mostly Berbers. There is a Jewish colony of about 5,000 in the capital, with nearly as many more in the remainder of the Province. The Europeans number 5,000 principally Maltese and Italians. There are virtually no Turkish settlers. The principal towns are Tripoli the capital, with 30,080 inhabitants Benghazi, with 35,000; Mesurata and Der-na. The capital is connected by cable with Malta.

The country has been part of the Turkish Empire since 1591, though for more than a century previous to 1835 the Sultan's authority was practically non-existent, and the country was a stronghold of pirates. In 1835 Turkey sent a strong expedition to Tripoli, and has enforced her authority since then, though there have been several rebellions.

The taxes are collected by a receiver-general, nominated from Constantinople, and they press heavily on all classes of inhabitants.

WILL CLOSE THE S. WARD SCHOOL

At the meeting of the Board of Education held last night in the council chamber it was decided to move the pupils of the South Ward school to the Central School for the winter and close the south ward building. There are a number of vacant rooms in the new Central school and besides the South Ward school was in such a condition that it was not to the best interests of the pupils to have them housed in the institution. A motion to this effect was introduced by Dr. White and Mr. John W. Anderson.

Mr. A. J. Gay, Oshawa, contractor for the new schools, was here to-day. Mr. H. J. C. Burgess, of the Benson House, was in Toronto to day on business.

Canada Life Assurance Co

Canada Life policies are extremely simple, safe and profitable. They are world-wide, indisputable after one year, automatically non-forfeitable after three years in force until value is exhausted. They provide for 30 days' grace without interest for payment of premiums, and contain generous loan and cash values.

Best on the Continent.

"It pays to have a policy in The Canada Life."

PETERBORO'S POPULATION 19,300

Peterboro Review: The City Assessors, Messrs. W. J. Henry and W. H. Thompson, in handing in their rolls yesterday made known the fact that Peterboro has now a population of 19,300. This is an increase over 1910 of 1,270, and the increase is the greatest in the history.

The 1910 municipal taxes amounted to $3,873,145 and were made up of realty taxable $3,064,653; business, $64,687; income, $194,455. For 1911 taxes only the property last year totalled $334,810 and was made up of real estate, $429,120; business, $105,690. Exemptions were $1,687,520.

Miss Elva Thompson, of Omamee, has entered the Ross Memorial Hospital as a nurse in training.

POULTRY WANTED

Look over your poultry and see if you have't some to spare. Do not send to S. Applebaum's Poultry Dept., 50 Queen-st., East Ward where you receive the highest market price. Leave your address at Applebaum's Clothing Store, or phone 3371. A horse and wagon will call for quantities of poultry in the town and six chickens in the country.
