The resident ministers of our town, Rev. D. H. Currie, Rev. J. F. Chapman and Rev. F. Earle attended the Interdenominational Missionary Conference held in Lindsay on Friday last. They report it a grand success. The Quarterly Board of the Methodist church appointed three delegates to attend the great 6th meeting, Dr. J. E. Thompson, Messrs R. J. Mulligan and W. H. Kennedy. They will give their report next Sunday evening, November 3rd.

The annual meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening and was very enjoyable throughout. Short addresses were given by the resident ministers, also by the president of the society, Dr. J. N. Thompson, who acted as chairman. These were interspersed by a selection from the Omemee quartette, also solos by Mrs. A. E. Bryson, and Mrs. A. C. Hodgetts. The treasurer and secretary each gave his report. The money raised last year amounted to about $148, for which praise is due to the collectors and praise is due to the collectors and the citizens of Omemee and vicinity, and an effort is being made to bring the sum still higher for the coming year.

A big time is expected in Omemee on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, when the opening of the armories takes place. In the afternoon a public meeting will be held, and speeches will be made by Hon. Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, Senator McHugh of Lindsay, and others from Toronto, Kingston, etc. The Lindsay band and orchestra will be in attendance. Invitations are being sent out for the "at home" in the evening.
