

DUNSFORD DOINGS

(Special to The Post.) Mrs. Arthur Bell, who has been spending two weeks, visiting relatives around here left for her home on Saturday last. Mr. Arthur Bell was also here last week. Mrs. Captain Kennedy and the ir- repressible James arrived home from Toronto on Monday last. Were they glad to get home? You may be sure. The Dunsford hunting party under Captain Jim Thurston, arrived home on Wednesday November, 16th. Each man had one deer, the smallest weighing 205 lbs. and the heaviest weighing 262. Our faces were very glum when we heard there were no deer shot by the boys during the first week. But it now transpires that a system of sorting out was enacted, whereby those gentlemen with 303 rifles were to have the smaller ones and the Dunsford gang with their toy guns, the large ones. The scheme worked splendidly as the 303's will admit and it is rumored 44's will be used next year. Lying in the runways. Hidden 'neath the trees. Hunters there with forty-fours. Likewise three ought threes. Those who had the forty fours, All were Dunsford Boys. Others laugh up their sleeves, At our laddies' toys. Comes a deer on yonder bluff, Hunters on their knees. They all have a pot at it With their three ought threes. Missed it by the holy jink, Dunsford party roars, Now we'll have a cut at it, With our forty fours. Result—One deer weighing 250 lbs. to Captain J. A. Thurston. Jim does not prefer to be an expert in this particular line of business, however. I am writing the editor for an increase in salary. This poetry is hard on a fellow. Miss Ethel Kennedy is spending a week with her sister. Mrs. Haggart, at Peterboro. The Dunsford Cheese Factory, general meeting was held on Monday, last. Everything passed off satisfactorily and something under one thousand dollars will go into the pockets of the shareholders this year. "Save a little one for me." Mrs. Wm. Humphrey, and Mrs. F. Humphrey, are visiting friends in Hamilton this week. Mrs. W. J. Thurston spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell, Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, Ops, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell and on Monday at Mrs. Capt. Kennedy's. Mr. Hazel Thurston left here on morning to take up a position as fireman with the G. T. R. Mr. Ross Thurston, while engaged in investigating a ditch, en route from Emily church last Sunday, had the misfortune to break the buggy-shaft and whiffletree. No ladies present. A gentleman enquired at the station ticket gate for his mail last Saturday evening. He is now on the Agent's Indian list. Miss Mabel White arrived home from Midland on Monday night. Mrs. Dougal Robertson had the misfortune to sprain her ankle while leaving the Scotch Line School house after the concert last Friday. I trust she will soon be around again. Miss Ethel Logan spent Sunday, the guest of Miss Maud Woolard. Sleeping and eating is the order of the day in this important centre. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thurston, of Thurstonia Park have removed to their town house. We are glad to see them again.

NERVE AGONIES

All Nervous Diseases Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Nerves that are over-worked or weak quickly indicate their distress by pain. That pain may be neuralgia or inflamed nerves, usually affecting the head, but often the spine and limbs. It may be nervous dyspepsia, easily started by worry, excitement or weakness. It may be St. Vitus dance, a common affliction among children, or neurasthenia, a condition of general nervous exhaustion accompanied by acute melancholy. Worst of all the pain may signal the early stages of paralysis or nervous decay. All these disorders signify that the hungry nerves are clamoring for nourishment in the form of good rich blood. The numerous cures of the above named nervous diseases and weakness in both sexes by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, are accounted for by the fact that these pills actually make new, rich blood and so supply the starved nerves with the vital elements needed to strengthen them. Mr. Wm. G. Jones, Westmead Man, says: "A few years ago it was my misfortune to suffer from nervous debility, and brought about through severe attack of grippe or influenza. When the first effects were felt I used to wake up in the middle of the night, sleep trembling like a leaf, and in a bath of cold perspiration. Later the trouble grew so bad that I scarcely got a wink of sleep, and would toss about in bed, growing so weak that I feared for my life. A doctor was called in and then another, but without avail. I became more and more low spirited and without any apparent reason would have fits of crying. While in this condition, a nervous wreck, a pamphlet was given me telling what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for others, and I determined to give them a trial. By the time I had finished a few boxes I began to get some sleep, and this greatly encouraged me. Then my strength began to return, my nerves grew steadier and in a few weeks more I was feeling as well as ever I did in my life and you may be sure I will always gratefully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to every one sick or ailing, as they restored me to health and strength after all other medicine had failed." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Successful Hunting Party

One of the most successful hunting parties to return this season was that chaperoned by W. H. Moore, cattle buyer of this town, who with Messrs. T. Terry, W. Jenks and Jas. Marshall, of Lindsay, two Brown brothers of Toronto, and W. Fraser, and Ralph, of Port Hope, who visited that ideal hunters' paradise on the Canadian Northern, a few miles east of Georgian Bay. The party secured their full compliment of game even before their stay was completed, but they left with the full assurance that there would be plenty for next year's shoot. The camp was situated within a few hundred yards of the track, on a beautiful lake, abounding with fish. The C.N.R. train people dropped them off at their camp and also picked their game up at intervals along the road, and did everything to make their hunt a success, and the outing was a very pleasant one.

Dairy Matters at Tuesday's Meeting

The meeting was open for discussion to those present, and a number of good hard questions were asked the Inspector, who gladly answered them. Mr. Ratcliffe gave a very interesting description of the refrigerator which the company he represented made.

AGAIN APPOINTED

It was moved by Mr. Southwick, of Omemece, that Mr. Glendinning again be appointed Director of the Association. Carried.

