WEDDED AT FENELON FALLS.

Nuptials of Mr. Franklin C. Mare and Miss Violat Wilson,

Probably the prettiest wedding that has taken place in Fencion Falls for many a day was celebrated at the residence of Dr. Wilson vesterday nitermoon at 1.30 o'clock, when Miss Mr. Franklin C. EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

THE WINTER SCHOOL, SESSIONS OPENED SUNDAY.

Helpful Talks on Foreign Mission Work by Dr. and Mrs. Stephenson.

The Lineary Epworth League Convention and Winter School really began its session on Suveay. Dr. F. C. Stephenson and wife spoke each in the Cambridge-st. and Queen-st. Methodist churches. Dr. and Mrs. Sternenson took medical courses in view of Foreign Mission work. He and his devoted wife offered themselves to the General Board for any foreign field to which the church might see fit to send them. But in the meantime what is now known as the Young People's Forward Move ment for Missions began to take shape in his mind. He has become the real leader and animating spirit of the movement, and thus far the Mission board has not seen its way clear to spare him from this work. They still live in hope, however, of going to the foreign field.

Mrs. Stephenson spoke in the Cambridge-st. church at the morning service. In a modest but most effective way she addressed a large and appreciative congregation upon the following phases of the missionary problem . 1st .- The Aim of Missions : To evangelize the race, to chey the Saviour's command and preach the gospel to every creature. 2nd -The Need of the Field: The darkness and wretchedness of the heathen world was emphasized, together with the | ter of 1st Chronicles, and gave a very fact that though 1900 years have cas ed, two-thirds of the race are his remarks Mr. Brown said that yet without the gospel. 3rd. - The Resource of the Church; God in His providence seems to have put into her hands everything needed for the speedy accomplishment of the workfacilities of travel, education, resources of brain, weaith, divine gower, which may become the realization of the church through grayer. 4th. -The Work being Accomplished: Dwelling upon results commercial, educational, as well as moral and spiritual. Several most pertinent illustrations given. 5th. - Personal Responsibility; God nas entrusted each saved man with this ministry of reconcilliation, and he who said, "Come unto Me," now says, "Go ye into all the world."

In the evening Dr. F. C. Stephenson occurred the pulpit and spoke from the text, "Seekest thou great things for thyself? Seek them not. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God." The present situation in the Methodist we are not foll wing the teaching of the Word. Our wn things receive careful attention, waile the great needs of our mission fields are not carefully considered. At the present time the Methodist chu ch needs thirty-five men for the North-west. In China we have a constituency of 10,000,000 peop'e left to the Methodist church of Canada to evangelize, and we have only six men in that field. These six are rleading for help. Ali classes in China are seeking the light; it is only a matter of sending sufficient work-Jaran is making rapid progress, but needs much more help. Our missionaries are overworked, and are not able to teach the enquirers and train belr. How can a change be effected? Only by christian business and professional men giving their best thought to this question. Giving money is not enough - a careful, prayerful study of the whole question is necessary. Our quarterly boards and all the courts of our church should make missions the chief aim in all their plans. It does 740 reople, while there is only one missionary to evangelize 200,000 beathen, and only one medical missionary to 2,500,000 neathen, while in christian lands doctors are plentiful. The question of world-wide evangelization needs the unselfish, carnest attention of our best thinkers and best medical men. When they meet and consider the missionary problems, giving the same time and study to them that is now given to commercial, insurance and educational enterprises, then we may expect changes in the mission field and then we may expect revivals at

MONDAY'S SESSION.

Addresses by Dr. Stephenson, Rev Mr. Steinhauer, B A., and Mr. Hiraiwa, of Japan.

The convention was orened at 10.30 a.m. Monday, Rev. G. W. Henderson conducting Mr. Henderson gave out as opening hymn, "Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove," which be wished to be the grayer of every delegate. After this grayer was made for the success of the Convention and inspiring of every heart. A nominating committee was formed, comprising the Revs. Brown, Henderson, Strike, Garbutt and Miss B. Bowes. After another bymn had been sang the Rev. Mr. Brown procounced the benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION. At 2 o'clock the session assembled, the Rev. John Garbatt presiding. The meeting was opened by singing the well-known hymn, "All the Way my Saviorr Leads Me." After this a number of delegates led in sentence grayers. After singing another lymin Mr. Garbutt referred to the small attendance as due to the heavy snow storm, which kept many who were to drive at home. In the course of his address Mr. Garbutt emphasized the great importance of keeping to the front in our Epworth Leagues the Christian Endeavor and the Missionary department, and sugwork of the convention may be front seats. Methods of Pushing the Forward Movements; Miss B. Bowes, of Cambridge-st., gave a brief account of the method used in her society. The pastor gave a lecture on the Forward Movement, and also Forward Movement envelopes were secured, people were canvassed, and contributed as they were able. Every week the members who contributed weekly gave in their collection. Some gave monthly, and collectors were appointed to call on them. Torming New Leagues: Rev. G. W. Henderson thought that on the carcuits where there were no societies leagues ought to be formed. The Rev. Mr. Strike said he had some experionce in rural leagues and thought it was impossible to form a society in some rural churches, as there was not enough talent. The Pev. Mr. Bateson, of Bobcaygeon, said he had three leagues on his circuit of seven appointments, and found that a temperance society was helpful.

