

Roofing Right Costs No Less — But It Is Far Cheaper

SOME shingle roofs keep out the worst of the weather if you patch them up every summer. They ought to last at least ten years, if they're well cared for.

Some metal shingles are made of pretty good IRON. They make passably good roofs for maybe fifteen years—if you paint them every year—two coats.

BUT—these "Oshawa" Special Galvanized STEEL Shingles of mine are GUARANTEED to make a REALLY good roof for twenty-five years (and that means a NEW roof for nothing if they leak a single drop in all that time).

You needn't ever paint an "Oshawa" shingled roof—the heavy galvanizing, the 28-gauge sheet steel, the four-way lock, makes paint needless. True these "Oshawa" shingles cost about the same as the going as good cedar shingles or as ordinary metal shingles. (You notice nobody but me calls their shingles STEEL—metal is a handier word). But my shingles are not only guaranteed for 25 years—in writing, with a new-roof-for-nothing penalty and $250,000 back of my say-so—they are also guaranteed to be rain-proof, snow-proof, wind-proof, fire-proof and lightning-proof.

As a matter of fact, they are good for a century. How are you going to make weather-proof steel rust or rot? Wouldn't it really pay you to send a postcard for a free book that tells the whole story in plain words? My shingles cover thousands of the finest barns and houses and public buildings all over Canada. Though the same 25-year guarantee goes with every roof, we've never been called on yet to make it good. Read the book, won't you?

Special Galvanized STEEL Shingles of mine are GUARANTEED to make a REALLY good roof for twenty-five years (and that means a NEW roof for nothing if they leak a single drop in all that time).

Enjoyable Evening with the Foresters

Court Lindsay, I.O.F., Holds its First Social Evening

A thoroughly enjoyable time was spent by those who attended the Independent Foresters' "social evening" Thursday night, and the hall was comfortably filled with both ladies and gentlemen. The chair was most acceptably filled by His Worship Begg. A short address was made by Mr. R. R. Elliot, Past D.S.C.R., and the speech of the evening was delivered by Mr. W. L. Wilkinson, D.S.C.R., who in most eloquent terms explained the work which the organization is doing in the relief of the widow and the orphan, and in relieving the sick and the distressed. The speaker instanced a number of cases where wives were left with helpless infants utterly destitute but for the aid which came at an opportune moment from the Independent Order of Foresters, and he showed how necessary it was that everyone should throw around their loved ones that measure of protection which such organizations provide. It was unquestionably a fact that institutions such as this have a tendency to lessen the tax rate by reducing the expenditure on poor houses, jails and asylums, for when a woman is left destitute with a number of little mouths about her to feed it is necessary that she should go out in the world to earn the wherewithal to feed and clothe the little ones. And when she is thus away working, the little ones are deprived of that care and training they otherwise would have, and they roam the streets and acquire all sorts of bad habits. With an insurance policy payable on the death of the breadwinner, this contingency is obviated and it is then possible to care for and bring up the children as they should be. Mr. Wilkinson pointed out that the order has already paid out over twenty-five million dollars to widows and orphans, the amount last year being in the neighborhood of two and a half millions. Large sums have also been paid out to those who had been disabled, to those who were sick, and also to members who had reached the age of seventy years, for the order does not require its members to die before paying them. Mr. Wilkinson's address was replete with telling points, and was listened to with the keenest interest by all present.

The musical part of the programme was very good and was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Morrissey played a couple of very good piano solos, Little Miss Marian Power captivated the audience with her rendition of a couple of delightful solos, and three little Misses Kineer elicited very hearty applause with their trio. Mr. and Mrs. Morton brought forth enthusiastic enconiums with a flute and enthusiastic enconiums with a flute and well played, while Miss May Kineer pleased the audience with a mouth organ solo. Naylor brothers received most unstinted applause for the excellence of their duets, first on the mandolin and guitar, and then on ockerinos.

