The speaker felt that the council should not only restore the grant, but increase it The law association was only use their quarters, and was also isted between the two bodies. Mr. T. Stewart said that the council readily gave grants to other libraries in the county, and none was more deserving than the law library. The council should not only give grant, but also pay for telephone. The library is for the use of the of ficials of the county and the judges of the high court.

Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., sai the library would be there after they were all dead and gone. Recently the clerk of Somerville desired informa tion on certain matters, and as the books were not in the library con taining the facts desired, a search was made in Toronto, which necessi tated expense. Mr. McDiarmid also spoke briefly and urged upon the council the nec essity of making the grant. The chairman-I assure you, gentleman, the matter will receive " our very serious consideration when taken up by the committee. The deputation then withdrew.

In connection with this matter, Messrs. Campbell and Eyres moved that a grant of $25 be made to the Lindsay Law Library.

GRANTS.

On motion of Messrs. Fielding an Young the warden was granted allowance of $200.

On motion of Messrs. Hopkins and Howkins the chairman of the standinh committee on county property was granted an allowance of $50.

LICENSE COLLECTION. The resolution of Mr. Howkins recommending committee to grant county constables a percentage next considered.

Mr. Howkins said complaints were made regarding peddlers and hucksters going through the county. Lorneville recently there were peddlers there in one day. Mr. McNeillie-The law gives a constable the power to arrest him.

Several of the councillors referred at length to this matter, and Jordan's motion carried, which commended that the clause passed in connection with licenses in . June, 1907, ehould not prevent an official's discretion in the matter, and that county constables be notified.

WHO PAYS THE PIPER?

An account was read from the Lindsay Sanitorium amounting the sum of $12.50, re the maintenance for five weeks of an unfortununfortunate woman who worked in hotel, and was about to be confined. Mayor Begg recited the history this case. A local doctor placed the woman in the institution, and promised to notify the county authorities of the case, as it was understood she was a resident of the county.

The account provoked a spirited and lengthy discussion. Messrs. Parkin and Tiers moved that the county pay for her maintenance at the rate of $1.50 per for five weeks, and that she be placed in the house of refuge, providing she agrees to go, and remain for one
