

WEEKLY EDITION

Our sixty-first year

Stottings From Fenelon Falls

(Special to The Post)
The West Victoria Farmers' and Women's Institutes will hold their regular meeting in Fenelon Falls on Wednesday November 24th. The Farmer's Institute meeting will be held in the hall at 2 p.m. when address will be given by Mr. Anson of Preston, and Mr. D. A. Macdonald, B.S.A., of Lindsay, on the theme and other clover and the production of poultry products.
The Orange Hall at 2:30 p.m., the Margaret McAlpine, of Toronto, will address the Women's Institute. How to be well and happy.
In the evening a joint meeting will be held in Dickson's hall, when a programme will be presented. The members will be charged 10 cents admission to the evening meeting.
Last week saw the return of the first of the hunters who left for the first of the season. They report deer not quite so numerous as in former years, although they succeeded in securing one fine deer. The last to return were Messrs. R. Robson, G. Calder and F. Metcalfe, who got in on Thursday morning. Messrs. Spence and Edwards returned the end of the week previous.
Mr. J. Jones, who was with the party, Henderson, Reesor, McCallum in his official duty as special agent for the hunting season, reports the law to be well observed in the district over which he has charge and deer fairly numerous.
Major Simcoe, the well known evangelist of the Salvation Army held interesting meetings in the Salvation Army hall on Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings. The lecture Monday evening on Pioneer Days in Quebec was particularly good. Special music was rendered which was much appreciated.
Mrs. W. Howard, of Toronto was the guest of Mrs. A. J. Cameron from Thursday till Monday.
Mrs. Perrin and two children arrived on Saturday from their home at the Soo and are visiting Mrs. Perrin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Inkpen.
Mrs. Dr. Gould returned on Monday from Toronto, where she attended the W. I. Convention and Horticultural Show.
Mrs. Stewart, of Bobcaygeon, district organizer of the East Victoria Women's Institute, passed through town on Tuesday on her way to Kinmount to organize a branch at that place.
Mrs. Watt and Miss M. Watt, of Haliburton, were in town on Saturday.
Miss A. Powers, of Cannington, spent a couple of weeks' vacation in town with relatives.
Mr. Barclay Mason, of Lindsay, C. I., spent the week end in town.
Miss Myrtle Washburn and Mrs. M. H. McCallum spent Thursday in Lindsay.
Miss E. Powers, of Downeyville, is visiting relatives in town this week.
Mr. A. Brokenshire spent a few days at his home here last week before leaving for Calgary where he has accepted a position.
The many friends of Mr. Melville Cooke will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from the attack of fever which has kept him on the sick list for several weeks.
Mrs. J. H. Branson and Miss F. E. Branson spent a few days of last week in Toronto.
Mr. John Power, of Peterboro was in town a few days this week.
Mr. Herbert Nevison, of Rat Portage, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nevison.
Mrs. Angus left on Tuesday evening to visit friends at Craighurst.
Miss Margaret Wilson, who is attending L.C.P., spent the week end at her home here.
Miss Vera Kennedy, of Peterboro, passed through town on Monday on her way to visit her sister, Mrs. Kinman, Geleit.
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Robson returned from Lindsay on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKendry, of Lindsay, spent Sunday in town.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Perrin spent Thursday in Lindsay.
Mrs. E. A. McArthur returned Thursday from Newcastle, where she spent a week visiting friends.
Mr. Geo. Wilson left on Monday for Bracebridge where he has accepted a position.
Mr. Wm. McKendry spent Saturday in Lindsay.
Mrs. D. J. Ewell has returned from Toronto, where she attended the W. I.

Convention at the Fenelon Falls delegate.

