DEDICATION OF OAKWOOD S NEW CHURCH CEREMONIES TOOK PLACE ON SUNDAY

(Special to The Post.)

Oakwood, Nov. 24-The dedication of the new Methodist church, Oakwood, (which was formally opened for divine worship on Thursday, 21st inst.) took place on Sunday, Nov. 24, commencing at 10.30 a. m. Although the morning was stormy, a large congregation attended the service. The service opened with the doxology, the pastor leading in the invocation and giving out the first hymn. Rev. Wesley Elliott led in prayer. Rev. D. Crews, who preached the dedicatory sermon, took as his text Job. 37th chap., 21st verse. And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds. The doctor referred very interestingly to the pessimists of the resent who saw nothing but decline and decay and who were always referring to the past as being so much better than the present. He gave in beautiful contrast what he considered as seven wonders of the present day, with what were said to be the seven wonders of the ages of the past. These were enforced with numerous illustrations which clearly proved that the world is better than it used

The dedication service followed, conducted by the President of Conference, Rev. G. H. Copeland, assisted by the pastor and Revs. Dr. Crews, W. Elliott and Jos. Archer. At 3 p. m. a mass meeting of the Sunday schools was held, presided over by A. O. Hogg, Esq. Interesting addresses were delivered by Revs. W. Elliott, Dr. Crews, and G. H. Copeland. The singing at this service was led by the orchestra and was spirited

Although still snowing at 7 p. m., the large and beautiful edifice was people perish." The sermon was clear, thoughtful and eminently practical demonstration of the truth. Men of all ages have had visions. This pulpit must give a vision to men. A vision of sin, a vision of God, a vision of salvation, a vision of service. These suggestions were strongly emphasized by numerous and apt illustrations.

The excellent choir under the leadership of Mr. W. Lane rendered some very choice anthems, and sang in fine voice throughout all the services. Contributions were again liberal. We bespeak a bright future for Methodism in Mariposa in general, and Oakwood in particular.

Coboconk Bridge Question Discussed

At Wednesday's session of county council the expense sheet in connection with the work on the Coboconk bridge was submitted, aroused considerable comment.

Warden Steele explained that was not nearly as far finished as implied, and a great deal of money had to be spent to do so.

Engineer Smith explained the trouble of 219 sacks of cement, and said that other parties had been building value. a cement walk in Coboconk as comty work, and had purchased cement and supplies without his knowledge. No committee meetings had been called and many things had been neglected in 1911. This year no sand was on the ground as supposed, and the lake shore where it was to be obtained was 3 feet under water. The cost of obtaining the sand 10 miles away had added greatly to the cost of the bridge. It is very indiscreet
