LINDSAY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1908

Terms-$1.00 per Year in Advance

Told in Interesting Form by the Bright Correspondents of The Post at the Various Centres.

OMEMEE

(Special to The Post) Sleighing is splendid and many are mjoying it. A number from Omemee took in the I, O, F. concert held at Mount Fleasant Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davidson, of reetwood, were in town Tuesday. The Omemee high school have sent at invitations for their "at home"

o be held on the 22nd. Thornton is no better.

Sethel Thursday evening.

We wish her a speedy recovery. Mr. J. N. Woolner, of Toronto call- be remembered by many here, and he on Mr. R. J. Courtney Tuesday, also met Mr. T. McCamus. All were We are pleased to see Mr. Scott well and prosperous. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherford and Mr. Wm. Balfour McIntyre intend spending Christmas looking have and hearty after their leturn from the northwest. Bo not forget the grand concert te be given in Omemee opera house m Christmas night.

CAMBRAY

(Special to The Post.) A sleighload of young people from the village took in the entertainment at Linden Valley on Monday evening and reported a good time. Miss Rogers, the former central telephone operator, was presented with a purse of money by the subscribers on Saturday evening last, which showed that the prompt service she had rendered was appreciat-

Mrs. McIntyre is spending a few weeks with friends at Midland. Don't forget the shooting match in the village New Year's day. There will be lots of birds and plenty of Miss Bagshaw is visiting her cousins at Utica, Ont., for a week. Mr. Dankls is home for a visite ind expects to stay a tew months. Mr. George James expects to have the skating rink in shape for the general public in a few days.

Mr. James Wells has commenced mk at the saw mill. A lot of good less are coming in.

Mr. Ed. Wood visited friends in Brock on Saturday and Sunday last. Mr. Armour Hancock, our new batcher, is doing a good business these days.

BOBCAYGEON.

(Special to The Post)

Mr. W. A. Langton, of Toronto, Architect, spent Sunday here, guest of Mr. W. T. C. Boyd. Mr. Langdon is the architect who drew the plans for "Hillscroft," the new boys' school.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch left for Bay City, Mich., on Monday, to be present at the graduation from Mercy Hospital of their daughter, Miss Ade-

On Monday, Mr. W. J. Patterson,

who has been visiting with Mr. Thos. Murphy for a couple of weeks, left for his home in Latchford. We were sorry he could not stay longer. Mr. Patterson is assured of a hearty welcome when next he visits us. We are sorry to learn that Mr. J. . Mr. Maurice Welsh was home on Thursday after a business trip Many from Omemee intend taking through the Cobalt region. While in the basket social to be held att New Liskeard Mr. Welsh saw W. A. McIntyre and w.ic, both of whom We regret hearing that Miss Olive were cruzens of this place up till a McQuade is confined to her room, few years ago. At Gravenhurst Mr.

Welsh saw George McNeill, who will

on Bobcaygeon. On Thursday two very popular young people departed from our midst in the persons of Miss Etta Harmer and Mr. Gerald McKay. Miss Harmer has been employed in Mr. D. D. Cain's store for several years and by her unfailing good nature and agreeable disposition made many friends. Miss Harmer intends spending a few days in Toronto before proceeding to her home at Southampton. Mr. McKay has been assistart station agent for about a year, and his courtesy and cheery ways made him a general favorite. He received a hurry-up call on Thursday to report at Detroit, and left on the Messrs. Conway Bros., owing to increase in sasiness, found it necessary to add to their staff, and have engaged Mr. Jos. Murphy, lately of Mr. Cain's store.

On Wednesday night a concert under the auspices of the congregation of Christ church was held in the parish hall. The programme consisted of songs, instrumentals and selections by the surpiced choir, and was quite a musical treat. The attende ance was good and the net receipts, amounted to about $15.00.

The Ladies' Guild of Christ church held their annual sale of fancy goods last Friday.

