

Our Sixty-Second Year—No. 48

LINDSAY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1907.

Terms—$1.00 per year in Advance.

Ford's Big Bankrupt Stock Sale Offers You Most for Your Money.

WHY!

BECAUSE it is a genuine sale. BECAUSE every article in stock is selling at 20 to 50 per cent. under regular prices. BECAUSE we bought the stock at half price. BECAUSE we are going to sell the entire stock out. BECAUSE it isn't a sale of a few articles that's all over in a few days. BECAUSE it's the unusual that's happening—winter goods at cut prices in November. Prices are as low now as they will be next spring.

A Word to the Wise is Unnecessary.

With these sound reasons laid before you, you surely will come here for your wants. Just for instance judge us by these items. They are bargains, that if you could see you would come through mud, rain or snow to share.

Corsets, Belts, Gloves, Lace Collars, Umbrellas etc., all Greatly Reduced.

$1.25 Men's and Women's Umbrellas at 85c. 75c and $1.00 Corsets at 59c. Women's Silk Belts. 25c styles, 12 1-2c; 75c styles, 39c; $1.50 styles, 75c. Women's Gloves. $1.50 Kid Gloves, 98c; 25c Cashmere Gloves, 19c; 50c Cashmere Gloves, 39c. $1.50 large Lace Cape Collars at 69c.

Great Bargains in Dress Goods Silks and All-over Lace.

THE POST CORRESPONDENTS' LETTERS

LITTLE BRITAIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) One of the pioneers of Mariposa passed away this week in the person of Benjamin Walter Roach. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Haner of the Christian church. Rev. D. R. Clare, B.A., B.D., preached in the Methodist church here Sunday. Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph.B., took his place at Atherley, preaching missionary sermons.

Our league are busy preparing for their annual concert on Christmas night.

Mr. Hughes, of Valentia, has moved into our village. He intends opening a shoe repairing shop.

Miss Florence Dix has returned home after visiting relatives in Bowmanville and Haydon.

The School Board has engaged its teachers for another year.

Mr. G. W. Prouse, having sold his farm and disposed of his stock, expects in the near future to move to Lindsay, where he expects to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Prouse will be greatly missed in this locality, being active workers in church and Sunday school work.

(DENTIST) — One of the firm of Neelands & Irving, dentists, Lindsay, will be at Mr. Merton's, Little Britain, on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd.—w.t.

DIGBY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) What's the matter with Digby? It's all right, but our correspondent has gone to sleep. The farmers around here have all their roots stored away and most of their ploughing done.

Miss Martha Armstrong visited friends here on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. Fitzgerald, who has been on the sick list for some time, is able to be out again.

Most of the boys around here are gone to the north camps.

Our school has opened again with a large attendance. Some of our people do not realize what an important influence upon their children a school teacher may have.

Most of us think that all children get from her is a little reading, writing and arithmetic. We never stop to consider how her association will influence their lives.

We never think of the effect she has on them, morally and socially, but as a matter of fact it is perfectly possible for a school teacher to do more harm than good, unless her moral and social influence upon the children is of the right kind.

You want for your children one who not only has a good education, but is also in sympathy with farmers and farm life.

School teachers who are continually giving their pupils peevish views of city life and running down the farm, are one of the greatest social evils with which farmers have to put up.

See that your district has the right kind of teacher, one who loves the country and who will inspire in your children a love for it too.

If they don't love it now, invite her to your home, that you may know her, and she may know your children better, keep her in sympathy with farm life by helping her enjoy it.

If you can get this kind of a teacher, and will treat her in the right way, she will have an influence for good upon your children far beyond what you have ever before realized a teacher could have.

KIRKFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Miss Brown's recital on Friday last was very much enjoyed by those present. The children all acquitted themselves very creditably. The program deserved a better house.

The concert on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Presbyterian church was well put on. The program consisted of local and instrumental music and a play. We understand the receipts netted $23.

The Kirkfield Club are giving a dance in the town hall on Friday evening next. An enjoyable time is looked for.

The dog that had been killing sheep in this vicinity was captured and shot last week.

The young people are enjoying a skate on the ice in the open. The speech talked of skating rink is not to materialize this winter.

Judge Harding, of Lindsay, was here last Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Merry, sr., and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Miss Steele, of Balsover, is visiting Mrs. MacEdden.

Quite a number of young people attended the temperance concert at Balsover on Thursday night of last week, and report a good time.