Mrs. Jas. Lamb and her daughter, Miss Patten, returned on Friday from Toronto, where they attended the W. I. Convention.
Mr. W. S. Gamsby, of Orono, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Twomey this week.
Miss McCarthy, of Hastings spent a few days this week visiting friends in town.
Mr. Fred W. Warren spent Tuesday in Lindsay.
Mr. Arthur Townley visited with Victoria Roads friends Tuesday.
Miss Clancy, of Peterboro, is the guest of town friends this week.
On Monday evening a pleasing event took place at the home of Miss A. Power, when her associate employees of Townley Bros. tailoring establishment met and presented her on the eve of her marriage with an address and a handsome Morris chair, as a token of their esteem.
A very pleasant time was spent, and after partaking of lunch, the guests departed, leaving with the bride-to-be their best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

PENIEL

Mrs. D. Carmichael and sons, Dan and Alex., moved on Saturday last, to their new home in Cannington. They will be missed in this neighborhood as they have resided here for years.
Mr. G. W. Hardy, spent a few days of this week the guest of his cousin, Mrs. C. B. Bryans, and other Toronto friends.
Mr. Robt. McIntyre, and daughter, Miss May spent Saturday in Lindsay.
Miss Lillie McKague spent the week end at Kinview, the guest of her friend, Miss Sadie Francis.
Mr. Ernest Wright and sister, Miss Lena, spent Sunday with Cannington friends.
Messrs. Donald McLean and Geo. Hardy are drawing sand this week, preparatory to bricking their houses next summer.
Miss Mamie Coolidge is spending this week with friends.
Miss Mary Bagshaw is spending the week end with Cannington friends.
Miss Zella Wright is spending a few days with her Aunt, Miss Bella Lore, Cannington.
Mr. Thomas Squires is spending a few days with Toronto and Pickering friends.
Mrs. Wm. Short entertained a number of her lady friends to a "Quitting" on Thursday last.
Mr. Thomas Turner, of Brown's, Mariposa, has purchased the farm on the twelfth concession, formerly owned by Mr. Rich. Osborne, of Toronto, at a good figure. We welcome Mr. Turner to our neighborhood.
A great many friends from Peniel attended the anniversary services of the Methodist church, Cannington, on Sunday and Monday of this week.

ISLAY

Mr. Charles Elford transacted business in Woodville on Friday.
Mr. T. W. Lowery, teacher, was in Lindsay last Saturday.
Mrs. J. Courison spent a couple of days in Woodville with her daughter, Mrs. Alma, who has had an attack of tonsillitis. Her friends are pleased to hear that she is recovering.
Mr. Currins, and daughter, Miss Maude, also Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Copp, were visitors in Fenelon Falls last Friday.
Mr. David Graham delivered a load of hogs in Fenelon Falls on Tuesday.
Mrs. Moore, of Peterboro, returned to her home on Saturday after spending the week with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Wilson.
We are glad to hear that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson, who has been seriously ill, is improving.
We understand that the trustees of our school section have engaged Mr. Lowery for another term.
We have very good sleighing at present and the farmers are taking advantage of it to get their hauling done.

EDEN

(Special to The Post)
A reception service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday. Several new members were taken into fellowship of the church.
Much interest is being taken in the coming missionary banquet to be held in Cambridge on Dec. 8th.
Mr. W. J. Greenaway received the sad news of the death of his late sister's daughter, Olive Horn, of Rugby, last Saturday.
Mrs. Amos Stroud has a fine baby son.
The Sunday school held a business meeting on Thursday night.

