Lively Doings From Islay

Miss Terrill, of Fenelon Falls, was the guest of the Misses Naylor last week.

The Women's Institute of this place held a most successful social evening at the home of Mrs. Elford, on Wednesday evening of last week. The weather was all that could be desired and a large crowd of eighty, was present. At the request of the ladies, Mr. D. B. Spence acted as Chairman and filled the position in an excellent manner. The program, which consisted of instrumental, songs, readings, and recitations, and speeches, was interesting and entertaining, and reflects great credit on the officers, and all those members of the Institute as well as on those taking part. The local talent was assisted by Miss Perrin, of S.S. No. 5, who favored the audience with a couple of songs which were well received. At the close of the program, Mr. W. H. Warwick was called on for a short address and after a few words of congratulations, and thanks to the hostess and family, he read some comical poetry, which was composed on the program, and in which he mentioned the names of all those who had taken part and stated something entertaining and suitable about each one. His witty remarks called forth peals of laughter from the entire audience. At the close of the program short speeches were given by a few of the gentlemen present, after which a dainty lunch was served. The pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Miss Lois Naylor returned on Tuesday after spending some six weeks in Michigan and Toronto with relatives.

The sympathy of this community is extended to Mrs. Switzer, of Cameron in the sad death of her husband, Mrs. Switzer, whose maiden name was Miss Annie Sangines. It is well known in this vicinity, as her mother and family were residents here for many years.

A Beautiful Story

A beautiful story is depicted in the picture entitled "Home Again" given this season with the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal. It is beyond doubt the best picture ever offered with that great paper. The picture is 22x29 inches, ready for framing. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is growing faster and faster every year. It is the marvel of the news paper world to-day and with such a picture as Home Again all for $1 a year, it is no wonder the circulation grows. Every home in Canada should spend a dollar this season on this great picture.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of grip except it followed by pneumonia and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sales by remarkable cures of colds, and grip, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence.

WHEN IT IS DRUGS