Mr. Hugh Chisholm, of Winnipeg, formerly of this place, spent a few days here last week with relatives and renewed friendship with many old friends.

The Rev. Mr. Wesley, of Sunderland, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here next Sabbath.

The merchants are preparing for Christmas. Mr. Fead, cruggist, especially, is making a good showing in OAKWOOD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) St. Martin's church, Livingstone, Alta, was the scene of a pretty wedding on the afternoon of Nov. 20th when Miss Minnie May Thorndyke, daughter of Mr. William Thorndyke, of Oakwood, was married to Mr. Arthur Hugh Gumm, of Crowley, Alta, the father, the Rev. W. H. Mowat, officiating. The bride entered the church on the arm of Mr. H. G. Nash, and looked very pretty in a smart travelling suit of navy blue broadcloth with hat to match, wore a handsome set of mink furs, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Everide Blythman was attired in a smart tailored gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. H. A. Gumm. After the ceremony a reception was held at Hillside ranch, the residence of the groom's parents. After receiving congratulations and good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Gumm left for a short wedding trip east.

Wednesday, November the 20th was the scene of a very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Martindale, when their eldest daughter, Ida Alberta, was united in marriage to Mr. William Ball, of Toronto. Promptly at 3.30 the bride entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Carrie Moore, cousin of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk and carried a bouquet of cream roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Maude Martindale, who was attired in a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by his friend, Mr. Joe Short, the marriage ceremony being performed by the Rev. T. Brown. After a sumptuous repast was partaken of, the happy couple left on the evening train for points west.

The bride's going away suit was of navy blue ladies' cloth, with hat to match. The presents were numerous and costly, the groom's gift being a solid silver tea service. Mr. and Mrs. Ball will reside in Toronto.

Mr. Whitlock, of Cleveland, sang in the Methodist church Sunday evening, and his singing was enjoyed by all, his solo being, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

Mrs. A. O. Hogg and Miss Ida are visiting their friends, Mrs. McCauley, of Belleville.

Mrs. Morgan Lewis, of Lindsay, visited friends in Oakwood Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodley, of Tyrone, attended the Ball-Martindale wedding on Wednesday of last week.

Misses McLeod and Ferguson, and Messrs. Prouse and McCrimmon, of Woodville, and Mr. Reginald Rennie, of Lindsay, were guests at Mr. G. B. Fennie's on Sunday.

Mrs. Gus Prouse and daughter, Zeila, of Woodville, spent Friday and Saturday last in our village.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Kemp, have come to reside in our village. They are occupying the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Gamesby.

Mrs. W. Short, of Penick, is spending the week at Mr. J. F. Cunningham's.

The Woman's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. O. Hogg. The delegate appointed to attend the convention at Guelph was Mrs. Moses Webster.

About thirty ladies were present, and a very enjoyable time was spent. The Institute met again on December 2nd, at the home of Mrs. E. G. Lytle, at 2.30 p.m. when Dr. Annie Backus, of Aylmer, will address the meeting. All members and ladies interested will be welcomed. A very interesting and profitable evening was spent.

The Farmer's Institute will be held on December 2nd in the town hall, afternoon and evening sessions. Special music is being prepared for the evening meeting.

Rev. D. R. Clare, B.A., B.D., addressed the young people in the Methodist church on "The Forward Movement."

Mr. Gordon King, is in Toronto on business.

Our constable, Mr. N. Hill, had a quick run on Thursday morning of last week to arrest a young man at Mariposa station, charged with taking a fur coat from Mr. E. Z. Yerex, of Little Britain. He took his prisoner by train to Lindsay and handed him over to the police there.

Rev. J. H. McCoombe, the Irish evangelist will commence revival services in the Methodist church here on Sunday, December 8th. Everybody welcome.

We are pleased to see Mr. Staback around again after being laid up for some time with rheumatism.

Mr. John Cappell, "Fairview Farm" has returned from Toronto, after spending some time with his wife, who is in the hospital. We hope for her speedy recovery.

DENTIST — Dr. Bowerman's next visit will be on Friday, Dec. 6th, at the Queen's hotel.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) This place was favoured last week with a visit from his honour Judge Harding, accompanied by County Solicitor McDiarmid, and our own (Bob) R. J. McLaughlin, barrister, etc. all of Lindsay. The reason of the unexpected visit was in connection with the trouble arising over the late valuation of the county, which was appealed against by a number of the northern townships, and which His Honor is trying to adjust, and in order to do so intelligently, decided to see the general character of the north townships. It was a very commendable undertaking, but a laborious one for Judge Harding. However, his honor seemed to enjoy his drive greatly.

