FENELON FALLS. (Special to The Post)

About twenty young people of town pleasantly surprised Miss Ethel Long at the Hotel Kawartha on Friday evening last. Several hours were spent at games, cards and music before the merry party broke up in the wee sma' hours, having spent a very enjoyable time.

A basket social was held at Fell's school house on Friday evening, 11th inst. A number from the Falls drove out to the school house, and report a good time. The baskets were numerous and pretty, the girls ditto, and the drive there and back was simply glorious.

Edwin Stone Keag, eldest son of Mr. C. Kelly, got a very painful cut on his face last Saturday afternoon. It seems he was trying to dodge some apples which were being thrown at him by a group of other boys.

The mission band which was started in the school some time ago by the Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of Glenora, is progressing favorably, and new members are being added weekly. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maxwell, who returned from Saskatchewan a couple of months ago, have gone to Long Branch to reside.

Mr. T. Greaves is erecting a new windmill on his barn. Mr. Mick McMillan has erected an up-to-date poultry house. Mr. Alex. Murchison, of Woodville, spent Sunday last at C. McMillan's. The anniversary services and entertainment held at Glenora on Sunday and Monday last were well attended by the people of this vicinity.

St. Andrew's S. S. entertainment and Christmas tree in Dickson's hall on Tuesday, Dec. 22nd, promises to be as usual a treat. A good programme is being prepared. On Wednesday evening, 23rd inst., the Baptist S. S. will hold an entertainment and of course a Christmas tree will be one of the attractions. The children of the Sunday school are being carefully drilled, and the entertainment is sure to be a good one.

On Christmas night the Methodist S. S. entertainment and Christmas tree will be held, and the children and their friends are looking forward to a happy time on this occasion. All indications point to it being a success in every respect. Last, but not least, will be the entertainment to be given by St. James' Sunday school on Wednesday evening, Dec. 30th, in Dickson's hall. A programme is being prepared by the children and young people of the S. S. A Christmas tree will also be a feature of the entertainment.

The skating rink opened on Saturday evening last, and is now in full swing, with a good attendance. A telephone has been installed in the curling rink, which will no doubt prove a great convenience. A bazaar under the auspices of the ladies of the Baptist church will be held in the afternoon and evenings of Friday and Saturday, Dec. 18th and 19th, in the vacant store owned by Mr. W. Curtis, on Colborne-st. A large number of useful and fancy articles will be offered for sale, also home made baking. Refreshments will be served in the tea room from five o'clock. Mr. Geo. E. Wiggins has severed his connection with the local lumber firm known as Moore, CConnell and Wiggins, with which he has been associated for a number of years. He left Fenelon Falls last week for Toronto, where he has accepted a position on the staff of a prominent business college. Mr. Wiggins will be much missed by a large circle of friends. Mr. F. J. Kerr spent from Friday till Wednesday with friends in Newcastle. Mr. E. McPhee, of Lindsay, is in town for a few days.

Miss Teenie Acheson, of Highland Grove, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. Martin.

Mr. J. R. Hand, of St. Joseph Island, came to the Falls on Tuesday. Rev. W. H. A. French exchanged pulpits on Sunday last with Rev. Cummer, of Kinmount.

Dr. Mason was in Lindsay on Monday. Mr. R. M. Hamilton spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Mrs. Dr. Gould and Miss Nie returned on Monday from Guelph, where they attended the W. I. convention as delegate from the local branch.

Mr. J. A. Tully, of Peterboro, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Thos. Torrance of Neepawa, Man., came home recently on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Torrance. He went to Lindsay on Tuesday to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Carew.

PALESTINE. (Special to The Post)

Miss Lulu Adair has returned home after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Swain, of Valentia.

Mrs. T. Day, who has been very ill, is seriously improving. The new school house is at last completed, and was opened on Dec. 7th. It is a fine improvement to the village, and is certainly beautifully finished both inside and outside. Please don't forget the Christmas tree and entertainment held under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school on December 22nd. Come one and all and enjoy the treat of the season.

VALENTIA. (Special to The Post)

Mrs. Joseph Mack is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Walker Mitchell, of Ops. Mr. and Mrs. Mosley, of town, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Hoar. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Grills join in expressing their sympathy for them in their recent bereavement, having lost their only child from a very brief illness. A very interesting game of football was played last week between our north ward school by the scholars of both sections on Tuesday afternoon, the 22nd inst., after which the return game of football will be played by the scholars of the two schools.