The Chairman of the District, the Rev. Geo. Brown, of Omemee, next took charge of the 'Consecration Meeting." After singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," the Revs. Bateson and Leigh led in prayer. The beautiful consecration hymn, "Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Tace," was sung. Mr. Brown then read the 29th chapforceful exposition. In the course of what the church wants to-day is a Pentecostal Baptism of the Holy Spirit. It was this power that made our early Methodist preachers so successful. After Mr. Brown's address he led a testimony meeting. The testimonies were brief, but they breathed the spirit of true consecration. At the close of this meeting Mrs. (Rev.) Strike seng a solo, the congregation joining in the chorus. Mis: B. Bowes then read a paper on "The Doties of the Lookout Committee," which was very practical. Rev. Mr. Rowland gave an address on "The Temperance Movement." The Rev. Mr Maunder gave the next address entitled "The Pledge." The address's were eloquent forceful, helpful and inspiring, and were much appreciated. The congregation then sang, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," after which Dr. Stephenson addressed . meeting. In the course of his avdress the Dr. referred to the fact of his receiving over 1000 letters from Leaguers. Over 70 per cent. of these were from young people asking how to do things. This he traced back to the lack of the feeling of responsibility. He said further, it was the duty of the league to develop making them realize that they can do semething. A discussion followed the address, and Dr. Stephenson told Rev. Mr. Emberson, who is the missionary in Japan whom the Lindsay District helps support, is in much need of a parsonage where he is sta-Japan some time ago he bought a lot in this place. After a brief address by the chairman Miss Bowes read a letter of greeting from our missionary in Japan, Rev. R. Emberson, which preved very interesting. Dr. Stephenson then addressed the meeting. He spoke of the fact that there are yet 800,000,000 of reopie to whom the gospel has not been sent. In Canada alone there are 14,000 or 15,000 pagan-Indians, which are divided between the various churches. The Doctor said he wanted to impress one thing on their minds, and that was: There were no little things. He further related the start of the Forward Movement. As he compared his companions to himself he found that, although they were as religious as himself, yet they gave nothing to missions. He started among his friends on the Cobourg District. He went from League to League and organized classes on the plan, "Pray, Study, Give." Many thought that this would decrease the givings to the General Board. This proved untrue. Then he thought that if they could organize a number of students to canvass every League on this plan it would mean that the young reople themselves could support a number of missionaries. Now 35 missionaries are supported by 54 districts. After Dr. Stechenson, the Rev. Mr. ing. On his introduction he said that he was the son of the Rev. Mr.

CALL TO REV. MACMILLAN

LINDSAY PRESBYTERY CONSENTS TO HIS TRANSLATION TO ST. AN-DREW'S WINNIPEC.

Members of the Congregation and Visit ing Ministers Express their Sorrow at the Approaching Severance of Pleasant Relations

A special meeting of Lindsay Prestyrery was held in St. Andrew's courch, Lindsay, on Tuesday last, to dispose of a call from St. Andrew's church, Winnipeg, to Rev. J. W. Macmillan, minister of St. Andrew's eburch, Lindsay. The following members of Presbytery were present; Rev. Mr. Sinclair, of Fenelon Falls, (Moderator of Presbyters). Rev. Mr. Best, of St. Audrew's, Benverton; Rev. Wishart, of Knox a. urch, Beaverton; Rev. Martin, of Cannington; Pev. Cameron, of Wick; Rev. A. U. Campbell, of Quaker Hall; Rev. Fraser, of Uxbridge; Rev. Sinclair, of Conya; and Rev. Smith, of Boben ygeon.

Proceedings Opened.

At 2 o'clock r.m. the Presbytery convened, when a large number of toe members and adherents of St Andrew's were present, being interested in the proceedings After devotional exercises the Mcderator announced tant the Presbytery, as now constituted, was ready for business, whereupon the Clerk, Rev. Best, of Beaverton, read the call from St Andrew's church, Winnigeg, to Rev J. W. Macmillan. It was expected that the Revs. Dr. Warden, E. D. McLaren and J. A. McDonald, of Toronto, would be present to presecute the call in behalf of St. Andrew's, Winnipeg, but owing to press of other matters they did not appear, believing that their presence was not absolutely necessary, as Mr. Macmillan some weeks ago very manfully anpounced to his congregation that he was about to receive this call, and he | the Liouor License Act. He thought felt it to be his duty to accept, if approved of by Presbytery.

In the course of the proceedings a letter was read from Dr. Warden. Toronto, in which he set forth strong reasons why the translation sould take place. Following this the delegation from St. Andrew's church, Lindsay, read the following resolution, which had the unanimous roice of the congregational meeting; Expression of Congregation.