Week's Doings From Oakwood

(Special to The Post)
Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Wesley Jewell at Little Britain on Sunday.
Mr. Howard Gardner is spending a few weeks with friends in Toronto.
Mr. William Nowry returned to his home at Palmerston on Friday after visiting his brother Mr. Thos. Nowry.
Mr. Joseph Falls has been quite ill but has now recovered, and at his post at Mariposa station.
Among those who attended the Temperance Convention at Lindsay from here Rev. W. E. Elliott, W. White, W. F. Hardy and J. B. Welton, on Thursday of last week.
Ms. William Perrin, of Benfort, was the guest of his brother, Mr. C. C. Perrin during the past week.
Dr. N. J. Stevens, X. S., has moved into the Walton terrace, which has recently been vacated by Mr. W. Pascoe.
Mrs. Amey and Miss Amey of Cannington were the guests of her sister Mrs. A. Cameron on Friday.
A jolly load of our young men went to the shooting match at Little Britain on Thursday last.
Mr. J. W. Prouse and Misses Ruth and Reta, of Woodville were guests of Mrs. Prouse on Sunday.
Miss E. Rodman, of Little Britain visited her brother, Mr. E. P. Rodman recently.
Rev. W. E. Elliott commenced a series of sermons on the journey and deliverance of the Israelites in the Methodist church on Sunday evening which was greatly enjoyed by the congregation. The choir rendered an excellent anthem, "Just as I am."
Mrs. Wilbur Lane taking the solo, Miss Pearl Coad taking the solo in the voluntary.
We are pleased to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Barker have decided to move into our village and will occupy the residence recently occupied by Dr. Stevens and owned by Mr. W. H. Thornydyke of Toronto.
Miss Maud Prouse has been on the sick list this week but is now recovering.
A very sudden death took place here on Monday Nov. 21st, when one of our oldest and highly esteemed residents, Mr. Joseph Penrose passed quietly away at the ripe old age of 88 years and 8 months.
Mr. Penrose complained of illness during Sunday night and Dr. Dale was called, but in morning seemed much better and was able to be up. After eating his dinner he died suddenly sitting in his chair. He leaves to mourn his loss one son, Mr. N. Penrose, of Lindsay, and five daughters, Mrs. J. Burgess, of Darlington, Mrs. W. Conner, of Toronto, Mrs. G. W. Martindale of Oakwood, Mrs. Woodley, of Tyrone, and Miss Aonie at home, his wife and one daughter, Mrs. J. Moore having predeceased him several years ago. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon after service being held in the Methodist by Rev. Mr. Elliott, the remains were laid to rest in the Egret Oakwood cemetery. The people of this vicinity showed their esteem of the deceased by the large attendance at the funeral, and sympathize with the friends and especially with Miss Aonie who has always lived at home and who is now left alone.
Rev. Mr. Allin, of Brooklin, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church here next Sunday both morning and evening, and Rev. W. Elliott will conduct services at Brooklin.
Mr. and Mrs. David Dundas were in Little Britain on Monday attending the funeral of Mrs. Thompson, who died at the home of her daughters, Mrs. W. Greenaway.
Mr. Jim Anderson of the Federal Business College, Lindsay, is at home on the sick list.
Mrs. F. F. Emmerson, of Tisdale, Sask., is at present visiting friends in this neighborhood.

REABORO

(Special to The Post)
Mr. Chas. Dean left on the seventeenth for a trip to the old country.
Mr. Fred Thorne, of Millbrook, spent a few days visiting his brother Mr. R. F. Thorne.
Quite a number of young people from Salem, attended divine service, in the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Come again.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMahon spent a few days visiting friends at Lakehurst last week. Mr. McMahon is an expert hunter brought home a red fox hide as a memento of the trip.
Mr. P. B. McIlhargey passed through the village on a business trip recently.
Mr. Thos. Skuce, the local grain buyer, reports business brisk at the present time.
Miss Mabel Wellington, of Lindsay, spent Sunday at home this week.

BADDOW

(Special to The Post)
Several from Baddow attended the tea meeting last Wednesday night, given by the Methodist ladies' aid at Cobocook.
The Norland minister preached in the Methodist church here on Sunday morning, and Mr. Ireland took the quarterly communion service there.
Mr. John Goodhand is having a shooting match on Tuesday of this week.
Mrs. Jos. Eade is very ill at present.

GOODERHAM

(Special to The Post)
Miss Filkins spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss McCordick at Mr. Vallean's, also Miss Maxwell.
Miss Richardson spent Sunday in Kinmount.
Miss Irwin has returned after a three weeks' visit at her home in Cameron.
Mrs. Harry Deyman went to Bancroft last week to see Miss Minnie Allan who was very ill and who died on Thursday night.
Messrs. Valleau and Conkell are engaged in carpenter work at Wilberforce.

A little more snow would greatly improve the sleighing.
The hunters are all gone, having had very good success while here.
Mr. P. Barr of Irondale, visited his parents here on Sunday.
Friends of Rev. Wilkinson, of Wilberforce are sorry to hear of his severe illness at Bancroft, and were disappointed in not hearing him on Sunday afternoon, but in his absence the regular pastor preached a fine mission sermon and Miss McCordick and Miss Filkins sang a very pretty duet entitled "Meet Mother in the Skies."
Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Zephyr, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

engaged in carpenter work at Wilberforce.
A little more snow would greatly improve the sleighing.
The hunters are all gone, having had very good success while here.
Mr. P. Barr of Irondale, visited his parents here on Sunday.
Friends of Rev. Wilkinson, of Wilberforce are sorry to hear of his severe illness at Bancroft, and were disappointed in not hearing him on Sunday afternoon, but in his absence the regular pastor preached a fine mission sermon and Miss McCordick and Miss Filkins sang a very pretty duet entitled "Meet Mother in the Skies."
Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Zephyr, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

