For many years Mr. R. Beyans, one of our best known and most popular citizens, has devoted his energy and taleuts to the building ap of a large business in the coal and wood line, and the last step in its developenient was taken last fall, when he opened a down-town office near the post office-a step that earned pation, diarrhosa, simple fevers and the hearty apprecation of customers and led to the booking of many raw orners. As a result of negotiations entered into about the begindealer, or they will be sent by mail hing of the year, the business of R. Bryans & Co. has just been taken over by Mr. A. A. Kennedy, well and favorably known in town and couase try owing to his thirteen years' connection with the Kennedy & Davis Co. Five years of the period mentioned were spent by Mr. Kencharge of the company's lumber and cate their Canadian workshops in St.

Mr Kennedy assumed control of the R. Bryans & Co. business Monday morning, and as he is fortunate in possessing the good will of almost exery citizen, and is chock full of energy and vim, we predict that he will score a success in dealing with the public on his own behalf.

On S-turda evening last, when ha severed his long connection with the Kennedy & Davis firm, Mr. Kennedy was waited on by his fellow employcos, wito wished him every success in his new venture and presented Lim with a handsome lounge for the Mecoration of his business office on Kent-st. Several of the men reterred briefly to Mr. Kernedy's long connection with the firm and the asteem entertained for him by every member of the staff, and in his reply Mr. Kennedy bore testimony to the farthfulness and loyalty of his late fellow amployees, adding that in & Davis' Co.
