EXTRA HANDS AT FLAVELLES LTD. HANDLING HEAVY EUROPEAN ORDERS

Flavelles' Ltd. have taken on between sixty and seventy-five extra hands within the last few days in order to keep up with their unprecedented European orders.

From two to three carloads of eggs are being shipped away every day and the outlook is that this will continue for six weeks or so.

Prospects for Canadian trade with Great Britain are very good in food-stuffs and all lines of woollen goods.

The demand for poultry is slow at present since it is not on the Army Ration List and the general cry to economize has restricted the home trade.

Trade is about normal in staple lines.

Mr. Flavelle had a very good trip.

OMEMEE OBSERVES GUY FAWKES DAY

Omeme, Nov. 9.—The 5th of November, 1914, has passed into history, so has the celebration of Guy Fawkes' night, for the same year been written on the tablets of local record. 'Tis little likely that the celebrated founder of the night ever dreamed that for three centuries beyond his ken, there would be public celebrations to his memory.

mystic observance, and no doubt when another year has rolled round, they will again be in larger numbers.

B. J. GOUGH WHERE THE GOOD CLOTHES COME FROM

A number from here attended the fowl supper at Eldon last Monday and report a good time.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly in our town this year.

Mr. Jess McKay, of Bracebridge is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Cuthbert.

Mrs. Scott, of Port Perry, is the guest of Mrs. A. Fraser. Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, of Lorneville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Ewen.

Died—On Saturday, Nov. 7th, Mr. Jas. Bell, aged 63 years.

Mrs. Holmes, of Newmarket, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merry and Mrs. Wolf, of Winnipeg, Man., are guests of Lady McKenzie.

The concert and lecture under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society on Friday night last, was well attended. Proceeds amounted to $25 toward the manse furnace fund.

Dental — Dr. Neelands, dentist, Lindsay, will be at Eldon Hotel, Victoria Road, on Wednesday, 18th and Jackson's Hotel, Cobocook, on Thursday, 19th.

FOWL SUPPER AT FLEETWOOD

There was a huge crowd Monday evening at Fleetwood Fowl Supper, but no matter what number came the ladies seemed to be supplied with abundance of good things to set in appetizing array before the visitors. The tables were changed completely four or five times. Everyone speaks of the tender and tasty duck, goose and turkey and of the generous helpings.

After the supper an excellent program was rendered to a large audience. Every number was of a high standard and much appreciated.

MAKING PROGRESS WITH HEAVY RAILS

Peterboro, Nov. 9.—If the present rate of progress on the laying of the heavy rails on the Grand Trunk line between here and Belleville is sustained the work ought to have progressed as far as this city by Christmas. Whether the work goes as satisfactorily as it has or not depends largely upon the weather, which may hamper operations considerably. The new track should make a phenomenal change in the line between here and Belleville.
