

Correspondents' Newsy Letters

NORLAND.

(Special to The Post)

Mrs. James King has returned, after spending a few weeks with friends in Beaverton and Orillia.

One more of our young ladies has taken the matrimonial vows in the person of Miss Flora Adair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adair, to Mr. Arthur Swain, of Valentia, and her many friends in the village wish her a long and happy life.

Mr. Bert Martin has returned home after an absence of five or six months during which time he has been teaching school, but his school is closed, and Bert has come home to help his father and mother pack for their trip to the northwest.

Mr. Thos. Elson met with an accident which might have proved fatal. His horse ran away and threw him out, injuring him in many ways, but his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

The hunters are beginning to return, and a great number of loads have passed through the village.

SOUTH VERULAM.

(Special to The Post)

Winter is apparently setting in, as there is almost enough snow in this locality for sleighing. It is to be hoped, however, that we may get some warm wet weather yet, as the scarcity of water is beyond the recollection of the oldest inhabitant.

The concert in connection with St. John's Methodist church on Wednesday last was a grand success, as they realized about $20. The programme consisted of dialogues, violin solos, and some good singing by the school children. Rev. Mr. McCulloch, of Omamee, gave a fine address, especially to the young men, warning them against the great danger of keeping bad company, and he strongly urged people to respect the Sabbath day better. And last, but they did not least, was the recitations by Rev. Mr. Foley and Mr. W. J. Killaly.

Mr. John Davidson is back from the west, renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Patrick Brick, Jr., is also home from the west, and speaks in glowing terms of that country.

VICTORIA ROAD.

(Special to The Post)

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church are preparing a programme for a re-opening of the church, which will take place the first week in December. Church is held in the town hall while the church is being renovated.

Miss Bert Magwood is visiting friends in Woodville.

Miss Ella Ryckman left for Bobcaygeon on Saturday, where she expects to remain with Mrs. Baker for a few weeks. Mrs. Baker's many friends in Victoria Road extend to her their sympathy in her sad bereavement in the death of her husband, Mr. H. T. Baker.

Miss Lillian Spence is visiting Lindsay friends.

Several of the villagers attended the Sheffield choir concert in Lindsay last week. They all seemed to be much delighted with the choir.

ISLAY.

(Special to The Post)

Thanksgiving day passed off rather quietly in our village. A number of the young people attended the fowl supper in connection with the Methodist church at Cambray, and report a good time spent.

Miss May Rickaby of Toronto, is spending some weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. D. Gilchrist.

Mr. Clare Spence and Miss May Tolmie of the L.C.I., spent Thanksgiving here; also Miss Maud Curries, of Lindsay, visited at her home.

Miss Addie Rickaby, of Toronto, visited at Mrs. D. Gilchrist's on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. James Wilson spent the holidays with friends in Toronto.

Mr. Ambrose Elford is visiting his friends in the vicinity of Parry Sound.

We are having quite wintry like weather at present. Owing to the scarcity of water in most wells, the farmers are wishing for rain before the winter sets in.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

(Special to The Post)

On Friday, Nov. 13th, the 60th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James McLean was celebrated at "The Maples." A tempting dinner was served at 6 o'clock to a large number of guests. The table was decorated with chrysanthemums and as a centre piece sat a handsome wedding cake surrounded by a diamond in the form of 60 wax candles. The invited guests were the 7 children, 21 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. At the conclusion of the feast an address was read to the happy couple, who were the recipients of two well-filled purses of gold. The toast of "The King" was responded to by the assemblage singing the national anthem. Then came that of "Those we honor." This brought forth many happy speeches and a feeling of good fellowship among the company.

It is reported that the great Cavan swamp drain is finished.

The foundry and machine shop is now under the owner, Mr. John Hundley, in full operation.

The manager of the cheese factory here, Mr. McIndoo, has had a good season, the price of cheese being higher than usual.

The funeral of the late Samuel McCormick passed through here on Monday, the 16th inst on their way to the Presbyterian cemetery. He died after a long illness at Toronto, where he had been living for some time past with his nephew.

CAMBRAY.

