WARDEN'S BANQUET LAST EVENING ENJOYABLE SOCIAL FUNCTION

From Saturday's Evening Post The banquet tendered by Warden Tiers last evening in Taylor's restaurant was a most enjoyable function. It was attended by all the members of the County Council, the county officials, County Registrar C. D. Barr, His Worship Mayor Begg, Ald. Lewis, Chief Vincent, Chas. Fairburn, I. Lewis, Dunford, Clerk Taylor, Bobcaygeon, and others. His Honor Judge McMillan made an excellent toastmaster, while Dr. Wood filled the vice-chair for a portion of the evening, being succeeded by Reeve Jordan.

in building up a strong nation was also emphasized. Mr. F. D. Moore thanked the gathering for the manner in which the toast was received, because he was an officer of the County, and prior to becoming such he was solicitor for the County. He congratulated the Council on having such an efficient Warden, who is a credit to the county. Mr. Moore referred to the many changes in the County during the past few years, and also in the form of Government of the country, and made decided reference to conditions prevailing before the present form of municipal government. The Warden, clerk and treasurer, prior to 1848-49 were appointed by the Crown.

WARDEN TIERS.

Dr. Gould, in a few words, also extended thanks for the honor given, the toast, and expressed his delight in being present to testify to the esteem in which Warden Tiers was held. He presided ably during the sessions which had been marked by harmony and the best of good feeling. He referred to the importance of the medical profession, and the great strides it had made. County Engineer Smith deemed it a honor to be the Warden's guest after the great work accomplished this season. The profession he represented was a silent one. The deeds of its followers speak for themselves. He referred to the work of the erection of the Little Bob Bridge, which was a credit to the County. Inspector Broderick was most happy in his expression of appreciation and pleasure of the invitation extended to him to be present. It was an honor to be in the presence of such a gathering. He then began to speak on some phases of education and the evolution of the school system during the past twenty-five years. The scarcity of teachers was referred to, which was attributed to the abolition of the model school and limited third-class certificate. He felt, however, the scarcity was due to the influx of the great west and the poor salaries paid. He closed by referring to the kindness he had received in making his tour through the school district.

Mr. Chas. Fairbairn was received with the song "He's a jolly good fellow." He referred to the pleasure of doing honors to Mr. Tiers. He was born in Mariposa, but Verulam made a man of him. He paid a warm tribute then became reminiscent and was a pleasure to meet. Mr. Fairburn then became reminiscent, and referred to early municipal politics, of great interest to those present, as well as his connections with the county council. The county council could not be too good to the town of Lindsay as it is the capital of the county you represent. Mr. C. D. Barr said he was pleased to be present to honor the Warden and partake of his hospitality. He referred to the progress made in governing municipalities and stated that Victoria was one of the best governed municipalities in the Province, which was due to the excellent reeves. His speech was replete with many witty sallies which put the gathering in good humor. He closed by paying a tribute to Warden Tiers. Reeve Jordan was the next speaker, and he announced the unavoidable absence of ex-Warden Dr. Mason, M.P.P., who is improving in health, also regrets from Mr. S. J. Fox, M.P.P., who could not attend. In referring to the toast he referred to the loyalty of children to their parents, which was due to the educational institutions of this country. He paid a tribute to Mr. Fairbairn, whom he characterized as a Roman senator. Mr. Jordan also referred to the annual banquets of the Warden's where all mingled together after the strenuous work of the season. The small stipend the county councillors received was referred to as too miserable an allowance for men who devoted their time to serving the best interests of the people. This year's Council was the best the county ever had and the speaker referred in warm terms to the efficient county clerk and treasurer whose services could not be measured in words. Ontario was the banner province of the Dominion. Victoria County was the banner county, and Lindsay the banner town.

Chief Vincent then rendered in excellent voice "Good Company" which was well received. "Our municipal institutions" was next proposed and received with spirit. Mr. J. R. McNeillie, county clerk, and treasurer, was the first speaker, and in opening referred to the perpetual pleasure of being at all the banquets. He never accepted with greater pleasure an invitation to be present as he did on this occasion. He then paid a warm tribute to the great services rendered the county by the present Warden and touched upon county matters dealt with during the year, the Mud Lake Narrows Bridge, arbitration in which Mr. R. J. McLaughlin and Reeve Graham, of Carden, rendered valuable services. The building of the Little Bob bridge, one of the greatest undertakings of the County, was also referred to. One of the finest traits in the character of our Warden was displayed in this matter—his steadfastness and loyalty to his own convictions, and in serving those he represented. A tribute was also paid to Mr. Chas. Fairbairn, one of the grand old men of the county. The county council had put itself on record by passing a resolution that all bridges in county of limited length should be county bridges. This important legislation will become in all probability a provincial measure, and in referring to the permanent pavement in Lindsay he expressed the wish that the county would soon undertake a good roads campaign. Mayor Begg said he was pleased to be present both in the capacity of Mayor, and also as an old resident of Verulam, the home of the Warden. It was a great education to be a member of the county council, especially with such an important official as Mr. McNeillie. In dealing with town affairs he referred to the construction of the new locks and the advent of the new glove and shoe factory of the new nurses' home, several local industries under new management, and the advent of the new C. P. R. grain line and electric railway. He closed by paying a tribute to Warden Tiers.