On Monday the fong looked for wheels for the municipal power house arrived. The wheels, which were manufactured by the Madison Williams Foundry Co., Lindsay, are of the Triumph turbine type and each is capable of developing 80 h. p. with a five foot head and about 100 h. p. with a six foot head. The numbers and was enjoyed. The vibweighing over fourteen tons. They were moved to the power bouse on Tuesday and Mr. Wesley Dunn and half-a-dozen men have since been engaged at getting them in place. One

"THE DAYLIGHT STORE."

CHRISTMAS

A Merry Christmas

Tour d patrons, whose faces have become famium to us and for the many evidences given us of the still urther strengthening of close ties, we sa - "Thank you, and a Merry Christmas."

To the new patrons who are constantly enlarging our circle of friends, we y-" Merry Christmas and welcome to the Store's best that the New Year will bring.

> Let Christmas warmth keep winter out, and Joy unbroken reign-From floor to roof-tree send the shout Till Christmas comes a a a

Lang & Maher

Clothiers and Furnishers o Men Wno Know LINDSAY and PETERBORO . EA IT BENSON HOUSE

MR. G. H. WILSON

Managing partner of The Post, wishes its subscribers and friends a very Merry Christmas and a glad New Year.

> "Counting the days till Christmas! Sweet days of tender Care That loved ones may on the blessed morn Find longed for treasures fair, Thus dreaming, hoping and waiting, That holiest day draws near When 'Peace on earth, good will to men, Ring out the joy-bells clear."

wheel will be set up and ready for the water tomorrow, and it is pected that the other will be fitted early next week. The dynamo and other apparatus has already been transferred to the new power house and the poles have been changed, so that the wheels and line shaft are now the only things to be fixed. The work will be proceeded with vigorously, and barring accidents, we will have electric light for Christ-

On Friday night, 11th, a sleighlcad of young people drove out to Dunsford and attended the Presbyterian tea and entertainment there. The supper served in the Masonic half was a credit to the ladies of the parish. The concert was given in the old English church. The place, was very crowded and not, for Dunsford, like Bobcaygeon, has outgrown its hall accommodation. The programme included some excellent wheels are huge things, the two lagers feft for home about ten and after a delightful drive arrived old Bobcaygeon about twelve. On Wednesday Mrs. Wm. Foster reached the rare age of 88 years. In the evening a number of friends asembled at her home and a social time was enjoyed. Mrs. Foster lived in North Verulam for many years and is still quite hale and active. The Methodist Sunday school Christmas tree entertainment is to be held in the town hall on the evening of December 22nd. A number of dialegues, songs, etc., will be given and after the programme the hearts of the kiddies will be gladdened by the distribution of prizes from the Christmas tree.

MINDEN

(Special to The Post.) Mr. Geo. Stevens, of Coboconk, was a visitor here this week. Mr .D. J. Hartle was a visitor in Toronto this week.

Mrs. Puffer and her daughter arrived here one day this week to spend the winter with her brother, Mr. R. H. Baker.

Rev. J. Fenning returned to his home in Markham on Monday, having spent a pleasant holiday here. His many friends were pleased to see

Mr. J. H. Delamere went to To ronto on Monday to spend the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Bert Hartle arrived home From the collegiate institute on Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents.

The tea meeting which was held in the town hall on Wednesday, Dec. 16th by the people of St. Paul's church was everything that could be desired. The weather was fine and the hall wasf ull. The church made

Mr. Norrie arrived home from Pe- | bome atter a week's visit with Canterboro one day this week to spend inington friends. the Christmas holidays.

ing a concert and meat supper in in Montreal. the town hall on Monday, December | A sie gaload of young people at- ham Fallis. 21st, and the Methodist Sunday tended the basket social at Ontrock Mr. Fred Thompson called school intend holding their concert on Tuesday, December 22nd.

