A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday morning, Dec. 24th, at 7 a.m., when MissMinnie Taylor, daughter of Mr. Alfred Taylot, clerk of Bexley township, was united in marriage to Mr. Alberti Magwood, son of Mr. Henry Magwood, of this place. Miss B. Magwood assisted the bride, and Mr. H. Lacy supported the groom through the ordeal. The harpy couple left on the morning train for a short honey. moon 'rir to Toronto and Detroit. The presents were handsome and numerous, which is an indication of the copularity of the bride. The Post joins with their many friends in wishing them a harpy and prosperous New Year.

Spent a Sad Christmas. The many friends of Mrs. J. M.

Squier, town, will sympathize with ber owing to the sad bereavement she was called upon to endure last week. On Dec. 20th she received a message from Wellington, Prince Edward Co., the former bome of the family, informing her of the serious illness of her father, Mr. C. Clapp, who had been stricken with paraly. sis affecting the brain. Mr. and Mrs. Sogier left for Wellington on the first train. They found Mr. Clapp in a partly unconscious condition, and the sufferer passed away on the 22nd. Mr. Chas. Squier left town Tuesday to attend the funeral, and returned with his parents Saturday night Mr. Clapp was 84 years of age, and had always enjoyed good health. He was well-to-do and leaves considerable property.
