An East Ward Blaze

The dwelling of Mr. Andy Goheen, Queen-st., east ward, was gutted by fire about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The alarm was sent in from box No. 5 by Mr. McGillivray, but by the time the brigade arrived the interior of the house had been badly damaged. The fire was noticed first by Mr. Wm. McCallum, of Salem, Ore, who was driving into town. He quickly notified Mr. Goheen, who was in the stable at the time. We understand Mr. Goneen's loss will be roneiderable, as he was able to save very little furniture, and the insurance is small.

Williams, of Lindsay, succumbed to the ravages of his ailment, peritonitie, i narite of all that medical aid could do, Friday morning, Jan. 9th. Being a young man, barely twenty-six years of age, and who all his life had taken an active part in athletics, his death will naturally come as a shock to our readers. The funeral took place on Sunday, the 11th, and the edifice was so crowded that many were anable to gain admittance. The funeral sermon was preached in the Episcopal church, and the remains were interred in the English church cemetery.

> Death of a Popular Lindsay Lady. The somewhat sudden demise of Miss Woolhouse has caused unusual sorrow in Lindsay and vicinity. The deceased lady was in good health until about six weeks ago, when she was taken to the Ros. Memoral Hospital for treatment for some inward trouble. Despite the best medical treatment she stowly sank until relieved by death. The deceased, together with her parents, a brother and two sisters, came to Lindsay in 1875, and with the exception of three years spent in Manitoba, she had been a resident of Lindsay ever since. For a number of years Miss Woolhouse was in the employ of Mesers, Dundas & Flavelle Bros., where she made many friends by her kind and pleasant disposition. Mrs. Mark. of Kinmount, and Mrs. Fitzeimmone, of Toronto, sisters, are the only surviving drove out to Janetville Friday evmembers of the family, and they have the sympathy of our citizens in their sad beresvement. Died in Winnipeg Hospital.

Our citizens will regret to hear the death of Mr. Victor Moore, son of Mr. Alex. Moore, of the east ward. The sad event took place yesterday | ening. at the Winnipeg General Hospital, after a few days' illness with scarlet fever. The first intimation the parents received of their son's state was yesterday morning about ten o'clock, when a telegram came announcing Victor's serious illness About three hours later another messagge was received, stating that he had passed away. Victor was home for Christmas, and only returned to Winnipeg a couple of weeks ago. He was a tall, goodlooking, robust young man, and was the very picture of health. When returning to the West he mentioned to a friend at the station that he never felt as well in his life and that his visit had done him alt of good. Deceased was a graduate of The Post, and was believed to be one of the fastest machine operators in Canada. Before going to Winnipeg he was on the staff of the Woodstock Times for a courle of years, and by his pleasant and genial disposition he made many friends in that city. He resigned his position on The Times in order to accept a more lucrative one on the Winnigeg Telegram. He was about twenty-one years of age, and being a very bright and clever young man he had a very tromising future. The remains left Winnipeg to-day m charge of a member of the Typographical Union, and will arrive in Lindsay about Thursday. The sympathy of our citizens will go out to Mr. and Mrs. Moore and family in their very sudden and sad bereavement.

He was engaged in skidding logs, and by some means one rolled over on him. jamming his leg against a stump and fracturing and bruising the limb. The unfortunate man was brought to Lindsay on Thursday for treatment at the Ross Memorial Hospital. After examining the limb the attending physician, Dr. McA'p'ne, held a consultation with several of the other town physicians, and they decided that in order to save the patient's life amputation was necessary. Branching Out in Business.

Messrs. Hogg & Lytle, the wellknown grain merchants, have purchased a business in Port Hope. The Guide says; A. C. Our Hotel men and Busses. In yesterday's issue, in an item referring to Mr. Pym's new bus, we stated that Mosers. Wardrobe, Sampson and Pym had agreed to charge person's riding to and from the station in their busses a small fee. This action, we are informed, had been agreed upon because many persons who were not patrons or guests of the hotels were making it a custom to crowd into the busses and occasionally compel hotel guests to walk or hire passage in a back. However, while the action mentioned has been discresed and may yet be carried into effect, orders to that effect have no' yet been issued, and guests and patrone of the hotels mentioned will be carried free, as heretofore.

Runaway at the Station.

God Save the King

A little excitement was caused at the G.T.R. station this morning about 11 o'clock. Mrs. (Dr.) McAlpine and Miss Mamie McAlpine, accompanied by Miss H. Harding, were at the station seeing a couple of the University boys off, when, alarmed by the sud. den tooting of the whistle of a locomotive, their horse took fright and made a dash for liberty. The three ladies were in the vehicle at the time and were thrown out by the upsetting of the cutter, Mrs. McAlgine being dragged on the ground for on William-st. at a lively gait but was stopped opposite the Bank of Montreal. Fortunately the ladies escaped injury, but the cutter was badly wrecked.

At half time the score stood 4 to 1 in favor of Peterbero, but the staying powers of the Port Hopers was too much for the Otonabee boys to overcome, and as a result they were only able to tally one in the last balf. while their opponents scored 5 goals.