The entertainment was a thoroughly pleasing one, and the enjoyment was none the less appreciated when the ladies of the Companions of the Forest court appeared on the scene with ice cream and cake. This is the first of a series of social evenings to be held during the fall and winter, and it is not difficult to predict that the future ones will be well attended.

Evils of the Cigarette Habit

Many Boys of Tender Years Addicted to the Habit

A well known local citizen in conversation with a Post representative referred to the evil of cigarette smoking among the youth of the town, and while discussing the subject he drew the reporter's attention to several boys of tender years dividing up the contents of a box of cigarettes near the corner of Kent and Lindsay-sts. There is no doubt but that a large number of cigarettes are daily being consumed by young boys who are ignorant of the danger that invariably follows the use of the same by those of tender years. Of course, it would be unfair to state that the cigarettes are sold to those boys in defiance of the law, which is very strict on this point, but the fact is apparent that they secure them from some source. The parents of those boys have a duty to perform in this matter. They apparently allow them to run around at night in all sorts of company and in dangerous environments and seem to exercise no endeavor to exercise or control over them, until the results of their negligence is brought home to them in the arrest of their boy for a serious crime. The use of the cigarette is only one of the many vices contracted on the streets after hours. "I am not much of a mathematician," said the cigarette, "but I can add to a youth's nervous troubles, I can extract from his physical energy, I can multiply his aches and pains, I can take interest from his work and discount his chances for success."

Magistrate Deals with Pilferers

Talks Paternally to Two Misguided Youths and Hands Out Some Good Advice

Friday evening at the police court the two local boys charged with the theft of a number of bottles from the driveway of the King Edward hotel Thursday evening, came up for hearing before Police Magistrate Jackson. Mr. Ashmore, proprietor of the King Edward, stated that he had been missing empty bottles of late, and on the evening in question the contents of a case had been taken. The magistrate considered the fact of the bottles being left in the driveway, a source of temptation to young boys. Mr. Ashmore replied that he was anxious to have the pilfering stopped. The two boys elected to be tried by the magistrate and pleaded guilty. One of them stated that he had only stolen three bottles, and had never visited the driveway on any other occasion. He intended selling them to Mr. Moore.

In reply to the magistrate, Mr. Ashmore stated that the bottles were worth $1.25 a case. The magistrate, in addressing one of the boys, who, by the way, has been out on suspended sentence, stated that things turned out exactly as he expected. "I take an interest in boys, and watch them," the magistrate continued, "and I have followed your career. You have not followed in the footsteps of your brother. I make it a practice never to allow anyone to go on suspended sentence twice. You are over sixteen years of age, and cannot be sent to the industrial school. I could send you to gaol on this charge. I will make you pay $1 for the bottles, and will besides fine you $3 and costs ($4.50) and in default of payment two months in gaol. Should you appear before me again, it will certainly go hard with you."

The other youth stated that he was at home on the night in question and had his boots off, when his chum whistled for him outside. They intended selling the bottles in order to secure money to take in the carnival. He had never stolen anything before. The magistrate stated that he must in future choose better company. He did not look like a bad boy, but had made his first step on the down grade. He warned him to be very careful in the future concerning his actions, for if he ever appeared in court again severe punishment would be meted out to him. He allowed him to go on suspended sentence, besides assessing him $1 for the bottles stolen and the costs of the court, $4.50 in all.

Obituary DAVID HART. On Tuesday, Oct. 13th, 1908, there passed away one of God's chosen servants in the person of David Hart. He was born in the township of Manvers in May, 1840. About 35 years ago he was converted to God under the faithful ministry of Rev. Edward Holmes, of the Methodist church. From that time on he was untiring in his efforts to promote the welfare of the kingdom of God. No sooner had he accepted Christ as his Lord and Master than he united with the Methodist church, feeling that only those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. During the years that he was connected with the Fleetwood Methodist church of the Bethany circuit, he efficiently discharged the duties of class leader, trustee, and Sunday school superintendent, which last office he filled for nearly 17 years. Such was his fidelity to the school that during this long period he was not absent more than a dozen times. Many have grown up to call him blessed, and so truly had he endeared himself to the hearts of young and old that he was respectfully and lovingly called "Uncle David."

