Big Savings on Furs

Those who have not taken the time to get thoroughly acquainted with our fur stock and its vast assortments, cannot fully understand why we are in a position to offer such values. No doubt but it is the largest range shown in this town and buying as we do makes the rest of the story easy telling. When you buy furs from us you get the inner meaning of "Quality First" and for this reason alone it will pay you to investigate our offerings.

Some are apt to figure everything on the basis of the "three P's"—People—Price—Profit—To get the People, get the biggest price and make the biggest profit. Quality First has been the creed of this business. Quality First has been the watchword of fifteen years progress in your midst, and the best of all reasons why you should buy at this store arises in the fact that we have maintained quality and coupled with it the lowest price possible. IT PAYS TO BUY AT SUTCLIFFE'S.

Jottings From Busy Kirkfield

Mr. Ellis, who has been relieving agent in our village for the past month left this week to resume duties in some other station. Mr. Winters of Campbellford, succeeds him. Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and little Edler, of Cobocook, spent Sunday in our burg the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith. The members of the Adult Bible Class of our Presbyterian Church held a social evening in the Sunday school room on Monday evening at 8 p.m. Each member who attended went dressed to represent the title of a book. Prizes were given for ones guessing the most titles correct. The lucky ones were Miss Mosgrove, 1st; Mrs. Daniels, booby prize for ladies; Mr. Frank McGirr, Balsover, 1st; Mr. Vernon, booby prize for gentlemen. Games, such as characters, etc., were indulged in, after which lunch was served. An enjoyable evening was spent and we hope for another social evening in the near future. Mr. Geo Rushton, who has been in the North West for the past two months, returned home last week. Mr. and Mrs. Geo Ashman spent a day last week in Brechin, visiting Mr. Ashman's aged mother at the home of Mr. G. Smith. Miss V. Ashman and her brother Mr. Carl, spent Saturday in Lindsay. Mrs. Sangster and Mrs. Mosgrove spent Tuesday of this week in Lindsay. Little Britain Live Brevities

(Special to The Post) Mrs. John Henry, of Scott, is visiting friends and relatives here at present. Mr. and Mrs. Parry Lobb, Brown's School House, spent Sunday at Mr. W. H. Wickett's. Messrs. Albert Martin, James Ferguson and Charlie Rooks have returned from the North West; also William Heattlie. Mrs. Howard Metherell intends to hold a sale on December 5th, of implements, stocks, etc. Be sure to attend. It is reported that Mr. Thos Broad of Toronto has rented the farm of the late H. Metherell. Misses Blanche Dix, Hazel Dix and Ruby Webster, of the L.O.I., spent the week end at their homes here. Mr. Mark Wickett's house is nearing completion. He intends moving in a few weeks. Our market is closed for some time which makes everything very unlively. We understand that John Grigg leaves shortly on a trip to England. Mr. and Mrs. (Rev.) Jos. Archer and daughter Mae spent a day at Woodville, the guest of Mr. Archers son. Hunting is the order of the day at present. Sam Hooper has finished threshing and is now busily engaged cutting feed for the farmers. The sleighing has been good during the past week, but by looks it will soon be all gone again. Mrs. Chas. Cornell spent Thursday last with her mother, Mrs. Mark. A good number of our citizens attended Wesley Jewell's sale this week. Mr. W. B. Johnston, who has been in the west for the summer, returned last week. Rev. W. R. Archer of Woodville, preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday last, giving two excellent sermons. Mr. D. Yerex has commenced work on the ground for his skating rink and expects soon to have skating.

Valentia News Of Interest

Oh! Boost ye, Boost our Millersmith Our own old land of worldly fame, Dunsfords behind They're like a myth Yet, Millersmith retains her name. Having carefully perused the above poem I have come to the conclusion that it is my duty to chalk that gentleman of a little, so will reply with the following lines. Don't boast; Don't boast, ye Millersmith, That little place of unknown name, Dunsford is not so far behind As you, my dear young man, proclaim. If I remember rightly, you, A football game with us once fought. We weren't so far behind then, for, We licked you by four goals to nought. N. B.—Leave Dunsford alone, Mr. Millersmith. When you start in the poetry business I will sell you a few compositions to start with. The Dunsford hunting party arrived home on Friday last after a pleasant two weeks' hunt. Only four deer were captured this year, the party wishing to give other hunters a chance. N. B.—This is not the truth, but it looks good in print. Another cutting from a correspondent reads as follows:— Our minister gave a splendid address on temperance to a small audience, but owing to the rain, few attended. Think it over, if you can't see where the joke lies, ask me. Mr. Lawson Brien, of the Bank of Commerce, Lindsay, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brien. Mr. Bert Kennedy, Scotch Line, returned home from the Northwest on Saturday last. Our public school teacher, Miss A. Nie, resumed her duties on Monday last. I tender our deepest sympathy to her in her great loss. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Webster spent Friday last in Toronto.

KINMOUNT (Special to The Post)

There was no Kinmount school last week, the heating not being any too good. The trustees are having a furnace installed. The work is not quite finished. On Tuesday of last week the farmers of this vicinity were seen coming in, each on the same errand—bent on delivering turkeys. It was turkey day in Kinmount. Mr. B. Hopkins left on Saturday for the Toronto with a car load of cattle. Mr. Fred Mark, of L.C.I.I. spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mark. Rev. Mr. Fraser and wife visited at the home of Mr. John Austin's, on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Mr. Fraser preached very acceptably in the Presbyterian Church in the morning, and then went on to Cobocook and Rosedale. Mr. Wm Suggitt went on a business trip to the city last Thursday. Mr. Victor Suggitt of Port Perry, spent Sunday under the parental roof. On Friday evening, Dec. 3 Valentia Hockey Club will hold their annual pie social in the Forester's Hall. See posters for particulars. The W. M.S. Auxiliarf purpose holding an open meeting in December Further particulars later.

ISLAY

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowleson spent last week visiting friends at Newmarket. Mr. Frank Vice, of Selina, is at present the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Elford. The Women's Institute held their November meeting at the home of Mrs D. Tolmie. A splendid paper was given by Mrs. Marshall Moyne. There was also a discussion on Xmas cake, and pies and excellent ideas were also brought out. Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Zion, and Mrs. Harvey Copp, were appointed as delegates to attend the annual convention of the W. I. in Toronto. Mrs. Copp afterwards declined to go and Mrs. M. Naylor went in her place. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Cowleson on the usual date, the second Wednesday at 2.30 p.m. An interesting feature of this meeting will be an exchange of Xmas presents not to exceed the value of fifteen cents. All ladies are invited to attend. Mr. Jas. Wilson who journeyed to the West several months ago, returned on Saturday. He spent the greater part of the time in the vicinity of Moosejaw, where he also purchased several lots. Mr. Wilson is loud in his praise of the western country and may return with his family in the spring. Mr. W. H. Warwick was in Eldon on business during a couple of days last week. day with relatives in Mariposa. Miss Lucy White, of Cambray, was visiting her friend, Miss Alma Cowleson last week. Miss Lizzie Currins is at present visiting at Pleasant Point and Ops.

Dunsford Doings Of Interest

Many thanks for congratulations showed upon us during last week. The new C. P. R. assistant has commenced work. Mr. Wm. Wright called here on Saturday after attending the funeral of his father at Bobcaygeon. This community tenders their heartfelt sympathy to him in his bereavement. Mrs. Carnaby Thurston, who has been spending a few weeks at Dunsford, returned home on Saturday last. I have every respect for newspaper correspondents providing they write nothing about the District I represent. Conning the columns of the Lindsay Warden on Sunday last, I noticed the following article, written by the Mil-