Fleecy Facts From Fleetwood

(Special to The Post)
Mr. and Mrs. V. Grandy visited Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Cumiskey.
Friends from the 14th visited our borough on Sunday.
Congratulations are to be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hart (nee Miss Maud Robinson) on their marriage. The event took place in Lindsay last Wednesday, Nov. 16th, in the presence of a few friends.
The happy couple have taken up their residence at Bird's Eye View Farm, Fleetwood, the home of the bride's parents. I am sure every resident of this stirring spot will join with your correspondent in wishing them long life and happiness.
Mr. and Mrs. Constable has returned home after an absence of 6 months, and he certainly has let the grass grow under his feet in renewing old acquaintances as doubtless a few can testify. That's right, Alex, get busy.
Mr. W. Robinson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Wright.
Mr. A. Constable visited friends at Blackstock on Sunday.
Mr. Victor Grandy is certainly to be congratulated on the way he is handling his dairy herd, which is both a credit to himself and an object of interest to his fellow farmers. Mr. Grandy is gradually weeding out his grade cows and restocking with Holsteins. The value of the Holstein cow as a milk producer can be testified by Mr. Grandy, who sent about 40,000 lb of milk to Fleetwood factory last season.

HARTLEY

(Special to The Post)
A number of farmers were not quite prepared for so early a fall of the beautiful, as there are a few turnips still unharvested, and some ploughing undone.
The contractors for the C.P.R. grain route are busy erecting their stables and camps on the McDougall farm south of the village. They intend starting operations this winter.
Mr. Dougald Spence expects to move this week, to the farm which he has recently purchased. This farm was for over seventy years known as the Smith homestead. We wish him success in his venture.
Mr. Caleb Smith is busy moving his household effects to Lindsay where he has secured a house. He will be greatly missed as he was a splendid citizen.
We understand that the trustees have advertised for a teacher to take the place of Miss King. The will be greatly missed as she was a very capable teacher.
Everybody present at the Epworth League social evening on Thursday 17th got a rare treat and those who did not manage to get out had better watch for the date of the next one. A splendid programme was rendered consisting of readings, instrumental and recitations, then all took part in a few games and contests. One young man from down south made a very lucky one hundred dollar deal. We think the bargain has not yet been sealed though. Refreshments were also served.
Miss Minnie Campbell has returned

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Owing to our typesetting machines being out of commission, we are obliged to hold over a number of news letters until next week. We regret the circumstances which forces us to take this course, but they are unavoidable.

Week's Doings From Woodville

(Special to The Post)
Mrs. Fred Green is visiting her sister, Mrs. Purvis, of Lindsay.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Copp spent Monday with friends here.
Mr. Geo. Storey, of Standard bank, visited at his home in Stouffville on Sunday.
Miss S. Campbell was the guest of her friend, Mrs. J. McLaughlin at Cannington over Sunday.
Wedding bells are ringing here this week.
Misses May and Cassie Spence spent Sunday with their parents at Islay.
Mrs. Purvis, who has been visiting Miss Lizzie Gilchrist returned to her home in Toronto.
Miss Catharine Campbell is home again, having spent three weeks at Eldon Station.
Mr. Johnston, a returned missionary from Vancouver, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday.
A number from here attended the fowl supper at Cannington Monday.
Mr. W. McKee, was in Lindsay on business Thursday.
Mr. Malcolm Carmichael is not improving very fast.
Mrs. Oliver Fennel of Toronto who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. Deguerre has returned to her home. Quite a number from here took advantage of the cheap rates to the city last week.
Mrs. Moore, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. McKee returned to her home in Toronto Monday.
Miss B. Staples spent a few days with friends in Toronto this week.
Mr. Cecil Smith spent Sunday at his home here.
Mrs. D. McLaughlin returned Monday from Toronto where she was visiting her son and daughter

