NEWS NOTES FROM NEAR- AND-FAR PLACES.

NESTLETON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. James Malcolm had the misfortune to have a fine pig pen and house burnt on Friday night last. The fire is supposed to have started from a feed boiler. The buildings were insured.

Old Santa Claus has made his rounds and put a pleasant smile on everybody's face.

Mr. Walter Veal, of Toronto, spent Christmas under the parental roof. Mr. and Mrs. E. Veal spent the holiday visiting friends at Bethany.

Mr. Louis Mason and sister of Toronto, are visiting friends here.

Mr. Wesley Campbell and wife spent Christmas in Port Perry.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

(Special to The Post.)
Death has again visited our midst and carried away an old and most respected resident in the person of Mrs. Julia Oliver, the wife of the late Henry James Oliver. Mrs. Oliver was born in Devonshire, England, near Tavistock in the year 1818, and in her 87th year of age. Her maiden name was Julia Hockaday and in her 24th year she was married to Henry James Oliver. They made their wedding tour to this country in the year 1838 and settled down in the Township of Burlington, near Bowmanville, where they lived some 35 years. They then moved to Markham to a farm owned by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dix, remaining there till 1868 and then by hard toil and good management they were enabled to purchase the farm, lot 10, con. 5, in the Township of Mariposa. Two miles west of Little Britain, where she lived until Dec. 21st, when death called her to a brighter world. She is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters: Mr. Henry J. Oliver, Toronto; Mrs. Wm. Woodridge Oakwood; Mrs. Richard Frouse, Gunnington; Mr. Robert Oliver, Apsamed, Saskatchewan; and Wm. J. Oliver, who resided with his mother. She survived her husband 27 years and was a loving mother, a good neighbor and highly respected by all who knew her. The funeral took place on the 23rd to Salem cemetery and was followed by a host of sorrowing friends.

KIRKFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. S. Bruce has returned home after spending Christmas holidays in Bradford.

Among the students who are spending their holidays here are N. McMillan, M. Trueman, M. Myles, C. Mitchell, J. Mosgrove, C. Merry, W. D. Mackenzie and Miss Ethel Mitchell.

Miss May Mackenzie, of Toronto, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. F. N. Rutherford, C.E., of Niagara Falls, spent a few days last week visiting friends here.

Mr. Arthur A. Sangster, of Goderich, spent Christmas holidays with his family here.

We are glad to be able to state that Mr. Jas. Laidlaw is recovering from his recent accident and his many friends were glad to see him down town again.

Mrs. Robt. Campbell, of Minnetonka, a former resident of this place, is returning old acquaintances and is intending spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Laidlaw, of the "Fort," Eglar Lake.

The hall was crowded to the doors with a very enthusiastic audience, who seemed to enjoy the program. The choruses and drills were well rendered and the little children looked well in their character costumes. Much credit is due Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McGrover, Mrs. Lynn Mackenzie and Miss E. Fraser for the success of the entertainment.

JURY'S GREEN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Southam was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27th, at 5 o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Letitia M. Southam, was united in marriage with William J. Flett, of North Antrim.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Coone, of Bobcaygeon, in the presence of a number of relatives. The bride party consisted of the bride, her bridesmaid, Miss M. Martin, of Bobcaygeon. The parlor was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among them being a handsome gold watch, a pair of diamonds, and a pair of pearls. All wish them every success and happiness.

JEMEE.

(Special to The Post.)
Miss Ida Scott, teacher of Glandine, spent the Christmas holidays under the parental roof.

School re-opens on Wednesday, with the same teachers, in both High and Public schools. That is a step in the right direction.

Miss Hattie Courtney, of Millbrook, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Courtney, King-st.

We noticed an item from our Omece correspondent of last week, concerning the L.O.L. concert on Christmas night, stating that it was not up to the expectations. Well, some people do expect a great deal for a quarter. The concert was one of the best.

The instrumentalists played by Mr. Harding was of an elevating character, also Miss Stone's solos are worthy of notice and we all heartily congratulate her on her success. The more jokes. The concert was a rare treat. That correspondent must be a bachelor, as they are hard to please.

Mr. Walter Elliott, of the Toronto Normal School, spent the Christmas vacation with his numerous friends of our village.

Mr. Harvey, our worthy High School teacher, spent the Christmas holidays with friends in Toronto.

The many friends of Mr. Johnnie Mitchell was pleased to see his smiling countenance in mid-winter, after an extended sojourn in the western provinces.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eaton, of Toronto, are at present the guest of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lytle, accompanied by Mrs. Robt. Lytle, of Manitoba, are visiting friends in the village.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Connel, will be pleased to learn that he has about recovered from an attack of appendicitis.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
On account of the stormy weather a number from here did not attend the New Year's tea and lecture at Little Britain on Monday night.

a large congregation here Sunday evening. Mr. John McLaren spent Sunday and Monday at Cannington. Mr. John Woolcott has erected a new woodshed.

FRANKLIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Hanna, of Peterboro, occupied the pulpit here on Sunday last, in the absence of Mr. Roland, who was visiting his friends.

Mr. J. Herbert, of Weyvale, and sister, Edythe, have been spending a few days with their friends here.

Mr. H. F. Veal spent his Christmas vacation under the parental roof. Mrs. J. Gardner, of this place, entertained a few young people Thursday last. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. T. Fallis and wife, of London, visited his parents and friends of this place last week.

A number of our young people attended the concert at Bethany on Friday last, and also the one held at Omece on Monday evening.

