OBITUARY

FREDERICK CLEMENT LATIMER The death occurred yesterday morning, of Frederick Clement Latimer at the age of 33 years. The deceased was suffering from consumption. He was in town but a few days, being here on a visit to friends.

MRS. FRANK WELSMAN

Globe: The whole community will deeply sympathize with Mr. Frank Welsman, the conductor of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, in his bereavement in the loss of his wife, who died suddenly of heart disease Saturday morning.

MRS. J. P. WRIGHT.

The sad news of the death of C. Jennie Banks, beloved wife of Mr. J. P. Wright, Indian Agent, Fort Francis, Ont., was received by friends Saturday.

Mrs. Wright was born in the village of Oakwood, where she received her early education. She then spent some time at Demill Ladies' College, Oshawa, afterwards graduated from Dr. McIntyre's Presbyterian Ladies' College, Toronto.

In 1894 she entered upon a course of training in Boston City General Hospital, and was such a brilliant student that on graduating she was given a very responsible position in that institution. Subsequently she took charge of the Water Street Hospital, Ottawa, leaving there to become Lady Superintendent of the McKellar General Hospital, Fort William. All through the typhoid epidemic in that city she labored day and night for the people. When the fever plague had abated she was so broken in health that she was obliged to take a year's rest. Then, feeling stronger, though never fully recovered

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the sewers of the body—bowels, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body.

"For some time I had been in a low, depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results.

"At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

"Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box."

ing from the strain of overwork in Fort William, she accepted the Superintendentcy of the Training School for nurses in the Wesley Hospital at Chicago, where she continued to work until the summer of 1909, when she left to become the wife of Mr Wright, of Fort Francis, Ont.

She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church, a true friend, a brave and noble woman. It was her wish to be buried by her father and mother in the little village cemetery of Oakwood.

WEDDING BELLS

BRADY-FLYNN.

Downeyville, Dec. 2.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Luke's Church, Downeyville, on Tuesday morning when Miss Annie Flynn, daughter of Cornelius Flynn, Emily, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. James Brady, Ops. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McGuire, parish priest. Miss Mary O'Brien played the wedding march.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a tailored suit of dark blue, with embroidered net waist over silk, and velvet hat to match. She carried a white prayer book and pearl rosary, Miss Maggie Hickson, of Lindsay, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Jos Cain, nephew of the groom was best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party together with their friends, drove to the home of the bride's father where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. After the usual toasts the happy couple drove to the 6.23 G.T.R. train for their wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Ops township.

The numerous wedding presents received attested to the high esteem in which the bride is held. The following is a list: Rev. Father McGuire, five dollars in gold; Drs. McAlpine and Rich, five dollar gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, Omemees, hand-painted biscuit jar; Mr. and Mrs. Ivory, Omemees, pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan, Omemees, case of perfume and white prayer book; W. Currie, linen towels, pair; Mrs. Parker, cheese dish; Mrs. Sutcliffe, hand glass and silk handkerchief; Mr. Babcock, set wine glasses; Mr. and Mrs. Cain, silver butter dish; Miss Julia Brady, half-dozen silver spoons; Mr. and Mrs. J. Teevin, table drape; Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, a silver tea pot; Mr. and Mrs. Hickson, set berry dishes; Mr. W. Flynn, brother, fur-lined coat; bride's father, cheque on Dominion Bank for $1,100; groom's gift to bride, gold locket and chain; to bridesmaid, gold pin; to groomsmen, set of cuff links.

FALLIS-WILSON.

At Valleyfield Farm, Lifford, where the commodious home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson nestles snugly on its West. ern slope, there occurred on Wednesday, Nov. 29 an exceedingly pretty house wedding, the contracting parties being their daughter Annie Mabel and Austin W. Fallis, Ballyduff. As the soft strains of the wedding march rendered by Mrs. S. W. Clark, sister of the bride, floated through the prettily decorated apartments, the bride entered the drawing room, leaning on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. M. Patterson. The bride was becomingly gowned in Duchess satin, empire style trimmed with seed pearls and over lace. She wore a Brussels net veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Winnifred, who looked pretty in a frock of pink silk voile, trimmed with pink satin and over lace. The groom was ably assisted by his cousin, Mr. Will Kennedy, Millbrook.

After the ceremony congratulations were received from the happy couple's many friends and congratulatory messages were received from Toronto, Buffalo and Peterboro. While the register was being signed Mr. J. J. Clarke sang "O Perfect Love." The guests then repaired to the spacious dining room, beautifully decorated with ever greens and roses, to partake of the many delicacies there provided. The tables were decorated with pretty white and pink carnations and were lighted with candles. The wedding cake rested in the centre on a very pretty centre piece. The groom's gift to the bride was a mink muff and pin set with pearls; to the bridesmaid and pianist pearl crescents, and to the groom a pair of gold cuff links.