Ald. Lewis also expressed his pleasure to be present to honor Warden Tiers and to meet many old Verulam boys. He referred to the progress of the town we require boosters, and hold too many knockers. He predicted that the town had a grand future with good substantial citizens. His heart and soul were in the town and county of which he was proud. Mr. Isaac Lewis was glad to do honor to the warden. He was pleased to be from Verulam and he was sorry to see so many of the township leaving. Personally he was satisfied with conditions as he found them in Verulam and closed by paying a tribute to the agricultural profession. Mr. E. W. Taylor, of Bobcaygeon, was pleased to be present to do honor to Warden Tiers. He punctuated his remarks by telling several original stories which were well received, and closed by paying a warm tribute to the Warden. Deputy-reeve McLean, in a neat speech thanked those present for the honor and pleasure of being present to pay his respects to the Warden to whom he paid a neat tribute. In referring to municipal institutions, he touched upon several points. It was the duty of every young man to serve his community. Not only was it his duty but it was only his privilege. He referred to the valuable service rendered by Mayor Begg, under whose guidance he had profited and he applied the same sentiments to the county warden's and the efficient county clerk and treasurer. He had learned a great deal during his municipal career in both town and county.

Reeve Graham, of Carden, paid a tribute to Judge McMillan, and also to Warden Tiers. His associations, were pleasant with the council and those around the banquet tables. A tribute was also paid to the county clerk and treasurer who was so efficient. Reeve Byng made a brief speech in which he congratulated the Warden on the success that marked his term of office and also paid a tribute to Mr. McNeillie. Reeve Michael, of Mariposa, also addressed words of congratulation and praise in referring to the Warden and referred to the County as one of the best in Canada. Reeve Hawkins, of Ops, also spoke along the same line as the previous speaker. Reeve Cornell, of Emily, expressed his pleasure at being present and also of being a member of the county council. It will always live in his memory. Reeve Young was also pleased to be present and do honor to the Warden. Reeve Southern, in a brief but pointed speech, expressed his pleasure and congratulated the Warden and county in having such an efficient clerk and treasurer in Mr. McNeillie. Warden Tiers, in a well connected address, stated that he did not deserve the warm tributes paid. He simply had done his duty. "The Ladies," was responded to by the Press representatives. Mr. C. D. Barr proposed the toast "The Chairman," and paid a well merited tribute to Judge McMillan, not only as a presiding officer but also as a learned judge, and a good golfer. It was received with the singing of He's a Jolly Good Fellow. His Honor Judge McMillan referred to the good resulting from the warden's annual banquet as an occasion when all gathered together to fraternize and honor the Warden of the county. If he filled the position satisfactorily he was well pleased. The proceedings closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God save the King.

School Board Turned Down

A deputation from the Board of Education, composed of Chairman Stewart, Principal Kirkconnell, Dr. Blanchard and Messrs. John Carew, and Alex. Jackson approached the County Council Thursday afternoon noon to seek $3000 of a grant toward the Lindsay schools. Mr. Kirkconnell said there was a charge about 5 years ago in education act and it was given a fair trial. It was called an approved school system, by which a student had to be efficient in seventeen subjects. It was considered too great a burden for the students, so it was decided that if the proper work and quality of it was taught, and the correct number of students to each teacher were kept, nine subjects could be passed unexamined, if the teachers considered the pupils knew sufficient to warrant the passing. Some towns claimed there was little advantage in the approved system but still it was of great benefit to the rural students at least. In Lindsay here, out of a class of 27, all were rural students but 6 girls from town. Two special teachers have been engaged, and the country around gets the advantage. The Board have the interests of the rural districts at heart. Mr. Stewart had said all he wished to before, and Mr. Kirkconnell had seated the case clearly. There has been such a change in education that the manner of paying the cost will have to be changed. A large amount has been spent on the schools, and the county ought to bear a larger proportion. They had asked $3000 before, but should really get more. Dr. Blanchard said all the advantages of the grant has been shown and the matter should be carefully considered. Mr. Carew said too much money had been spent on the schools, but it is in the interests of education. A good education should be left as a heritage to the children. Mr. Jackson said the school is peculiarly situated as a county school, and the work here is greatly appreciated. The statements of Mr. Kirkconnell showed the interest that the farmers should take in the school. Additional expenditure must be made yearly in decorations and the county ought to assist in paying for them. Mr. Stewart said there are 275 students on the roll, 50 per cent from the town and 40 per cent from the county, and 10 per cent outside the county. Chairman Gould said the Councilors would appreciate the advantages to the county and act in accordance. Reeve McLean, after explaining how the matter appealed to him, moved that the Board of Education should be granted $3000. Mr. Jordan made a particularly strong appeal and pointed out the immense advantages to the county pupils and seconded Mr. McLean's motion. The motion was lost by a large majority.

Mr. Thornbury's Appointment The Council met Friday morning and when the minutes were duly confirmed the various reports were read and passed. A letter was read from Inspector Thornbury, suggesting that his appointment be reconsidered, because Chief Vincent was willing to take the position again now that a small fee was in connection with it, for he had resigned for the reason he was being continually out of pocket on his county trips as High Constable. The Council considered the matter in every light and then decided the appointment made should remain, being the best under the circumstances. Zealous Delegate There was a religious convention last week held at Cameron. One of our young men missed the train at Gould's coming and walked all the way to Kilmount, 23 miles and caught the afternoon train for Lindsay, and attended the convention, it is seldom such zeal is displayed in a religious cause—Independent. Twenty-Fifth Anniversary The 25th anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's church will be observed on Sunday, Nov. 27. Special sermons will be preached by Rev. Mr. Boyd, of the church of the Redeemer Toronto.