NESTLETON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. J. Watcher, of Sault Ste Marie, is visiting friends here.

Mr. R. Sugitt has been visiting friends at Toronto and Niagara Falls during the past few days.

Mr. David Malcolm and wife made a flying trip to Lindsay last week. Miss Eunice Porteous has been visiting friends in Toronto recently.

Miss L. Syle made Lindsay, friends a visit recently.

Miss Maggie Mason, of Port Perry, is visiting friends here.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. Heron Casseares recently, when a party of young people gathered there for the purpose of making merry. Everything went well until a couple of young gentlemen got into trouble over a lady and, as would be expected, had quite a lively time. The horns are thumping of going on to the stage as prize fighters.

The basket social on Thursday last at Casseares in connection with the Methodist church was quite a success. The baskets sold well and the programme was all that could be wished for.

We understand that Miss Thomas has been secured as teacher for Casseares school for the coming year. She comes highly recommended.

MANILLA.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Frank Coone is visiting his mother, Mrs. Geo. Coone, of Park, Blackwell Co., spent a day last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mallett.

Mr. Ernie Edwards, of Lindsay, spent New Year's with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asaph Edwards.

Miss Mollie spent New Year's in Whitby with her brother, Judge McIntyre.

Mr. W. Harper has returned to town again, after spending the summer around the Soo and Port Arthur.

Mrs. Geo. Coone gave a party in honor of her son Otto on New Year's evening.

Miss Woodley, of Lindsay, was the guest of Mrs. John Coone for New Year's day.

VALENTIA.

(Special to The Post.)
Mr. Wm. Ray, of Davidson, Manitoba, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Metcalfe, our butcher, is doing a rushing business.

A number of our young people attended the Little Britain New Year's tea and lecture. They all appeared to enjoy the occasion. A very good way to spend the New Year's would be to visit our friends.

On Sunday last Rev. Dr. Henderson, of Port Hope, preached a very instructive and beneficial sermon, with the aid of an abundance of illustrations.

Our foreign missionaries had to contend with the form of superstition and the natural dread of foreigners, but a move towards civilization and opium shipped in by western civilization. Yet there is a bright side to this question. The doors are open and they are calling to us for help. Will we not respond.

WOODVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Miss Christy Ferguson, of Toronto, spent New Year's with her mother, Miss Florence Symons, of Lindsay.

Miss Hannah McArthur, left for Toronto Tuesday evening, where she takes up a position.

The skating rink is in full swing, with the band in attendance every evening.

Mr. C. E. Weeks and family spent the holiday in Toronto.

Miss Annie Giesbert, of Toronto, was home for New Year's.

Mr. Wm. McLaughlin was in the city on Monday.

Mr. Jack MacKay, who has been visiting here for the past two weeks, left for the West on Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Newman returned from visiting her parents in Kingston on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. (Rev.) Arkenhead, of Stouffville, conducts special services in the Methodist church next week. All are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Lizzie McCraig, of Toronto, New Year's with friends in Toronto.

Mr. McIntyre, of Toronto, who has been visiting under the parental roof, returned to the city, on Tuesday.

KING'S WHARF.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
We are very sorry to state that Mr. W. M. O'Neill is at present dangerously ill. Dr. McAlpine is now attending the sick man and reports the disease paralysis. Mr. O'Neill and family have the sympathy of the surrounding neighborhood.

Mr. John Perdue and several others have gone to the shanty.

Miss Delphina Piggott closed school on the 23rd after a term of three years' successful teaching.

The boys of King's Wharf are learning to whistle the tune of "The Road to Galloway," and are doing nicely.

CANNINGTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thom. Gigg, when their only daughter, Gertrude B. M. was united in marriage to Franklin R. Broad, Cannington. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. L. H. Nicholls, assisted by the Rev. C. H. Schutt, of Toronto.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss H. Pearn, of Cresswell, while Mr. F. Broad supported the groom. After the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Broad left on the evening train for Bowmanville, where they will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.

JEMEE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
New Year's passed off more lively than formerly, large numbers of visitors from Toronto, including Mr. J. C. Eaton, J. Eaton, A. McCrea, Mr. Smith and Mr. Potts, son of the Rev. Dr. Potts.

The elections for reeve and councillors was a keen and hotly contested one—Reeve, J. T. Beatty, defeated R. J. Mulligan, who was cold water of the drug man. Councillors—Evans, Carey, Rogers, Griffin, and the two defeated cold water men being Williamson and Bennett.

The concert New Year's night was largely attended. Bart Harvey never fails to cheer up the most melancholy, while the singing of Master thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Mowatt's instrumentalist and accompanist, has had few equals here. Mrs. White, of Peterboro, pleased very well the junior part of the audience.

There is considerable grain and produce coming in from the train for sale around the village. In former years the old year went out and the new one came in in much sadness.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Herb Routley and Mr. G. Routley, of Toronto, spent the festive season at the home of Mr. Wm. Houtley, of Lindsay.

GOUGH'S WAY

To our many friends throughout the Town and Country, we extend the compliments of the Merry Holiday Season.

Thanks with a big capital "T" is the way GOUGH spells his thanks to you for the generous patronage you have given this store during 1905.

"A HAPPY NEW YEAR"

To one and all is the wish with which we closed our store last Saturday night. We have passed through the most SUCCESSFUL YEAR of our history—the increase in sales being again a notable gain over last year and all previous years.

Welcome the New Year

We are preparing for a busy New Year. The aftermath of the Christmas and New Year's trade shows up many rare snags for those who failed to get the bargains before.

This is CLEANING TIME.