It would be impossible to give any idea here of the number and beauty of the presents received by the bride, consisting as they did, of sterling silver, cut glass, lace, linens, etc. Their value was quite in keeping with the high esteem in which the bride is held. Her going away dress was of brown velvet trimmed with Irish lace and fringe. The happy young couple in future will reside at Ballyduff, and take with them the good wishes of their many friends for a long, happy, and prosperous married life. (Bowmanville papers please copy.)

LOYALLY WELCOMED.

Hamilton Pays Tribute to Their Royal Highnesses.

Hamilton, Dec. 2.—The visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught was brought to a brilliant close last evening by the public reception at the court house. About 1,500 invitations had been issued for the function, and the large court room was completely filled by Hamilton citizens. Only about 500 people chose to be presented to the royal couple, however, and these made their bows and curtsies in 57 varieties in less than half an hour.

Her Royal Highness was evidently fatigued by the day's activities, but the duke bowed and smiled, while the presentations were being made as if he enjoyed the proceedings.

The military formed a large portion of the assemblage, and the reception was largely a dress affair. All classes were present, however, and it may be said those who were presented to the royal couple were representative people. The civic banquet at the Royal Hotel early in the evening was attended by 200 guests, and was a brilliant success.

The various functions in connection with the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were carried off smoothly, and no trouble of any kind was experienced. The police under the direction of Chief Smith and Deputy Chief Whatley handled the crowd in a most satisfactory manner.

Ald. Dr. Davey and the reception committee carried out the program, which had been arranged for the entertainment of the royal visitors, without a hitch, and deserve a great deal of credit for the thorough manner in which the details of the entertainment were looked after. The royal couple left the city at 11.30 last night on their return trip to Ottawa.

London, Dec. 2.—(C.A.P. Cable).—An interested crowd, mostly of ladies, witnessed the departure of Princess Patricia of Connaught at Euston station yesterday. Princess Arthur and Princess Marie Louise, Earl Grey and the Hon. Dudley Ward, representing the Colonial Office, Lord Strathcona, Countess Wemyss and Lady Muriel Page were there.

The princess is taking many Christmas presents and a bob sleigh for her own use. Liverpool, Dec. 2.—Countess Derby and the Lady Mayoress met the Princess Patricia here and conducted her to the boat.

RESENT GUILLOTINE.

Unionists Desert House of Commons In a Body.

London, Dec. 1.—There was a remarkable scene in the House of Commons last night, when the Government applied the guillotine to 470 amendments in the report stage of the insurance bill.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition, heatedly accused the Ministers of acting in obedience to the Redmondites in thus flouting Parliament in order to clear the road for home rule for Ireland. David Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, as hotly replied that the Government was only following the example set by Unionist Governments.

The excitement was intense and the members faced the prospect of a division on each amendment when, on the Speaker putting the first amendment, the entire Opposition rose and made a dramatic exit from the chamber pursued by derisive Ministerial cheering. Then in a dreary monotone the Speaker began formally putting the amendments and when he became fatigued the Deputy Speaker relieved him. The entire 470 amendments were adopted and in only a single case was the division challenged by the Laborites.

This concluded part one of the bill. The remaining parts will be guillotined to-day.

Ottawa's Water Troubles.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—To carry out the $2,400,000 plan to supply Ottawa with water from McGregor Lake a dam would have to be built at the Blanche River in Quebec. Yesterday, Dr. H. Amy of the Geological Survey, one of the most eminent geologists in Canada, says it would not be safe to do this, that the ground formation at McGregor Lake is of clay, and that both the landslides at the Blanche River and at Notre Dame de la Salle, where 32 lost their lives some years ago, were caused by damming up waters, thus causing the land to slide.

NOMINATIONS THROUGHOUT THE PROVINCE THERE WILL BE FEW ACCLAMATIONS

(Special to The Post)

Toronto, Dec. 4.—All roads to-day lead to the nomination halls. All over the province the official nominations for the Legislature are being held, and very soon the candidates will be doing their utmost to secure their election.

Sir James P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, will speak at Winchester Springs, Dundas County, at his own nomination. The leader of the Opposition, N. W. Rowell, K.C., will speak at the North Oxford nomination in Woodstock.

Although thirty seats lacked Liberal candidates a week ago, F. G. Inwood, Liberal organizer for the province, was confident that by to-night every vacancy would be filled.

"I don't believe there will be a single acclamation outside of Toronto in the province," he said. "The only constituencies where candidates have not yet been secured are: Carleton, East Durham, East Hastings, West Hastings, North Hastings, Lincoln, London and East Victoria."

Conventions are being held in London, East and West Hastings to-day, and candidates secured.

"This only leaves five constituencies on which I have not received the latest advice, but I am not looking for a single acclamation in the province."

"It will not be necessary to hold conventions in many cases," he said, "as the local executives will name candidates."

Twenty-five members of the last Legislature have not been renominated. Of these eighteen are Conservatives out of eighty-seven, and seven are Liberals out of eighteen.

Including Duncan Ross, who was elected in 1908, there are eight Liberals.

A. E. Hacker of the Liberal Liberals refused to state whether the Liberals would put men in the field for the remaining three York constituencies.