Rev. J. French, of Fenelon Falls was a visitor here this week and helped with the programme of the tea meeting of St. Paul's church. Mr. Abbot, of Fenelon Falls, was was a visitor here this week. Mrs. Francis Peck, jr., is visitor in Washago and Allandale this week. Miss Lulu McKelwain, of Gelert, was the guest of Miss Lila Dreland this week. The people of the Presbyteriant church intend holding their annual tea meeting on Jan. 7th, 1909. The teacher and pupils of the Anson school, Scotch Line, intend holding a concert and basket social on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd.

ZION

. (Special to The Post.) Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. John Grills, in the loss their only little daughter, Zetta aged 2 years and 8 months. The memorial service will be held at Zion chu, ch on Sunday, 27th, by Rev. Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Downer have returned home after spending a few days with friends in Peterboro and Quite a number from this part were in town on Saturday last. A few weddings are expected in the near future. On New Year's night there will be basket social held at Zion church, A good and lively programme will be given by foreign and local talent. Admission 10c. Ladies with baskets, 10c. Mr. T. Beadle is about to remove from our midst into the neighborbood of Seagrave. A number young people called om them Thursday evening last and a mos enjoyable evening was spent. LINDEN VALLEY

(Special to The Post.)

The shareholders of the Blizzard Corn Cutting Co. of Linden Valley with their wives held their annual cyster supper at the home of Mr. Sam Wright, on Dec. 16th, to settle up their business for the year. The. year has been a very successful one under the able management of Mr. Jno. Brock. Music and also many selectionsf rom the gramophone were enjoyed during the evening. After vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Wright for their very pleasant evening, the meeting closed to meet again next year at the home of Mr. Frank Graham.-W.

MANILLA

(Special to The Post.) Mr. Duncan Gillespie, of Brechin, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ranous, Miss Cassy Cobourn has returned last Friday evening, and all report a good time.

Mr. Lester Higgins left to spend lowing gentlemen were appointed, The Methodist church intend hold- the Christmas holidays with friends Mr. Jos. Gardiner, Ira. Gardiner. J.

A number from here attended the tea at Salem on Monday evening

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphries left to spend the Christmas holidays with their son, Rev. John Humphries, of Schomburg.

thodist church held a bazaar and tea on the 16th and the receipts were the handsome sum of $110, which must be very encouraging to the ladies, it being the first held since their organization.

WOODVILLE

(Special to The Post.) Mr. and Mrs. Ruan attended the Christmas fair at Sunderland Tuesday.

Miss Lily Westlake is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents here.

Miss Mary McCallum, of Riverview, is home for her holidays.

last week. Mr. Wm. Moore and family spent Sunday at Mr. T. Grimston's, East

Mrs. Norman Campbell entertained number of ladies on Friday even-

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Newman left on Saturday evening for Kingston, where she will be for some time and Mr. Newman will travel in different parts of the Northwest during the winter.

Miss S. Moore spent Sunday with friends in Hartley.

Mr. Peter Deguerre has purchased the bakery business from Mr. Ed. Greigg. We all wish Mr. Deguerre the best of luck in his business. Mr. C. Wood, of Cambray, is visiting his uncle, Mr. S. Hancock, for a

Mr. and Mrs. Ruan and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thomas spent Monday evening at Mr. T. Choate's.

Mr. Freeman Mills, of Wilton, was a guest at the parsonage last

Just think of the fun there will be on Christmas night. The first skating of the season. Band in attends Miss Lizzie Petit, of Cannington, was the guest of Mrs. Jno. Trebelco on Sunday.

Mrs. Whattam, of Wellington, visiting at the parsonage. The Methodist church have improved the look of their church by putting in new choir chairs. They are certainly a decided improvement Mr. Puley is visiting friends in

There are many entertainments in village and vicinity at present. The cantata of the Methodist church exp. ct a good crowd on the evening of the 23rd, also the limelight views, and gramophone selections by Mr. Stubbs, of Peterboro, in aid Presbyterian Sunday school in the

Mr. and Mrs. T. Choate entertained a number of their Woodville friends to 6 o'clock dinner on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Hector Grand had several lades in to tea one evening last week. Miss K. Dickey, of Grant's school, has returned to her home and the work will be taken up by Miss B. MacEachren, of Eldon.