Jottings From Busy Kirkfield

(Special to The Post)
Mrs. John Munro and little niece, Vera, spent Monday in Lindsay.
Mr. J. M. Coad, spent a few days in Toronto last week.
A New Year's tea and entertainment will be held in the Presbyterian church here on New Year's night.
Miss M. Fraser and her niece, Miss Maude Sangster, spent Tuesday of last week in Lindsay.
Mr. Duncan Smith of Grasshill, spent Wednesday with his brother, Mr. A. E. Smith.
We are all very sorry to hear of Mrs. Rushton's illness and hope for her speedy recovery.
Mrs. Parks and son, Freddie spent Wednesday in Lindsay.
Mrs. Moore of Sault Ste. Marie, has come to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. H.H. Turner.

HARTLEY

(Special to The Post)
A number of farmers were not quite prepared for so early a fall of the beautiful, as there are a few turnips still unharvested, and some ploughing undone.
The contractors for the C.P.R. grain route are busy erecting their stables and camps on the McDougall farm south of the village. They intend starting operations this winter.
Mr. Dougald Spence expects to move this week, to the farm which he has recently purchased. This farm was for over seventy years known as the Smith homestead. We wish him success in his venture.
Mr. Caleb Smith is busy moving his household effects to Lindsay where he has secured a house. He will be greatly missed as he was a splendid citizen.
We understand that the trustees have advertised for a teacher to take the place of Miss King. The will be greatly missed as she was a very capable teacher.
Everybody present at the Epworth League social evening on Thursday 17th got a rare treat and those who did not manage to get out had better watch for the date of the next one. A splendid programme was rendered consisting of readings, instrumental and recitations, then all took part in a few games and contests. One young man from down south made a very lucky one hundred dollar deal. We think the bargain has not yet been sealed though. Refreshments were also served.
Miss Minnie Campbell has returned

after spending a pleasant vacation in Haliburton.
Misses Mamie Spence and Bessie Smith visited Lindsay Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McPadyen are renewing old acquaintances in this vicinity. Jack has been in the west for about six years. He looks as if the climate was agreeing with him all right.
The entire community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of the late Bruce Currie. He was well known and highly esteemed around Hartley as he spent his boyhood days here, and attended our school. A large number from this vicinity attended the funeral on Thursday. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to his friends in their sad bereavement.

after spending a pleasant vacation in Haliburton.
Misses Mamie Spence and Bessie Smith visited Lindsay Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McPadyen are renewing old acquaintances in this vicinity. Jack has been in the west for about six years. He looks as if the climate was agreeing with him all right.
The entire community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of the late Bruce Currie. He was well known and highly esteemed around Hartley as he spent his boyhood days here, and attended our school. A large number from this vicinity attended the funeral on Thursday. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to his friends in their sad bereavement.

Little Britain Live Brevities

(Special to The Post)
Miss Vera Stainton of Layton is visiting Miss Pearl Hooper this week.
A very interesting and profitable league meeting was held on Tuesday evening of last week. The program was furnished entirely by the young men's literary club, and consisted of the following accordion solo by Alex. McLaughlin, bass solo by C. S. Thompson, violin solo by Mr. Elba Yerec, quartette, "I want my life to tell for Jesus." 1st tenor E. O. Yerec, 2nd tenor D. Yerec, 1st bass F. Wickett, 2nd bass C. S. Thompson, and a debate, Resolved that truth is a more estimable quality than tact and that the former should never be sacrificed for the latter. Affirmative, Mr. Fred Perrin, Mr. Percy Prouse, Mr. Stanley Dix, Negative Mr. John Davidson, Mr. Everett Mark, Mr. Elba Yerec, Judges, Messrs. C. H. Lapp, Cyrus H. Netherthorn and Rev. C. F. Chapman. The negative won.
Mr. B. Greenburg, optician and jeweller, of Port Perry, is opening a branch in our village next week. He will be at Mr. J. J. Rich's tailor shop on Thursday and Friday of each week to test eyes and take in watch repairing.
We have to relate the death of Mrs. Thompson, of Raglan, who has been staying at her two daughters, Mrs. J. Jenkins and Mrs. W. Greenaway, where she died. The remains were then taken to Brooklin for burial on Monday of this week. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.
Miss Flossie Maude, of Lindsay, spent Sunday visiting relatives in our village.
Mr. Will Medland and lady friends of Oshawa, spent Sunday at his home Mr. Orville Heattley has gone to Oshawa, where he has secured employment for the winter.
Mr. D. Yerec had the grader working on his skating rink this winter, and has it ready now for the frosty weather. Mr. Yerec ran the rink successfully last year, and no doubt his patrons will be well pleased again this season.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Yerec spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Elleker, Manilla.
Mr. Mark Wickett is preparing his lot for building his new dwelling on next year.
The grim reaper, Death, has again visited our midst and taken Mrs. Wesley Jewell. The burial took place in the Methodist cemetery on Sunday and was largely attended, due to the high esteem the deceased was held in. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.
The parsonage committee have now bought some land from Mr. Rood, which makes the parsonage grounds larger and much better.
Mrs. Wm. Rodd is having her stable built this week, and will then have good stabling and accommodation both.
Rev. Grant was in our village this week visiting friends.
Mrs. Wesley Henderson, Mrs. and Mrs. R. F. Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Prouse, Mrs. Wesley Sloan and Mrs. R. Oliver, were in Toronto last week.
The ladies' aid held a meeting last

