It is our said duty to record, the death of Mr. D. Campbell, grain buy. er, which occurred on Tuesday of last week. The deceased had not been in robust health for some years, but had always been able to attend to bis daties. About two weeks ago he contracted a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia. The best medical skill wes procured, but all to no avail. A wife and six children are left to mourn the less of a loving husband and father. Mr Campbell was highly esteemed by all in this neighborhood. A beautiful pillow of white lillies and reses which covered the casket was a tribute from the Forceters' Lodge and citizens, who deeply regret his early death. The loneral was largely attended.