During the last few weeks of his life, it grieved his spirit that he could not attend the public worship of God. Although he felt this to be a great loss, yet he was perfectly resigned to the will of his Heavenly Father. On the morning of his death, about 4.30 he awoke with a smothering feeling, and turning to his wife, he tenderly said, "Well, I think I am going this time," and before a lamp could be lighted "he was not, for God took him."

APPLES, ORANGES FIGS AND PRUNES

The God-given Cure for All Diseases of Bowels, Liver, Kidneys and Skin.

Few people seem to realize how important—how absolutely necessary—it is to keep the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin in proper working order. They wonder why they have Sallow Complexions—Indigestion—Headaches—Rheumatism—while all the time their systems are clogged and poisoned with waste tissue and indigestible food which these organs should have removed. What they need are Fruit Juices—nature's provision for keeping the eliminating machinery of the body working right. "Fruit-a-lives" are the concentrated juices of fresh, ripe fruits, combined in such a way that their medicinal action is greatly intensified. They stimulate and regulate the action of Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, thus clearing the system of the accumulated waste and poison, purifying the blood, and banishing those distressing troubles that make life miserable. No other remedy has ever been discovered that does this so effectively as "Fruit-a-lives." Trial size 25c. Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

The funeral service was conducted on the following Thursday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. C. Adams, assisted by Rev. Jas. O'Hara of Toronto. Bro. Hart chose his funeral text, viz.: Psa. 73:25: "Whom have I in heaven but Thee; and there is none on the earth that I desire beside Thee."

The large concourse of people testified to the universal esteem in which he was held. His remains were carried to the Riverside cemetery, Lindsay, by his six nephews.

Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing widow. The community, home and church have sustained a great loss.

MR. PATRICK O'CONNOR

Wednesday night at St. Joseph's hospital, Peterboro, there passed away one of the oldest and most respected residents of Ennismore, in the person of Mr. Patrick O'Connor. He was born in Ireland 76 years ago and for sixty years he resided in the township of Ennismore, where he was well known to everyone. Mr. O'Connor was married 33 years ago to Hannah Congrove who survives him. His sons are Marie in the United States and John of Ennismore, and his daughters, Mary at home and Lillian in Saginaw, Mich. His surviving brothers are Maurice and Cornelius, of Ennismore, and Jas. of Hamilton, and John of Downerville, and he has one sister, Mrs. Jno. Scollard, of Ennismore.

The funeral was held this morning from his residence, lot 11, concession 7, Ennismore.

ELLEN M. WHALEN.

The sad death took place on Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock Miss Ellen M. Whalen, youngest daughter of Mrs. James Whalen, lot 17, con. 8, Ops, at the early age of 32 years. The deceased had been unwell for some time with pulmonary troubles, and yesterday morning her condition became quite alarming. Towards evening she gradually grew worse until death ended her earthly career at ten o'clock.

