We hope he will soon recover.

PRESENTATION AT FENELON FALLS Linden Valley News Items

Fenelon Falls, Oct. 11.—On Monday evening a number of the members of St. James Church met at the home of Mrs. Cassidy, to bid farewell to one of their number, Mrs. Sproat, on the eve of her departure for her new home in Peterboro. During the evening Mrs. Sproat was presented with a set of silver tea and dessert spoons and the following address from the parish Workers of the Church.

Dear Mrs. Sproat:—We, a few of your fellow-workers in the Church, are sorry to see you going from our midst. We will miss you very much, as you were always a ready and willing worker, doing what you could with a good will and trying to make a success of all you undertook. We sincerely wish you both health, happiness and prosperity in your new home. We ask you to accept this little memento of our esteem as a parting gift from the Parish workers of St. James' Church, Fenelon Falls. Signed on behalf of the Society, Mrs. W. Burgoyne

BUILDING BOOM STRUCK ORILLIA

Orillia, Oct. 4.—The year's building operations in Orillia will total almost if not quite, half a million dollars. Half of this amount has been expended in new factory buildings. Sixty thousand dollars for the new Catholic Church, a twenty-five thousand dollar addition to the Young Men's Christian Association, and one hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars on stores and residences. Notwithstanding, vacant houses are at a premium, and every store is occupied.
In the building line this has been the greatest year in Orillia's history. The Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern are commencing this year on the erection of a Union passenger station.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT AT PETERBORO

Peterboro, Ont., Oct. 9.—Bruce Hampton, aged 22 years, received the contents of a shot gun while hunting with his brother, one of whom mistook one of his boots, showing through the bushes for a rabbit. BEAR HUNTING NEAR NORLAND

(Special to the Post)
Norland, Oct. 11.—As Mr. Stephens was driving down to the village on Saturday, to his surprise he saw a bear eating apples off a tree, a short distance north of the village. As he had no rifle with him he came on down and told the news in the village. It was not long until every one who had a gun was starting up the road in pursuit of bruin. Mr. J. Bailey was the one who fired the fatal shot. The bear was brought down to Mr. Bowley's shop, and everyone that saw it said it was the largest black bear they have ever seen. They say there are two more in this section, but have been unable to get them as yet. One was seen just behind the Church on Monday morning. They are still after them and it is hoped they will get them before long.

HON. F. D. MONK.
Minister of Public Works in the Conservative Government.

Newsy Notes From Cambray

There has been an unusually stir in our village this week on account of a sale, an institute meeting and a concert.

Mr. London, who has been on a mission field near Saskatoon, returned last week to visit his parents before leaving for Queen's University.

The anniversary services of the Methodist Church in Cameron are to be held on Oct. 8 and on the 10th. A tea and concert are to be given in the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Rev. Mr. Konkle occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church here last Sabbath. As Rev. Mr. Caldwell leaves to attend the University there will be no service until some further arrangement is made.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and family intend moving to Toronto in the near future.

The Women's Institute held their social evening at the home of Mr. W. Webster on Wednesday last. There was a very good attendance and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. Bagehaw and family intend moving this month to Lindsay to reside.

Several of the farmers are filling their silos this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Ray spent a few days last week visiting friends in Markham.

Last Monday a tea and concert were given in aid of the Presbyterian Church. The delicacies provided by the ladies proved that they were fine cooks, and the concert was excellent. Mrs. Dr. Dale, of Oakwood, gave some very interesting readings. Mrs. Rev. Konkle, of Sonya and Mr. Beecroft, gave some songs in their usual skilful style. Rev. Mr. Howard and Rev. Mr. Konkle, gave interesting and instructive addresses. Linden Valley orchestra also assisted. Proceeds in full amounted to over $66. Rev. Mr. Caldwell and the congregation are to be congratulated on the success of this undertaking.

On the evening of Oct. 4, the members of the Women's Institute, and their friends, gathered at Mrs. Wm. Webster's home, it being the event of their social evening. A good program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings etc., was given by several members of the Institute. A musical love story, taking the form of a contest was enjoyed by all present. There were two prizes given. Mr. Frank Wood and Miss Hazel McInnis winning the prize for the largest number of correct answers and Mr. Wm. Channon and Mrs. Newsom, receiving second. After a dainty lunch, a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Webster for the use of their home, which was ably responded to by Mr. Webster. The happy evening closed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Mrs. Geo. Bagehaw and Mrs. Wm. Hall spent a few days of last week in Peterboro.