The weather has been unusually fine lately for this season of the year, which will shorten the winter season and save feed, which is of great importance this winter, besides allowing people a great chance to complete their fall ploughing and other necessary work.

Tax collectors are the order of the day. They report little trouble in collecting.

We notice from reports of deer hunting parties that in some places deer are plentiful. This has not been so in this part. Parties who hunt north of here (except in Longford) report deer as being very scarce, some parties who hunted the whole season not even getting one deer; others only one, whilst others more fortunate got their full complement.

There is some talk of asking the government to prohibit hunting of deer in the northern part of Victoria for a number of years in order to keep the deer from becoming extinct in this locality.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) — Mr. J. J. Cave visited our town Tuesday.

Some of our young people visited Oakwood over Sunday.

Mr. C. S. Pickering, of Lindsay, visited this burg on Sunday.

Quite a number from here attended Cannington anniversary services on Sunday and Monday.

Don't forget the Scotch concert to be given on Monday, Dec. 2nd, under the auspices of the Public Library. Everyone come and enjoy a good time.

Mr. Faid, banker, has moved to the house lately occupied by Mr. Ed. Gregg. Mr. Gregg has moved to the house over the store.

Miss Lily Gilchrist had a masquerade party on Thursday last. The costumes were very antique and interesting.

On Friday night last a number of our town folk entertained. Among those were Mrs. C. H. Caverly, Mrs. D. McTaggart and Mrs. Wm. Newman.

Mr. John Hughes has moved to the house lately occupied by Mr. John Owens.

Mrs. L. Bowie has returned after spending the summer with her parents in Hartley.

A memorial service will be held for the infant son of Mr. Reuben Thomas in the Methodist church on Sunday morning next, Dec. 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox visited Mr. and Mrs. Mat. Stoddard, a few days last week.

We are pleased to see Mr. Staback around again after being laid up for some time with rheumatism.

Mr. John Cappell, "Fairview Farm" has returned from Toronto, after spending some time with his wife, who is in the hospital. We hope for her speedy recovery.

VICTORIA ROAD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Everyone enjoyed the social evening which was given at Mrs. Davey's home last Tuesday, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Miss Sara and Jennie Shields are at present visiting friends in Peterboro and Mount Pleasant.

If this weather continues we shall have skating soon on the Victoria rink. We are patiently waiting, but hustling in the meantime.

Business has been so increased with Mr. Ryekman that he has had to add another to his staff. Another swinging the navil.

Mr. Cameron has opened up a new blacksmith shop in town. We wish him success.

There is a new barber in town. Mr. Bell, of the far West, has opened a much-needed shop.

Mr. E. V. Moore, of Peterboro, was in the village on business last week. Miss Ella Ryekman spent a week with friends in Norfolk.

Miss Margaret Shields is home after spending a month with Toronto and Oakwood friends.

Mr. Wm. Newman, of Woodville, addressed the Epworth Leaguers on Monday evening. He discussed the subject, "Becoming Acquainted With God" which was very much enjoyed by all. The Leaguers hope Mr. Newman will visit the League soon again.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Anniversary services were held in the Methodist and English churches last Sunday. In the morning the Rev. Mr. Marsh, of Peterboro, delivered a very interesting sermon in the Methodist church to a fairly large congregation. In the afternoon, Rev. F. L. Barber preached a very fitting sermon in St. John's. Mr. Barber took as his text, "Gather up the fragments, that none may be lost." The church was filled to its capacity. In the evening at seven o'clock another service was held in the Methodist church. Mr. Marsh, being a lover of the study of astronomy, was requested to preach on the subject, "God as a Sun", and the large congregation went away well pleased.

Miss Ruby Kennedy is spending a few days in Dunsford.

Miss Lily Scamour of Lindsay, is visiting at Miss Burgess' near Dunsford.

A town supper and concert was given in the hall adjoining the English church last Monday night. The weather was perfect and a large crowd, including some from Bobcaygeon and Lindsay, was present. Those in charge of the affair are well pleased with the results of their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, of Lindsay, spent Sunday, Nov. 11, at Mr. Silas Thurston's.

Mr. Jno. Hurley, of Lindsay, spent Monday evening with Mr. F. Woodland.