The late Miss Whalen was of a kind and lovable disposition, and was universally respected. She leaves behind her to mourn her loss her sorrowing mother and two sisters and two brothers—Mrs. Eucharin, of Port Arthur; Mrs. M. Farrell, and Messrs. John J. and Thos. H. on the homestead.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 8 o'clock from the family residence and will proceed to St. Mary's church, thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Sunday morning the sad news came that Mr. W. R. Knight, Bowmanville, had passed from the activities of earth to his home beyond. Though he is gone his record has been made and will remain with his relatives and friends as a lasting memory. Two weeks before he was prostrated with typhoid pneumonia and although everything medical skill, kind attention and professional nursing could do was done, he passed peacefully to rest early on Sunday morning, Oct. 18 in his 53rd year. Deceased was a devoted husband and a kind and indulgent parent, to his friends, the soul of goodfellowship. As a citizen he was worthy of respect and it is as a man that those who knew him best most love to contemplate him. He was a Christian, believing in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. He evinced by his life that the person who scatters flowers in the pathway of his fellow men, who lets into the dark places of life the sunshine of human sympathy and human happiness, follows in the footsteps of his divine Master. The funeral on Tuesday was a very large one. Rev. John Garbutt, his pastor, was assisted by Rev. William Timbert, Orono, and Rev. T. W. Ulliffe, both former pastors. All spoke of the good qualities of deceased and Rev. Mr. Garbutt spoke of his recent pastoral visits and of the strong faith he had in Christ. The choir of the Methodist church of which Mr. Knight was a member for thirty years, having also been a member of the B. C. choir prior to the Union, attended in a body and sang "Book of Ages" and "One by one our loved ones slowly pass beyond the bounds of time." A male quartette composed of Messrs. W. S. Bragg, T. E. Higginbotham, S. C. Allen and Wesley, R. Allen sang "There is Rest." The tall bearers were Messrs. W. H. Dugan, J. J. Mason, James Morrow, S. J. Hall, T. E. Higginbotham, and J. T. Hoeger. The floral tributes were very beautiful, comprising one from the Epworth League, Poultry Association, a pillow from the sons, and many others. The eyes of many were tearful as the choir sang expressively these closing stanzas: One by one our banks are thinning— Thinning here but swelling there; One by one bright browns are winning Crowns they shall forever wear.

Goodbye! hail the fondly cherished, Tears and joys are ours today; Some have gone and left the others Hasten on the shortening way.

Deceased was eldest son of the late Mr. James Knight, Lake Shore, and his death is the first break in a family of seven daughters and two sons. He leaves a widow and two sons of a kind husband and father. Among the relatives present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mr. Jack Wakely, and Mrs. B. J. McLaughlin, Lindsay; Col. and Mrs. Bonestall, Belleville; Mr. Neil Yellowlegs, Toronto; Mrs. Samuel Stanley, Elmville; Mrs. Duncan Livingstone, Barrie; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Down, Oshawa; Mr. Wm. Stanley, Pickering; Miss Greta Halliett, Whitby.

MRS. JOS. NEWMAN, SR.

The death occurred on Thursday of Elizabeth Love, relict of the late Jos. Newman, at the residence of her son, Joseph Newman, Smith township. The deceased was seventy years of age, and was born in the township of Kingston. Forty-eight years ago she was married to Jos. Newman, of Smith. For years the family residence was at Bobcaygeon, but during the past year the deceased was living with her son. The funeral was held from the home of the latter this morning at 10.30 o'clock and proceeded to Mount Pleasant.

MRS. ALFRED ARCHER.

Another aged and respected citizen was suddenly called by death early Sunday morning, Oct. 25th, in the person of Mrs. Alfred Archer, of Minden township. It seems Mrs. Archer was not quite so well as usual on Saturday evening, and after milking the cows and taking her tea, retired earlier than has been her custom. Some time later Mr. Archer also retired, but not before he had learned from her that she was quite at ease. At ten, twelve and two o'clock she assured her husband that she was no worse, and he again went to sleep, to waken at four o'clock only to find that his aged partner was already cold in death.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three sons M William and George of Minden township, and Robert, of Lutterworth township.

The funeral took place to Bethel cemetery on Monday afternoon, and was very largely attended, considering the fact that so few knew of her sudden demise. Rev. E. W. Rowland was in charge, and held a service at the house, after which the interment took place.—Echo.