Minden Doings Duly Described

(Special to The Post)
Mrs. Delamere returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in Toronto.
We are pleased to see Mr. George Graham much improved in health under the care of Dr. Bowen.
A full account of the Japanese basket social will appear next week.
Mrs. Jos. Fader, of Maple Lake visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bowron last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Owston returned to their home in Toronto after spending the hunting season with Mr. A. Soucar, of Deep Bay.
Mrs. Davey, of Valentia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gainer.
Mr. Jas. Hobden, of Beamsville, is visiting friends in Minden.
The Minden Hockey team was organized on Thursday night.
Miss Abbott, of Dutch Lane, visited friends in Minden, a few days ago.
The ladies of St Paul's church intend holding the annual tea and concert on Wednesday, Dec. 15.
Miss Ethel Lindop, of Lutterworth, eclipsed all lady hunters heard from this year, having succeeded in bringing down eight partridge in one afternoon.
Mr. John J. Mortimer, of Minden was a visitor in Geleit on Thursday. DIED.—In Minden Township, on Nov. 12, Mrs. James Fairfield, aged 59 years.
Married.—At the home of the brides parents, Wellwood, Man., on Nov. 2nd Miss Eve V., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, formerly of Minden, to Mr. Ernest F. Mann, of Rosduff, Sask.

Jottings From Lively Janetville

(Special to The Post)
Our hunters have returned and all are elated over their enjoyable time. They were successful in obtaining ten fine deer. They also secured about thirty partridges. Mr. Thos. Howe has been busy cutting them up and we are now enjoying a feed of venison.
Mr. Joseph Walker is erecting a fine new stable on a cement wall. He shall now have one of the best stables in town.
Our minister, Rev. Mr. Snowdon, preached a fine sermon to a large audience here last Sunday evening.
Mrs. M. Gilson and daughter, May who have been visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Ed. Bradburn, have returned home.
We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. E. Sheekleton.
Mr. James Brown and Mr. Sanderson, of Cartwright were in town on business last Saturday.
Mrs. Walter Veal, of Toronto has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew McGill.
Mr. McQuaid, of Nestleton was in town Saturday.
We were sorry to hear that Mrs. James Howe was somewhat ill, but are glad to report that both her and Georgina are on the way to recovery.
Our League expects to hold a social evening on Friday night of this week. A program will be given after which refreshments will be served.
Mr. Wm. Johnson and family have moved into the house on the west of Main street owned by Mr. John Anderson.
We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Shas. McGill are contemplating moving into town.
Mrs. Fred Reynolds and son Chas. of Toronto are paying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong.
Mr. Thos. Paul took a trip to Toronto last week. He intends to return to his work near Orillia at an early date.
We were very sorry to lose one of our residents this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller have lived here for con-

Continued on page 4.

Continued on page 4.

A GROWING BANK ACCOUNT

Has a real and tangible value over and above the amount of actual money deposited. It creates greater prestige in the community for the depositor. This time of plenty is your opportunity. You can start an account with us with one dollar or more. Our service is yours to command.

THE DOMINION BANK