Mr. Mile, of Milton, is a guest at the parsonage here.

Our reads are in fine condition for

COBOCONK

(Special to The Post.) Mrs. Geo. Fountain, of Frank Range, Somerville, died on Sunday ter one day's illness. Her remains were taken to Lindsay on Monday for burial. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing husband. Dr. J. Thompson, Omemee, Wm. Dodd, R. Humphrey and wife, Burnt River, were in the village on Sunday attending the funeral of Rev. W. H. Wm. Dowson, Mrs. Geo. Eade and A. Whiteside, H. Watson, of Baddow, G. W. Allely, Jno. Perkins, and Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Greer and Miss Martin, Norland, were in the village on Sunday attending the funeral of Rev. W. H. Cook. R. A. Callan visited Toronto on Friday.

Miss E. Ireland, of Smithfield, has arrived in the village and will in Luture reside with her parents, Rev and Mrs. Ireland.

LITTLE BRITAIN There will be no market here until the 29th.

> FRANKLIN (Special to The Post.)

A meeting was held in the church last Monday for the purpose of electing church trustees, when the fol-Noble, Thomas Thompson and Wil-

Ebenezer friends last Tuesday even-

Mr. Fred Staples, who has been visiting with his cousin, Harold Noblef or the last two weeks, has returned to his home in Toronto. Our school was closed last Monday and Tuesday owing to the teacher, Mr. E. O. Hart, being sick, he The ladies' aid of the Mahilla Me- having contracted a severe cold. Miss Hattie Pritchard has been visitingf riends here this week.

Mr. Ira. Gardiner was in Peterboro last week on business.

> ISLAY (Special to The Post.)

The Islay branch of the Woman's Institute held their first social evening at the commodious home of Mrs ing, Dec. 10th, and was largely attended by the members and their friends. Mrs. Stone ably filled the position of chairman and an excellent programme was given, consisting of instrumentals, songs, readings,r ecitations, and dialogues, and Miss Keenan (milliner) of Sunder- speeches from some of the gentleland was the guest of Mrs. Ruan men present. After the programme a dainty lunch was served by the

> A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Moynes for the use of their house for the evening. The pleasant meeting was brought to a crose by singing the National Anthem and all went home well satisfied that the first social of the institute was a splendid success.

The next regular monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Graham on the usual date, the second Thursday of January, at 2.30 sharp.

a member of our institute, will be present and will give an address, which will be interesting and pro-Titable to all the ladies, especially to those interested in poultry. Gordon Budd, aged 15, of West Oxford was shot and wounded while cabbit hunting. -The Sun as a farm journal | is written for the practical every day farmer. It is not filled with long essays or doubtful theories, but gives in plain, every day language, a host of helpful suggestions to tillers of soil. In this particular the Sun is without an equal. You ought to read it regularly. When renewing for The Post, order the Weekly Sun, the Ma shal Moynes on Thursday even- , farmer's business paper, both papers, one year, only $1.75.

> FOR SALE Aberdeen Polled Angus BULLS - AND -

Large White Yorkshire SOWS

HIGHLAND RANCH

S. STEWART, PHILL P. O. PEOPRIETOF

GREETINGS!

We Wish You a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year

ASK FOR ONE OF OUR 1909 CALENDARS

McCULLOUGH

Dealer in Boots & Shoes Directly Opposite Post Office

CLOSE THE YEAR

by starting that long delayed SAVINGS ACCOUNT. Don't wait until next year, but do it now. You will be very much pleased to see how rapidly small amounts will grow. We are anxious to add your name to our already large and growing list of depositors. It does not matter how small your first deposit may be, it will be none the less appreciated. DOMINION