(Special to The Post)

The fowl supper at the Methodist church, Cambray, on Thanksgiving eve, was a decided success. The weather was all that could be desired. There was a good crowd from Lindsay, Hartley, Glenora, and Cameron and the church was well filled. The chair was taken by Mr. N. Smale, Lindsay, who made a very capable chairman. A good programme was given by the Naylor Bros., Lindsay; Mrs. Geo. Sluggett, Mrs. D. W. Terrill and Miss Lillie Tamlin, also addressed by Rev. Mr. Whattam, of Woodville. Proceeds $138 from supper and social.

PENIEL.

(Special to The Post)

Miss Loretta Stone has returned to Orillia after spending some days with her friend, Miss Mabel Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hall, of Cannington, spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. Robt. McIntyre.

Several of the young men took in the surprise party at Mr. Everson's, on the eleventh, last Wednesday night.

Mr. Rich Osborne, sr., of Toronto, spent several days with his brother, Mr. Henry Osborne.

Mr. Thos. Squires spent a few days in Pickering lately.

Miss Ethel Kennedy, of Dunsford, visited her friend, Miss Madge Bagshaw, for a few days last week.

Mr. Robt. Stone, of Orillia, spent last week with friends in this vicinity.

Rev. J. U. Robins, of Seagrave, spent a couple of days with his cousin, Mr. G. W. Hardy, en route for home, after having spent a couple of weeks hunting at Cranberry Lake, where he was fortunate enough to secure a deer. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Robins and Miss Marjorie, who have spent three weeks visiting here, and with friends in Oakwood.

Mr. Chas. Bott, of Cresswell, ably filled our pulpit on Sunday last in the absence of our pastor, Rev. S. Duprau, who was conducting a funeral service at Manila. His interesting and instructive sermon was much appreciated by our congregation.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

(Special to The Post)

The I.O.O.F. are holding their annual concert on December 2. The following artists are billed for the event: Bert Harvey, comedian; Miss Eva Cuthbert, costume dancer and reciter; and Mr. Harold Rich, pianist. An excellent concert is thus expected.

Mr. David Wickett, of Toronto, is home on account of sickness of work.

Market prices were high on Friday last—butter 25c, to 27c; eggs 24c.

Mr. Bayne, of Brantford, organizer for the A.O.U.W., is in our village enlisting new members.

Mr. Flagler, of Toronto, representing the Excelsior Life Insurance Co., is in our midst looking for business.

Mr. J. A. Steele, of Toronto, bought Mr. Mark Wickett's fine lot of alskis this week at $7.70 per bushel.

We think winter has surely come, as several sleighs and cutters were out this week.

Our Epworth League members are busy preparing their concert, which comes off Christmas night. See bills later.

WOODVILLE.

(Special to The Post)

Mrs. Donald Grant and Mrs. V. D. McPherson sent Saturday at Mrs. Alex. McLeod's, "The Glen."

Mr. Hee. McCrimmon, who has been in Milestone, Sask., for the past few months, returned on Saturday night.

Mr. V. D. McPherson spent Friday in Toronto.

Mr. Fensworth Deguerre is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Miss Magwood, of Victoria Road, was the guest of the Misses Staples last week.

Miss Sallie Campbell returned on Tuesday after spending some time with friends in Lindsay.

Mr. Fred Farley paid a flying visit to our burg on Saturday morning.

The Methodist Sunday school are now practising for their annual Christmas cantata under the leadership of Mr. C. E. Weeks. It promises to be better than it has ever been.

The induction of the Rev. Mr. Mann was held in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd attended both the afternoon and evening sessions. After the induction a sumptuous tea was served. A splendid programme was given in the evening. Music was furnished by the choir and quartette, also solos by Messrs. Caverly, of Woodville, and Rev. Findlay of Cannington. Addresses were delivered by Rev. McNabb of British Columbia, Rev. Ross of Cobocok, Rev. Young, of Eldon, and Revs. Whattam and Mann of Woodville. Mrs. (Rev.) Young gave some pleasing recitations. A very enjoyable time was spent.

The young people are enjoying the first fall of snow. They are out every night sleighing down the hill. Quite a number of sleighs and cutters have started the season for sleighing.

Mrs. McLean and children of Eldon Station, were in town on Wednesday.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Geo. Daynes.

Miss Mabel McArthur spent Sunday at Fenelon Falls.
