IMPORTANT NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Told in Interesting Form by the Bright Correspondents of The Post at the Various Centres.

UPHILL.

(Special to The Post) Monday was election day, and the people of creation issued proudly forth to exercise their historic privilege of casting their votes at the poll.

thing is in preparation for the annual feast. Fowl suppers and pie socials seem to be the order of the day in the surrounding country, and a general air of sociability pervades all. Now that the busiest part of the season is over neighbors have a little leisure time to visit each other.

The Misses Graham, of Longford Mills, were welcome visitors to Uphill this week.

Even the "oldest inhabitant" does not recollect such a fall as this has been, the warm weather continuing so late and the roads in such a state of perfection; but a much needed rain fell on Sunday, and the weather is still unsettled.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wiley, with their little son Fraser, have returned to Uphill after a brief absence.

Save for the sound the squirrel makes among the rustling leaves That strew the ground across his path—it seems all nature grieves, Even the clouds are lowering, and dropping many a tear To see the glory of the field and forest disappear.

DORSET.

Five of our citizens, Messrs. E. W. Lockwood, Wm. Sparks, E. B. Speers, Esq., J. McKey and Joseph Cassidy, made a trip to the county seat, to attend the meeting of the board of license commissioners held on the 19th inst.

latter presented a petition to the contrary. We wish no one any harm, but deem it more expedient to look after the interests of our village and community at large, than that of one individual. The greatest good to the greatest number should be our aim. People may idly talk, but facts remain unaltered. The cancelling of one hotel license is one step toward sobriety and prosperity.

VALENTIA.

(Special to The Post) We are glad to welcome to our midst Mr. Samuel Lewis, of Oakwood, who has leased Mr. Wm. Tinney's farm. Mr. Lewis is a highly respected citizen, and will be a benefit to the neighborhood.

A rather serious accident occurred here last Monday morning. Mr. Howard Grills was plowing, when one of his horses, a colt, took fright. In his efforts to control them Howard broke one bit and line. The horses then ran away, which resulted in one of them breaking his leg.

Rev. Mr. Moore preached a very powerful sermon here on Sunday last, it being quarterly service. Don't forget our grand fowl dinner on Thanksgiving day. Rev. J. Stewart of China, formerly of this place,

MARIPOSA.

(Special to The Post) Mr. and Mrs. R. Rich have moved into their new brick house this week. Miss Mildred King and Miss Lottie returned last Friday evening from Orillia, where they had been attending the provincial Sunday school convention. They report a most enjoyable and profitable time, there being something over 350 delegates present.

Miss Sykes, of Oshawa, is at present spending a pleasant vacation with Mrs. W. H. Webster and Mrs. B. Graham. Miss Rea, our estimable school teacher, went to Lindsay Friday evening, returning Saturday evening.

Mrs. Jim Rich visited Lindsay last Saturday. Fish is certainly an excellent brain food, and judging from the amount of fish shipped in from the west our town will soon boast of at least a few brainy people.

Mr. Stevens, P. S. Inspector, visited our school one day last week. Quite a number from here are going to the Oakwood fowl supper next Thursday evening.

ISLAY.

(Special to The Post) The Women's Institute meeting will be held on Thursday next, Nov. 12th, at the home of Mrs. D. R. Spence at 2.30 p.m., sharp. A cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the neighborhood.

NORLAND.

(Special to The Post) Miss Minnie Lunney, of Lindsay, is the guest of her friend, Miss Nellie Alley, for a week or two. Mr. Jack Bowins, of Pontypool, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Wellington Wilson, for a couple of weeks.

Miss Maggie Wallace, of Haliburton is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Owen Westsells. Mr. Hugh MacIntyre, of Fenelon Falls, gave Norland friends a fine visit on Sunday last.

Miss Pearl Lecraw entertained a number of her lady friends last Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Delaney and baby girl of Toronto, are visiting friends in our little village.

A number of our young men have gone back to the rocks for the hunting season. We wish the boys luck.

SOUTH VERULAM.

(Special to The Post) Election talk is almost a thing of the past in this vicinity, and people are getting down to hard work again after the battle. The Reformers are jubilant over the result, although they did not gain this riding.

On the other hand the Conservatives are greatly disappointed, as we believe they were expecting a land slide, and that is one reason why Col. Sam Hughes got such a large majority.

It is hard to understand why the Conservative party looked for such a turnover, considering the good times we have had since 1896. The Laurier government has proven itself to be the best ruling power that Canada ever has seen.

Of course, like Alexander Mackenzie, Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be persecuted by the Tories till he leaves these plains, and then he will be everything that is good when he has gone. However, the majority of the people are exceedingly glad that the same ruling power prevails at Ottawa.

Mr. W. S. Hunter's sale of live stock and implements was well attended, and everything sold well. Mr. Hunter has leased his farm for a term of years to Mr. Ross Fair of North Harvey. Mr. Hunter is going west for a few days to join his family.

Our school has opened up again, and is now under the management of a former teacher, Miss Claribel McDougall. It appears the school is very far behind.

St. John's Methodist church is making preparations for a concert on the 11th, and a good time is expected.

Thos. Stephenson, and leaves a number of relatives to mourn his loss. There is a survey party taking measurements near here for the double tracking of the Grand Trunk railway.

A large number of hunters have left for the north. A number of our citizens intend taking in the Sheffield choir concert at Lindsay on November 12th. The Methodist church had a successful concert on Friday evening last. There is to be a Thanksgiving tea next Monday by the ladies' aid.

