INDIAN LISTER WAS FINED

From Friday's Post.

This morning at Police Court Jas. Goheen was charged with being under the influence of liquor. Goheen is on the Indian list. In his evidence he stated that a man who said he had been working at the Construction camp, invited him into a boat-house, and they had the contents of a twenty-five cent flask between them. Mr. G. H. Hopkins, K. C., who appeared for the crown, was inclined to think that Goheen's story was "fishy" but he avowed that he was telling the truth so he was relieved of the term in the castle on the hill. Goheen said he met the man at the Lindsay street bridge, of the afternoon of the 8th. inst., and he has not seen him since having the drink with him. The Magi istrate imposed a fine of $10, and costs, amounting in all to $13.45

W.C.T.U., we are thankful to our Heavenly Father for what He has enabled us to do. Our membership is not very large, only twenty members joining this year. As there are not many active members, the work falls on a few. During the past year we have had eleven regular meetings, and two parlor socials. A very successful meeting was held in memory of the late Frances Willard. We were thankful fot the many friends who assisted us in makng the meeting quite interestingf With regard to local option, we are glad to be able to report there are twenty-eight cities, towns and villages, to vote on local option by-law in January. Besides these there are thirtyone townships where a vote will be taken.

The following were the officers for the past year. Mrs. Whiteside was elected for president by a standing vote but she refused to act. ## J. McFARLAND Fenelon Falls, Nov. 11 .- Mr. Jtseph McFarland, a prominent and highly respected resident of Fenelon Falls, passed away early on Wednesday morning after an illness of about a year's duration, during the last few months of which he was confined to the house. The deceased was born in the township of Verulam in the year 1849. In 1873 he entered business as a general storekeeper in Fenelon Falls, where he built up a fine trade, his strict integrity and fair dealing in all the affairs of life winning for him host of friends. About six years ago he erected a fine building on Colborne-st., in order to accommodate his increased business. Mr. McFarland was married in 1880 to Miss Rachael McDermid, who preceeeased him about seventeen years ago. For many years he represented the town as as Reeve and Councillor, always takculated to make for the advancement of the community.
