At midday the white flag was displayed on Lion Fort, inside the walls to the northwest, indicating that the gunners had joined the revolution. Gen. Li Yuen Heng, the revolutionary leader, who had captured Tiger Fort a few days ago, occupied Shaikwan, a town on the banks of the river outside the City of Nanking. Thereupon the warships under the command of Admiral Sah, which had hitherto been two miles down the river, cautiously approached and took up a position under the guns of Lion

Gen. Lin, second in command of the revolutionary forces, took the Taiping gate and then arranged the terms of capitulation of the entire city. Later on the revolutionary troops entered and took possession of the telegraph office. White flags began to appear everywhere, and no fighting occurred when the revolutionaries entered the

How Thousands of Ontario French SENIOR MATRIC. Children "Get in Wrong" From the Start

There are three hundred schools in Ontario in which bilingual text books are used.

These text books are poor affairs, and in the hands of incompetent and unqualified teachers they are just that much

You may have heard Sir James Whitney or have read about him saying that "there is no such things as bilingual schools in Ontario."

Here is a lesson, page 8, Premier Livre De Lecture - First Reader - French on one side, English on the other, used in the 300 bilingual schools in this Province:

Le chat voit une souris Cours, souris, cours!

The cat sees a mouse. Run, mouse, run!

WHITNEY GOVERNMENT AND TEMPERANCE

tario is no longer defended as a pub-From Bobcaygeon: Mr. and Mrs. C. lic necessity or convenience. No reunder the Whitney Government Thanks to his policy, their victories

Assuredly they are not. What are the facts? When the Whitney Government took office in 1905 the local option law, as passed and put in force by the Mowat Government, provided that the bars could be closed in any municipality in Ontario by a majority vote of the electors. In 1906 the Higinbotham, your druggist, has an Whitney Government, which had obtained valuable aid in the general clection from the liquor interests, The time to take care of your hair Paid the price for it by an amendment to the law, providing that no tars should be closed except on a majority of three-fifths of the persons voting. In other words, 59 electors could not close a bar if 41 wanted to keep it open. It was also provided-to give an air of justice and equality to this retsograde legislation-that bars once closed under the amended law, could not be opened except on a three-fifths vote. The working out of the law during the past five years proves what a fraud it has been and how effectively it has hindered the progress of reform. During the five years under the three-fifths clause 492 barroms have been closed while 421 remain open, that would have been closed had a majority vote governed. Only two tar rooms remained closed under the three-fifths clause that would have been re-opened under majority rule. The net result of the Whitney policy of ham-stringing the temperance vote is that there are 419 open bars in Ontario to day that have been voted out by a majority of the people of the various municipalities, but that remain open under shelter of the "temperance" legislation of Sir Jas. Whitney and his colleagues.

NEW STANDARD

A movement is on foot by which the standard of entrance to the University of Toronto will be raised considerably. If the scheme goes through all the elementary work now done in the first year at the university will be carried on in the secondary schools. Dr. Falconer, President of the university, is sponsor for the proposal, which will compel young men and women of 16 or 17 to remain at home a year longer than they do at present It is thought that it would be better for the university and for the schools of the province to have young men and women remain in the secondary schools for an extra year.

The question of cost is also a serious one in contemplating a university training, and were the proposals of the president adopted a saving would Le effected in hundreds of cases, by having the student remain at home until equipped for the higher stan-

One of the first objects of the movement is to influence students entering a course of practical science, medicine or other faculty now distinct from the arts courses, to take two full years of general education, such one year in the High school of the home town and one year in arts the university. This would likely be made compulsory. There is no intention of suddenly raising the standard to that of such institutions as Harvard Medical school, which admits no one without an arts degree.

The Faculty of Medicine has been concerned for some time in urging that the standard of entrance be raised. At present a student can enter with junior matriculation standing. What is desired is to make senior matriculation the basis of en-