Mr. Glendinning then thanked the audience for making him Director of the Association and proceeded to give a talk on the cow and how to feed her. The weakest point in dairying is on the farm, where there is often only a poor quantity of cream and milk, supplied now, if the farmers brought in a little better cream and milk, very soon the quality of butter will soon be better. You can't produce good milk unless you have good feed. How are we to overcome the food question, silage is good stuff, also alfalfa, hay, after grazing becomes no good. There has been a great increase in milk supply since the use of Alfalfa hay. I have used alfalfa for about 20 years. The first year was not very successful, the second was a little better, but the third year's growth was excellent.

If you have an alfalfa field, do not use it for pasture. You can't take too good care of it, and if you do, nothing is better than alfalfa.

Wet land is not any good for growing any kind of clover, you want your land well drained. A number of questions were then asked. Has Alfalfa a tendency to empower or weaken the ground? It decidedly enriches the ground.

MR. MACKENZIE'S REMARKS.

Mr. Mackenzie then gave a short but very interesting speech on what a good factory should be, and how to gain the patronage of the farmers.

MR. NEWMAN.

Mr. Newman, of Lorneville, spoke very strongly for the use of scales in cream.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY

It was moved and seconded by Mr. Glendinning that a letter of sympathy and condolence be sent to the widow of the late Mr. J. Murphy, of Brockville, who had been secretary of the association for many years and whose death was a great loss to the Society.—Carried.

The meeting was then closed by singing the National Anthem.

Was Pioneer of Prince Rupert

The Prince Rupert Optimist has the following concerning the death of the late Fremont Crandell—David H. Hays was notified by telegram him of the death of an old friend of his and pioneer of Prince Rupert in the person of Fremont Crandell, chief tie agent for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Mr. Crandell was well known here and highly respected. He was largely interested in the B. C. Real Estate Syndicate and had other property interests here. He came in 1908 and was about fifty-three years of age.

Mr. Crandell left the city on Aug. 5th for a trip outside. He had finished up his work here for the railway company but intended to act in the same capacity for the company in the neighborhood of Yellowhead Pass.

He was returning here to conclude certain business arrangements before going to his new post of duty when he was suddenly attacked with sickness on the train and died in a few moments. This occurred at Wetaskiwin, near Edmonton yesterday a terminus.

Mr. Crandell's home is in Lindsay, Ont., and he has two sons here. The elder of these, Sydney Crandell, is the chief owner in the William Ellis Tie Company, and immediately on the receipt of the news of his father's death, he made arrangements to leave to attend to the funeral. He left on left on the Senator this morning. The other son, Fremont Crandell Jr., is in the employ of David H. Hays.

Crimean Veteran Buried at Cobourg

Cobourg, Nov. 22.—To the music of muffled drums, the body of Peter Mulvaney, the old Crimean veteran, an uncle of Wm. Mulvaney, Lindsay, was born on a gun-carriage, covered by the Union Jack, to its last resting place in St. Michael's cemetery. The funeral took place yesterday, and was attended by the representatives of the 10th Brigade, the 14th Field Battery, the 40th Northumberland Regiment, Cobourg Company Garrison Artillery, and the Veterans of 1866. Mr. Mulvaney, who was considerably past 90 years of age, was the proud possessor of a Crimean medal, a Turkish medal, a Long Service Medal and a Veterans' Medal of 1866. He enlisted first in His Majesty's Regiment, the 9th Foot, and served through the Crimean war, being twice wounded at Sebastopol. He served altogether 21 years and six months in the British army. He was transferred from the 9th Foot to the Royal Canadian rifles charge at Kingston that he came to Cobourg, where, for many years, he was caretaker of the Cobourg Company Garrison Artillery, under Capt Dumble, Capt. D. MacNachtan and Lieut.-Col. Neil F. MacNachtan. Col. MacNachtan has taken much interest in the old soldier during his declining years, and with others, arranged to give him a military funeral. The remains were taken to St. Michael's church, where services were conducted by Rev. Father Murray. Mr. Mulvaney's wife predeceased him by a few years.

KINMOUNT.

(Special to The Post) Things are quiet at present in our village. Winter keeps hanging fire. The roads are very good for wheeling, but sleighs and cutters were seen on the streets last Saturday. Another visitor came to gladden the home of our genial blacksmith Mr. J. E. Walker, and Joe smiles. It's a girl.

Mr. Geo. Horton is another with a pleasant smile. His visitor is a boy. Mr. John Austin's family have moved from Ferrel Falls to take up their abode in our village. They arrived last week. Rev. Mr. Lawrence gave a short but practical address to the boys and girls of the public school last Thursday afternoon, giving advice as to the formation of character and to the boys he gave a practical demonstration of the evil of cigarette smoking. Last Tuesday, Nov. 15 was turkey day here. Two carloads of turkeys were brought and shipped that day. Partridges were plentiful in the neighborhood this fall. Dr. White and daughter, Miss Ann, paid friends in Haliburton a visit on Friday night, returning Saturday morning. Mrs. Jas. Dawson spent Saturday in Fenelon Falls. On Friday morning last Mr. and Mrs. Noel Rivers went to Peterboro. Mrs. Rivers remained in the hospital. We trust she will soon be able to leave it, and be benefited by her visit there. Mr. Jos. Chynoweth who went to the west last spring, returned this week to his home here. The Baptist are going to hold anniversary services on Dec. 11th and 12th. The people of the English church intend holding a bazaar in the near future. The Presbyterians have engaged the C.O.F. hall for a Xmas tree for the Sabbath school, and concert on Dec. 16th. Let all remember the above events and by their presence help to make each a success. Our hunters returned after a pleasant and profitable time in the western wilds, having secured their quota of deer. Why do so many farmers read the Weekly Sun? Because it possesses advocates their cause; it faithfully supplies the practical farmer with valuable information on all agricultural topics, and is the most reliable barometer of market conditions to be found in Canada. Include the Weekly Sun in your reading next year.
