Carnegie Library for Lindsay THE GREAT PHILANTHROPIST CREATES $10,000. Letter to that Effect Received from his Secretary.

Mr. E. A. Hardy, Secretary of the Public Library Board, had not been feeling well for a few days but last Saturday he received a letter that made him feel like a new man. It was from Mr. Jas. Bertram, New York, private secretary to Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and conveyed the pleasing intelligence that the great philanthropist had granted Lindsay $10,000 for a Public Library building on condition that a free site is granted and $1,000 a year provided for maintenance. How now, Peterboro?

THE NEW WARDEN. Members of the County Council Elected their Presiding Officer Tuesday.

The members of Victoria County Council assembled Tuesday at the Court House at 2 p. m., and their first business was the selection of a Warden. Mr. John Austin, who with Mr. Chas. Fairbairn represents No. 4 Division (Somerville and Verulam) was proposed by Dr. Wood, seconded by Mr. Alex. McGee, also Mr. Geo. Johnston, of No. 1 Division (Markington) was proposed to be a diligent scholar and patient teacher. As the weather was very inclement, and the roads blocked by the recent storm, a number of the friends returned to their homes at an early hour, but a goodly number remained and spent a sociable time together. The presents were numerous and exceptionally handsome. The happy couple left Thursday morning via the G.T.R., amidst showers of rice and the good wishes of all the community (to Toronto, Orangeville, Barrie and Markdale). They will also visit for a time with friends in Buffalo and New York, after which they will return to their home in Mariposa.

L. C. I. Notes. —The concert given by the 'Varsity Glee Club' last Thursday proved a great success. The Assembly Hall was packed and all listened eagerly to the well-rendered program. See report elsewhere. —The general meeting of the Literary Society was held last Friday, when the newly organized orchestra favored the students with several selections. Their musical director, C. D. McAlpine, deserves credit for the way in which the orchestra rendered the different selections, which were of the most difficult and high classical style. Besides this, Miss Emma Kennedy and Miss Alice Beall gave an instrumental duet. A vocal solo was given by H. Stevens, and a violin solo by Miss Edna Beal. These were all very highly appreciated and the pleasant evening was brought to a close by 'God Save the King.' Edith Workman, cor. sec.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS

Moose-Rodman. A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moose, Jr., 'Villa Dell,' Fingerboard, on Jan. 22nd, when their eldest daughter, Miss H. A., was united in marriage to William G. Rodman, of Fingerboard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Robeson, assisted by his colleague, Rev. A. R. Maunders, in the presence of over seventy-five relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride looked charming in a handsome gown of cream cashmere trimmed with applique silk and chiffon. Miss Vida Moose, sister of the bride, and Miss Gertrude Moose, cousin acted as bridesmaids and wore handsome gowns of white satin trimmed with lace insertion and silk ribbon. Mr. C. Rodman, brother of the groom, and Mr. A. Stacy, cousin, officiated as groomsmen. Mrs. G. W. Jones, of Newtonville, played the wedding march very gracefully. After the ceremony and usual congratulations the company repaired to the dining room, where an elaborate wedding dinner had been prepared. When ample justice had been done to the ample repast, a toast was proposed to the bride and groom by Dr. Hall, of Little Britain, which was very ably responded to by the groom. Another toast was proposed to the bridesmaids and groomsmen. This was responded to by the groomsmen. Mr. C. Rodman, brother of the groom, and Mr. A. Stacy, M.D., of Toronto. A third toast was proposed to the parents for their kindness to the friends assembled. It was ably responded to by Rev. J. E. Robeson and A. R. Maunders, of Little Britain, who spoke of the position the bride and groom had taken in connection with the church work, and especially with the Sunday School department, in which the bride had proved herself to be a diligent scholar and patient teacher. As the weather was very inclement, and the roads blocked by the recent storm, a number of the friends returned to their homes at an early hour, but a goodly number remained and spent a sociable time together. The presents were numerous and exceptionally handsome. The happy couple left Thursday morning via the G.T.R., amidst showers of rice and the good wishes of all the community (to Toronto, Orangeville, Barrie and Markdale). They will also visit for a time with friends in Buffalo and New York, after which they will return to their home in Mariposa.

MARIPOSA SABBATH SCHOOLS

The Annual Convention Held Last Monday—Interesting Discussions. The Mariposa township Sabbath School Association held their annual convention in the Methodist church, Little Britain, on Monday, Jan. 27th, 1902. The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. E. Robeson, after which the minutes of the previous convention were read and adopted. At three o'clock Rev. L. S. Hughson, Lindsay, gave a very interesting and practical address dealing with the subject, 'The value of a human soul, and the time when a child should be brought to Jesus Christ.' Those who listened to that address will not soon forget it. This address was followed by a 'Round Table Talk,' conducted by Mr. T. Yellowless, in which the whole assembly took a hearty interest and subjects were discussed very freely. The children from the day school had in the meantime gathered in the centre of the church, when Mr. Yellowless gave a very interesting address on 'The voyage of Life,' representing to the friends the different signals that are used by the seaman. The collection was then taken and the afternoon session was brought to a close by singing. The friends from a distance were billeted at different homes for their tea. All report having been used well. The evening session opened with the usual devotional exercises led by Mr. A. R. Maunders, after which Mr. S. N. Rutman, of Little Britain, gave an address upon the subject, 'International Lesson Surroundings,' which was very instructive. This was followed by the reading of the report of the business committee by Mr. Wm. Suggert, of Valencia, when the following officers were again appointed: President, Mr. R. Corbett, Valencia; 1st Vice-Pres., Mr. Isaac McKee, Little Britain; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mr. Carl, Manilla. A vote of thanks was then tendered to all the friends. Next followed an address by Mr. T. Yellowless of Toronto, upon the subject, 'The Responsibilities of Parents and Teachers.' This address was one of the finest parts of the convention, for the speaker spoke from years of experience and a heart burning with love for God and a desire to save souls. Mr. Wm. Yeo sang a solo very nicely, entitled 'Crown Him Lord of All.' Miss Edna Greway, also rendered a solo, 'One Swoody Solemn Thought.' The convention was then brought to a close. The Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs announces regretfully that he is forced to admit that the Dutch Red Cross members, who are now prisoners in Leyden, were guilty of carrying Bep letters. They were in luck to escape being shot.
