Jottings From Lively Janetville

(Special (o the Post.)
We are sorry to report that Mos sim Walker was home last week from his studies at the Lindsay Business College with a severe cold.
Mr. Harold Porteous, of Nestleton was through town one day last week.
Dr. Sisson was in the village Monday carrying on his dental work.
A comparatively large crowd of people went to Lindsay last Saturday from here.
Miss Handy of our teaching staff visited her parents in Millbrook on Saturday and Sunday.
The Epworth League held a very pleasant time at their social evening last Friday evening. The singing and reading were appreciated by all and the refreshments were delicious.
Miss K. Syer, who has been spending a month with her uncle Dr. Mc Gill, of Midland, has returned to her home.
The missionary anniversary services will be held here next Sunday. Messrs Sparling and Small will conduct the services. A large crowd is expected on Sunday evening.
We are glad to report that all of Dr. Johnson's patients here are recovering.
We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Palmer Evers in Winnipeg. He is well known around here as he bought grain at our elevator last year. His death was a shock to some of his friends and acquaintances around here. He was esteemed by all who knew him and we all regret his early departure.
Our Methodist church expect to hold their annual Christmas tree on the twenty-third of next month.
We are sorry to report of the illness of Mr. W. J. Peel who lives to the south of us. We all wish him a speedy recovery.
Our neighborhood received a shock with the news of the death of the late Mr. Cunningham in the west. The deceased was in his 88th year. At one time he was a resident of this place, living where Mr. Finny now lives. The remains were conveyed from Janetville station to St Alban's cemetery where they were interred.
Roy Robinson, a Guelph printer has four fingers smashed in a press.
