Monday, Jan. 5th, 1903, was a great day for the workingmen of Lindsay and the Socialistic element of our population, and they have full warrant for the satisfaction that is to-day animating their ranks and permeating their conversation.

Why shouldn't they exult? Have they over his opponent, Mr. Geo. Ingle, came as a surprise to many, but the result was not unexpected by the keen judges of such contests. Mr. Ingle's defeat was not due to any loss of popularity, but mainly to the fact that he was offering for a third turn in the face of a somewhat unreasonable yet deep-rooted antipathy being permitted to complete the charm associated with the mystic number three.

In addition to this feeling the workingmen who felt well disposed towards him, and had supported him in pact years, had been well drilled as to the im portance of keeping their votes in act in order to make a proper show of strength. In order to do so they felt Mr. Sootheran. It is generally believed that the retirement of Mr. Smyth at the last moment was also a favoring circumstance for Mr. Sootheran. Still, after taking everything into account, Mr lngle's friends feel that Mr. Sootheran's majority would have been cut to a small figure but for the fact that their candidate was ill and unable to leave his bed to look after the vote. His absence from the polls was misunderstood by many not aware of his indisposition, and the unfortunate result was accentuated by the mis-directed zeal of Mr. Chalmers, who with a supreme dis-out instructions to that effect, undertook to canvass for Mr. Ingle. The effect was CARD OF THANKS.

Ladies and Gentlemen,-Please ac. thanking you-especially the ladies-

Mr. Sootheran, the new Mayor, is to be applauded for the persistence he has Flavelle shown in his determination to serve the Staples public. He has submitted to rebuffe which would have discouraged any ordin ary man, only to bob up again, smiling and debonair, and fully resolved to apply his added experience of the vagaries of the public mird in the way best calculated to make his next attempt more successful. His course represented pluck, commanded admiration, and invited support. A good organizer, he promptly realized the advantages likely to secrue from identification with the labor vote. He secured entry into the Union, and although his most ardent supporter would feel at a loss if asked to state wherein his interests run parallel with those of the working class, especially in these prosperous times, he managed to maintain his foothold and defeat several attemp s to oust him from his position as the Union's nominee for the Mayoralty. These things testify to Mr. Sootheran's steadfastress of purpose. In other ways he managed also to rally the faithful about him, and reconcile conflicting forces, winning support not hitherto at his

The Post has on more than one occasion in the past felt it incumbent to oppose Mr. Sootherans candidature, for what at the time appeared to be good and sufficient reasons. We took no stand in the contest just past, from a desire to allow the Labor Union a fair chance lature of the Pr vince of Ontario, for an to elect their ticket without the introduc-Act to incorporate them under the name of tion of side issues More-we w. lcomed the possibility of a new and active element being projected into municipal affairs, South Ward, No. 1 ... 167 which stand sadly in need of a filip of some kind, and we fancy a great many South Ward, No. 8... 105 148 ratepayers entertained similar feelings This being the case, Mr. Sootheran and his colleagues may rest assured of The Post's hearty support of all progres-ive measures advocated by them. There is much that may be done, and the opportunity is a grand one for men who can approach the town's business in an unprejudiced frame of mind.

The Aldermanic Contest. In the lection of Massrs. McWatters, Cinnamon, O'Rielly, Mannder, Robinson, Storer and McCrea, our citizens selected excellent material from the list submitted. Ald. O'Rielly may feel justly groud of being the only member of last year's Council deemed worthy of re-election. Notwithstanding various adverse in- M'Huth fluences he received the third highest number of votes, and only 27 less Ross than last year. He is a good man, North Ward-

Epworth League Convention Next Menday and Tuesday

The Epworth League Convention of Lindsay District will be held this year in Cambridge_st. Methodist church. It promises to be one of the greatest conventions ever held in this town. It will be primarily a missionary convention, and the League have been very fortunate in securing such eminent men as Rev. Mr. McDougali, missionary in the North-West; Dr. Sterhenson, of Toronto, leader of the Forward movement; and last but not least, the Rev. Mr. Hiraiwa, President of the Japan Conference. Every church in the Lindsay District is invited to send as many delegates as lossible. An energetic billeting committee has been formed to provide homes for the delegates. Those who purpose coming will oblige this committee by sending their names to Miss Maggie Mitchell, secretary of the billeting commit-