Several from here attended the fowl supper at Cameron on Tuesday night and report a good time.

Don't forget our hot fowl dinner on Thanksgiving evening. A good supper as well as a splendid programme is Cambray's usual style. Everybody welcome. For full particulars see posters.

AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE

The school board at its meeting on Tuesday evening appointed the following gentlemen as an Advisory Agricultural committee in pursuance of the recently enacted Industrial Act, which was quoted in these columns few days ago: Messrs. John Carew, J. O'Reilly, Dr. Wood, A. Jackson, Wm. Channon, Jas. Robertson, S. Carew and W. H. Cullis. This motion was made by Messrs. J. E. Adams and A. L. Campbell. Considerable discussion ensued re the division of the town into school districts, but no definite action was taken.

SOUTH WARD PARENT OBJECTS

The Post is in receipt of a letter from "A South Ward Parent" protesting against the closing of the South Ward School. The writer states:—"It means that about twenty-five or thirty small children who are now attending the South Ward School, will have to stop going to school and remain home all winter. The mover of the motion lives in the North Ward and has no interest in the South Ward, while the seconder should realize that there are a number of parents in the ward who have no vehicles to take their children to school but will have to remain at home during the winter"

Sonya News Of Interest

The Sonya branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. Varcoe on Wednesday, Oct. 4. After the usual preliminaries, the minutes of the September meeting was read and approved. A paper on "How to Keep Young," was read by Miss Annie Ferguson and was full of good advice. "Harmony in the Home" a splendid paper by Miss Joanna Watson. A solo by Miss Annie Leask and several gramophone selections.

This being the meeting to pay the rest room dues, they were accordingly paid in. The November meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Melville Gilson where a demonstration on candy making is to be given by Miss Webster, of Oakwood.

After spending a very pleasant afternoon a most sumptuous tea was served and then Mrs. Short was presented with a purse. After wishing her many more happy years the children took their departure to their own homes well pleased with their outing.

Newsy Notes From Manilla

The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Short of the village of Manilla in the county of Victoria was pleasantly surprised on Oct. 2, by her sons and daughters with their families. It was the anniversary of her 80th birthday and they decided to give her a surprise, which she greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Short has been a resident of the village and surrounding country from her childhood. She was born in Wales but came to this country when very small. She is the daughter of the late Edward Edwards who came with his family from the old country to help out for himself and their homes in this country when it was quite young.

Mrs. Short, though taken by surprise was made happy by seeing her grandchildren and great grandchildren enjoyed themselves. Of her six children, Mr. and Mrs. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Short, of Manilla, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, of Sonya, were present with their children and great-grandchildren.

The children with their families who were unable to attend were, Mr. and Mrs. Short, of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Short, of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Short, of Oakwood. Mrs. Short has 27 grand-children and 12 great grand-children.

After spending a very pleasant afternoon a most sumptuous tea was served and then Mrs. Short was presented with a purse. After wishing her many more happy years the children took their departure to their own homes well pleased with their outing.

Runaway Accident At the Falls

Fenelon Falls, Oct. 9.—On Saturday afternoon, about three o'clock, as Mrs. Owens, her two young children, aged respectively 4 years and 6 months and Miss Smithson, who resides seven miles from Fenelon Falls on the Glenora Road were driving along Francis-st., west, where the cement walk is being laid, their horse shied at a pile of lumber near the roadside and suddenly bolted, throwing the occupants out of the rig. Miss Smithson sustained a fracture of the right arm near the shoulder. The others escaping with slight bruises. The accident occurred nearly opposite Mr. Thos. Robson's house, and Miss Robson who witnessed the accident, invited the lady and children to enter and wait until medical aid arrived, which they did. Dr. Johnstone was summoned, and attended the patient who left for her home near Glenora the same evening. The horse was captured in a few minutes by Mr. Perrin and Mr. Jewell.