Captain Germain is conducting a shooting match on Thanksgiving day.

KINMOUNT.

(Special to The Post) Several parties of hunters passed through this village on their way to their various hunting grounds, the latter part of last week and this week.

F. Dettman and party left on Saturday morning for a point some 20 miles from Minden to enjoy the hunting season. Miss Pearl Hopwood, who has had a two weeks' holiday on account of scaritina in the neighborhood of the school, in which she teaches, returned to Kinmount on Monday.

Mr. A. Watson, of Toronto, visited this village last week. Mrs. J. Cain, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Smith, returned to Toronto on Monday.

Mr. D. Byrne came home from Peterboro last Sunday. Mr. Jas. Kennedy, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving.

MINDEN.

(Special to The Post) Rev. Edward Soward was a visitor in Toronto this week, and returned home on Saturday evening. Messrs. John and Arthur Noice of Toronto, are spending a holiday with their parents here.

Rev. A. H. Webster, of Haliburton, occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday evening, and Rev. E. W. Rowland occupied the pulpit in Haliburton.

Miss Edith Bricknell was a visitor in Haliburton on Sunday last. Messrs. W. Archer and W. Kirkwood arrived here on Friday evening from the west.

Mr. E. Henderson arrived here from Alberta to take charge of the Presbyterian mission here. Miss Rose Wainer, of Orillia, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Pearl Palmer.

Mrs. Anderson and Miss Palmer arrived home from Orillia on Saturday evening. Mr. Chas. Smith, of Peterboro, was a visitor here this week.

Miss Bessie Philips gave a very enjoyable dancing and card party to her friends on Friday evening.

A number of hunters passed through here on their way north to hunt deer. Rev. G. W. Henderson was a visitor here this week.

Mr. Wilson of Lindsay, was a visitor here this week on his way to Dorset. Mr. Wm. Switzer, of Gooderham, fish inspector, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. F. H. B. Carey returned to his home in Washago. Mrs. Erskine and Miss Lila Hoxie, of Haliburton, were visitors here this week.

POWLES' CORNER.

(Special to The Post) Services in the local Methodist church were conducted by Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A., of Cambridge-st church, Lindsay, on Sunday last. Although the weather was rather cold for comfort, a large congregation listened to Mr. Wilson's remarks. The text was from John 21, 3, "Simon Peter saith unto him, I go a-fishing. They said unto him, we also go with thee."

The sermon was delivered in a simple, unaffected manner, and the truths will have their effect. A few thoughts were:—We should do what we can do best, and we should do it now. The work of a christian is always spiritual, i. e., we are to be christians in our work as well as on Sunday. Rev. Wilson will be long remembered by people of this community.

Miss Clara Powles, is spending a short vacation with Mrs. M. H. McCallum, of Fenelon Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sims and Miss E. Campbell, of Cameron, attended divine services here on Sunday last. Quite a number attended the Methodist anniversary services on Monday last. All report a good program, as well as an excellent supper.

Miss Ruby Powles spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. M. Littlejohn, of Fenelon Falls. A reward is offered for the recovery of a thief at Cameron, so writes a correspondent of one of the Lindsay weeklies. In our humble opinion, when even a good man recovers, the convalescent is presented with a doctor's bill instead of a reward.

Mr. Wilson, accompanied by Rev. J. P. Wilson, from Fenelon Falls on Sunday.

PENIEL.

(Special to The Post) Mr. George Hardy has returned from the S. S. convention held in Orillia, and reports a splendid and instructive gathering at which over four hundred delegates were present.

Mrs. Hoskins, who spent the past month with her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Squires, has returned to her home in Toronto.

A goodly number from Peniel attended the quarterly communion service held at Salem on Saturday last. The new house which is being erected on Judge McIntyre's farm, is nearing completion.

Miss Vada Mainhood, of Toronto, spent several days of this week the guest of her friend, Miss Bessie Hardy.

Messrs. Ernest Wright and Elmer Lilloco, and Misses Dot Lilloco and Lena Wright spent last Sunday at Sonja, the guests of Mr. John Squires.

Rev. T. Brown, of Lindsay, is doing quite a flourishing business in the insurance line in our vicinity.

Mr. Wes. Mallon of Manilla, occupied the pulpit here on Sunday evening last and preached a thoughtful sermon to the many young people present.

FENELON FALLS.

(Special to The Post) The anniversary services of the Methodist church here were held on Sunday, Nov. 1st. Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A., of Lindsay, preached excellent sermons at both morning and evening services.

On Monday evening a fowl supper was held in the basement of the church. The ladies of the church in providing and serving this supper fully sustained their reputation in this line. A large number did ample justice to the good things provided, after which a fine programme was carried out. The meeting was held in the church, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion with beautiful plants and flowers, massed at the foot of the platform.

Rev. W. J. M. Cragg, pastor of the church, officiated as chairman. The choir rendered an anthem, after which Mr. Cragg offered prayer.

A violin solo by Miss Margery McDougall was executed in a pleasing manner, and was well received by the audience.

Rev. Mr. Cragg desired to express his gratification at seeing such a large attendance, to meet such a large, intelligent and splendid audience. He regretted that two of his brethren in the meeting were unavoidably absent, Rev. Mr. Lord and Rev. A. Cooke. He spoke of the lecturer of the evening, Rev. Mr. Wilson, and said he was sure he needed
