The Weekly Post

WILSON & WILSON, Proprietors.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11.

Character is one thing and reputation is quite another.

The town of Orson, Sweden, is without taxes. The necessary revenues are derived from a forest reservation.

Hon. Robt. Jaffray is of the opinion that Toronto can be redeemed. Good! We had thought the ticket had run out long ago.

Nine years is to be taken in drawing up China's constitution. By that time the infant heir to the throne will be almost old enough to rule.

A California man has nearly died of eating too much ginger. An exchange thinks that perhaps he was a molly-coddle and tried to get some ginger and went to success.

Now that the municipal elections are looming up in the distance, Toronto men are crowding upon the Yonge-st. bridge and the viaduct to get a look in.

Henry Ward Beecher said that many build as cathedrals were built, the part nearest the ground finished, but that part which soars toward heaven, the turrets and spires, forever incomplete.

Mr. Burchell, who was recently elected to represent a constituency in the New Brunswick legislature, has declined to act. He knows, probably, how little honor attaches to the office, for he has been there before.

Useful Presents

Announcing the Complete Readiness of the Store Which Has Always Been Headquarters for Gifts, Practical Decorative and Sensible.

The Home of Good and Useful Gifts, now in full holiday panoply, wafts cordial welcome to Christmas shoppers.

From top to bottom the whole store is in full bloom with "gifty" things; practical and beautiful things, for personal and home adornment, for comfort and service, things which cost less than expensive frivols and trifles, yet are far more valuable and acceptable to their recipient.

The showing is superb. A beautiful and satisfying array all the components of which have been chosen with nicest care, trained taste and expert discrimination. You shall see how well we have interpreted your preferences and desires, how successfully we have devoted our capital, capacity and energy toward buying them to sell for the least; and you will appreciate the efficient, genial service which we are prepared to give you in your inspecting and selecting.

Start your shopping early. Come as often as you will, wander about, linger and make leisurely selection. We promise that your every gift desire shall be delightfully and economically satisfied.
