WEEKLY POST, LINDSAY, FPIDAY, JANUARY 8, OF ICE WERE FIVE SHEETS CONSTANT USE.

Many Spectators at the Rink-The Scores of the Games. Yesterday was one of the best New Year's days that the Lindsay Curling Club have had. Five sheets of ice were kept going and hundreds of spectators visited the rink during the day and watched the games. N. F. A. MoSweyn added another scalp to his belt, having taken Mr. tle Liver Pills. Harstone's rink into camp to the tune of seven shots. This makes his sixth consecutive win. As the result of the day's play the President's side takes the lead in the President-Vice-President games, but only by the small margin of one shot. Fully onethird of the games in the series have been played. Scores of yesterday's games:

"SWEET CLOVER" AT ACADEMY Fine Comedy Drama Presented by

Clever Company. "Sweat Clover," a well constructed comedy drama with a taking name, was the attraction at the Academy of Music last Wednesday evening. The audience was fairly large, but if our citizens had known the facts concerning the high merits of the play and the capable company presenting it the expacity of the theatre would have been taxed. "Sweet Clover," is a four act comedy drama. of the heart-stirring type, with just sufficient of the comic element introduced here and there to relieve the strain. The incidents centre mainly about the home of Jerome Halcombe, a quaint old Connecticut farmer, with a big heart filled with affection for his only daughter, Lois, who had been kept in ignorance of the fact that her mother had eloped with a city artist named Slade a few years after the birth of her babe. Unknown to her father or aunt Abigail Holcombe she meets and falls in love with a young artist named Slade (who turns out to be her half-brothor) just at the time when Eldridge Grosvenor, a young business man from the city, and a friend of the family, wins the father's permission to propose marriage to Lois.