Beaverton Harbor has been Completed

The Work is an Excellent One and will be Permanent One

The harbor work which for the past four years has been in progress has come, we understand, to an end—for the time being, at least—and is completed. The work is an excellent one, and promises to prove reasonably permanent. It has also made a great change about the mouth of the river, and the only thing which now mars the appearance of that region is the decaying remains of the old wharf, which certainly is not "a thing of beauty." The channel, which is 100 feet wide from the turning basin to deep water, with a safe landing dock on each side, forms a splendid and adequate protection for all craft that may, from stress of weather, require shelter; while as an adjunct to the Trent canal, when that great work becomes operative, it will be most valuable.

Altogether the work, with a few exceptions, has been well done.—Advertiser.

Thoughtlessness of the Hunters

Should Exercise Caution Lest They Infringe the Law

Hunters, beware! A warning to induce men to refrain from law-breaking, in a law-abiding country like Canada, seems to be unnecessary. But thoughtlessness, where there is no direct, firm-set purpose to infringe, sometimes gets men in trouble with the laws. A hint, like a stitch in time, may prevent trouble for somebody. It may not be generally known to hunters, but it is none the less a fact, that the Ontario Government is determined to put down law-breaking. This year's hunting season is wanted as an example, and a standard, or as near it as it is possible to attain, in regard to strict adherence to the game laws of the province. To this end an inspector has been appointed to each district, and he is given instructions to see that all hunters conform strictly with the laws. "It will be well for the army of hunters at present getting their hunting outfits together, and many of them already on the way to the earthy happy hunting grounds, to pay some heed to rules and regulations."

This was remarked by an experienced deer hunter yesterday. "One of the most important clauses of this year's laws is that relating to the shooting of does. Two deer may be shot by one man, but only one doe. For instance, a party of ten may bring out twenty deer, but only ten of them can be does. Partridges, too, are especially protected this year. Not one must be shot, according to law."

And this should develop into the greatest hunting season in years in Ontario, although there is apparently a slight falling off in the number of enthusiasts who are making for the woods. This is especially the case with our American cousins, who are just now in the throes of a great political struggle, but after Tuesday next, election day, it is expected, they will cross the borders in large numbers in quest of game.

Right Arm Broken John Eccles, an employee of the C.G.E. works and a resident of Ashburnham, was the victim of a painful accident the other evening when returning from work. Noticing a train fast approaching from the west in his hurry to get off the track he fell down the embankment lighting with such great force on his right hand that his arm was badly broken at the wrist. The accident occurred between Rogers and Concession sts., where the bank is very steep.—Advertiser.

Mr. Francis Galton in his "Measures," just issued, describes a visit to his anthropometric laboratory at South Kensington, and remarks that Mr. Gladstone was amusingly insistent about the size of his head, saying that hatters often told him that he had an Aberdeenshire head, "a fact which you may be sure I do not forget to tell my Scottish constituents." On the other hand Mr. Galton is very disagreeable to Aberdeenshire from another point of view. It seems he constructed a baby map. He had a little instrument by which he could tick off in his pocket the number of girls passed in the street who were "good," "medium," or "bad." "I found," he says, "London to rank highest for beauty, Aberdeen lowest."

Keen Vision

Curiously enough, according to the best authorities, the best eyesight in man is found at the equator and in the vicinity of poles. It is stated that good vision is most commonly found in the country, and on barren wastes broken by few objects in the line of sight. There we are told, the keenness of vision developed would be amazing to a city bred man, whose sight is nearly always deficient in many respects. Eskimos have been known to detect white foxes stealing along the snow-covered waste at incredible distances, and to be able to discern objects clearly in places where the chance traveller would see only fields of blinding white.

The Arabs of the desert are provided with keenness of vision quite equal to their northern brothers. The plainsmen of our own west have the best eyesight of Americans, inasmuch as the wide sweep of the western plains develops their vision by reason of the absence of obstacles tending to shorten the range.

The Indian's keen sight is of course proverbial; and it is doubtful whether any white man of this country ever attained his remarkable proficiency in this respect.