That we, of the congregation of St Andrew's Presbyterian church Lindmay, desire to place on record at this time our affection for and confidence in our pasto,r the Rev. J. W. Macmillan, B. A., and our deep appreciation of his work in our midst. Our pastor holds in the highest degree the esteem and love of this entire congregation. As time has gone on and we bave known him better, we have learned but to esteem him the more. Mr. Macmillan came to us a very young man, and he is still a young man. He came to us a strong man in every sense of the word, and during tioned. When Dr. Sutherland was in the seven years of his pastorate here he has developed strength in every branch of his work. We believe he has grown to be one of the foremost divines of the day in the church in Canada. Mr. Macmillan has been ever attentive and faithful to the sick and tion by Mrs. A. O'Loughlin; a song to those burdened with sorrow. It was with feelings of the deepest regret that we heard Mr. Macmillan accept the call from St. Andrew's church, Winnipeg. Our earnest prayers shall go out that the church shall more and more prosper under his efforts, and that he may have continued and abundant blessings in the great work to which he has consecrated his eminent gifts and ability, the great- told why. est work to which any man could give up the work of his life.

We rejoice that Mr. Macmillan has been among us and we are thankful for the high privilege which we have enjoyed in being permitted to retain bim as our paster for so long a time notwithstanding the numerous elforts that have been made to call him | sion. egrlier elsewhere.

Addresses by Members.

After the reading of this resolution the members of the delegation each briefly addressed the Presbytery. Mr. Sheriff McLennan, who spoke very feelingly, expressed the hope that Mr. Macmillan might see his way clear to remain in Lindsay a few years longer, but he would not like to be selfish and would not put a single obstacle in Mr. Macmillan's was towards promotion, knowing that he was a man of great ability and lower as a preacher and could command the very best position the Church had to offer. The other speakers, namely, A. M. Paton, J. P. Donald, Jas. Low, J. C. Harstone Thos. Stewart and J. R. MoNeillie followed in the same line of thought While they regretted very much parting with Mr. Macmillan, yet they felt that the future of the great West depended largely upon the ability and power of the men who weat in as moral and spiritual leaders of the reople. Knowing that Mr. Macmillan was eminently qualified to meet all the demands that would be made upon him they would cheerfully submit to the inevitable. An excellent spirit was manifest through- | ment. out the whole of the proceedings. The Call Recognized.

The call was then, by the Clerk of Presbytery, placed in Mr. Macmil-ian's bands, who in a few well chosen words spoke of the kindness he had always received from his congregation. He had hoped at one time that be might be able to round off the ten years with them as their pastor. but he could not control opportunities and would accept this call subsome lectures at Victoria Univers- ject to the approval of Presbytery.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Cameron, of Wick, and seconded by Rev. A. W. Campbell, of Quaker Hill, the transiation was agreed to. In speaking to the motion Mr. Cameron regretted very much the loss they, as a Presbytery, would sustain in parting with Mr. Macwillan. Personally he felt stronger ween Mr. Macmillag was with them to deliberate upon the many-sided and difficult questions that came before them as a Presbytery. The seconder, Rev. Mc. Campbell, spoke in similar terms and regretted very much parting with Mr. Maomillan as a co-worker in the Presbytery. Rev. Macmillan's Departure. 'Arrangements were made for the release of Mr. Magmillan from his present charge. Rev. Best was appointed interim Moderator of St. Andrew's congregation, Lindsay. Rev. Mr. Macmillan will remain with his congregation until after the anniversary services to be held on the first Sabbath of February. He will conduct his farewell ervices on the 8th of February. -On the 9th inst. Hector Campbell, o! Kirkfield, appeared before Col. Deacon, County Magistrate, charged with having sold liquor on Sunday, 14th Dec. Found guilty-fine and costs. $27.30.

- The case against Mr. Wardrobe, of the Benson house, for having sold Albert Dufty, J. Williamson and P. Welsh liquor on Sunday, Nov. 9th, 1902, was finally disposed of on Satorday last, after several adjournments had been made owing to the severe illness of the defendant. The charge was for selling liquor on Nov. 16th, but it was clearly proven that it had been sold on the previous Eunday, Nov. 9th. His Worship said that it was not the first offence lodged against Mr. Wardrobe, and although he did not blame him personally, still he had men in his employ selling liquor after hours and on Sunday was being conducted in a systematic way by the barkeeper. If some of the hotelkeepers of Lindsay can afford to sell and viclate the act, then they can afford to pay heavy fines. He was determined to put a stop to selling on Sundays, and would impose the heaviest fine against Mr. Wardrobe. His Worship further said that in future, in the case of any botelkeeper who had broken the law, he would not only impose a heavy fine but would apply to the Provincial Secretary to have that hotelkeeper's license cancelled for the next year. Mr. Wardrobe was fined $80 and costs, amounting to $118 in all. Mr. Hugh O'Leary. K.C., appeared on behalf of Mr. Wardrobe, and Mr. A. P. Deviin was present in the interests of the Crown.
