

What is a Backache?

IT IS NATURE'S WARNING TO WOMEN Disease of Woman's Organism Cured and Consequent Pain Stopped by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"It seems as though my back would break." Women under these words over and over again, but continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, "bearing down" pains, nervousness and no ambition for any task.

They do not realize that the back is the mainspring of woman's organism, and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the womb or kidneys, and that the aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for twenty years has been the one and only effective remedy in such cases. It speedily cures all womb and kidney disorders and restores the female organs to a healthy condition.

Here is one cure among thousands:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I suffered a long time with ovarian trouble, having intense pains in the back and abdomen and very sick headaches every day. I was tired and nervous all the time and life looked very dreary to me and I had no desire to live until I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel some relief. My recovery was slow but I was sure, and I have never regretted the money spent for the Compound as it brought me back to good health.
It seems to be a medicine especially adapted to the life of our sex and I am glad to say a good word for it. Albert Mann, 24 Gore Vale Ave., Toronto, Ont.

No other person can give such helpful advice to women who are sick as can Mrs. Pinkham. Her address is

THE QUARREL BEGUN

French and German Delegates Combat in the Conference.

RACE DIFFERENCE MANIFEST

Continuous Skirmish Between M. Revill and Count Von Tattenbach Begins Fresh Controversies Between France and Germany—Morocco Conference Adopts Five Out of the 16 Articles of Contraband.

Algiers, Jan. 23.—The plenipotentiaries were entertained at yesterday's sittings of the Moroccan conference by an almost continuous skirmish between M. Revill, head of the French delegation, and Count Von Tattenbach, the second of the German delegates.
While the amenities were carefully observed, the other delegates were conscious that the day was the beginning of fresh controversies between France and Germany, which are likely to be long protracted and of increasing importance.

The styles of fence displayed by the two plenipotentiaries suggested their differences of race. M. Revill was keen, analytical of mind, skillful in diplomatic phrasing and with a grace of expression and a winning personality. Count Von Tattenbach was downright of speech and soldierly in manner, trusting to the solidity of his ideas and to his facts.

The two plenipotentiaries are not in sympathy, and draw apart outside the council room. Both are of high ambition, and it will be difficult for either to yield to the other.

The conference reassembled at the Town Hall. The presiding officer, the Duke of Almodovar, Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, read messages from the Spanish Senate and Chamber of Deputies, expressing hope for a successful issue of the conference. The Marquis Visconti Venosta, head of the Italian mission, replying in the name of the delegates, made a significant reference to the international character of the agreement to be concluded here.

This was interpreted as referring to the Franco-German difficulty over the question of the international control of Morocco.

The conference adopted five of the 16 articles contained in the report of the committee on contraband arms.
Discussion of the remaining articles then went over until Wednesday, today being reserved for the ceremonies attending the feast day of King Alfonso.

Spoke in Arabic.
The discussion brought out a lengthy discourse from Sid Mohammed El Mohidi, the second of the Moroccan delegates, concerning Morocco's general attitude towards the conference.
He spoke in Arabic, and the delegates decided to have a translation made of his remarks.

The draft of the report under discussion provides for the Moroccan delegates, concerning Morocco's general attitude towards the conference.
He spoke in Arabic, and the delegates
his remarks.

The draft gives France exclusive control over contraband on the African frontier, and gives Spain exclusive control along the frontier of Spain's possessions in Morocco.

The general principle of the plan is to leave the coast surveillance with the Moroccan customs, but as the question of France's administering the customs comes up later, the Franco-German contention remains open.

French Fight the Chinese.
Marseilles, Jan. 23.—The Chinese mail which arrived here yesterday brought an account of the invasion of Tonquin, French Indo-China by Chinese regulars who encountered a French force numbering 400 men, of whom 150 were Europeans. A three-hour battle ensued resulting in the defeat of the Chinese, who lost 300 killed and 300 wounded. The French lost 16 men of the foreign legion, and 29 Annamites killed.

Nominations at Kingston.
Kingston, Jan. 23.—The nomination of E. J. B. Pense as the candidate for the Liberals, and of Donald M. McIntyre for the Conservatives in the by-election, took place in the City Hall yesterday at 1 o'clock. At this hour only a few persons were present, and the preliminaries were limited to the legal requirements only. At 2 p. m. the hall was comfortably filled, and 20 minutes more it was packed. The candidates for the Liberal party were Mr. E. J. B. Pense, and Mr. R. J. McIntyre, and for the Conservative party, Mr. Donald M. McIntyre.

King Edward Buys Colt for $10,000.

glass, and is the most perfect of its kind. It is a Zeiss Zeiss field glass,

HIS TASK HOPELESS

Even Though It Was Sweetened With Voteless Kisses.

DEFEAT OF A CANADIAN K.C.

2,006 of a Majority Goes to Donald Mc-Master's Liberal Opponent—Brunner Loaned Autos to the Laborites and Thus Stood Pat—Chamberlain's Broken Melody—The Standing of the Parties.

London, Jan. 23.—(C. A. P.)—Donald McMaster, K. C. lately of Montreal, has fallen in his effort to wrest the Leigh division and Lancastrer from the Liberal column and to defeat yesterday by J. F. Brunner, the Liberal candidate, by 2,006, the vote being 7,175 to 5,169. The constituency has been Liberal for over 20 years by majorities ranging in the neighborhood of a thousand. At last election the majority was reduced to 120. The riding includes large mining interests and the Labor vote is considerable.

Appealing for the Labor vote the Liberal candidate pointed out in a recent speech that Mr. McMaster had spoken against Labor candidates in other ridings, while he had shown friendship for Labor by loaning his motor car to three Labor candidates, and each of them won.

But the campaign has not been entirely in vain for the Conservative candidate, as a report from the riding says after his meetings several ladies insisted on kissing Mr. McMaster.

Only Two Returns of Monday's Polling.
Only two other returns were received last night out of 22 pollings yesterday. Sir J. F. Leese retains the Ac-crinton division of Lancashire for the Liberals by 2,357 over a Unionist and Independent Socialist. The Gorton division of Lancashire goes to the Labor candidate, John Hodge, defeating S. W.
Roe, Conservative, by 4,225. The seat was won for the Conservatives by Ernest Hatch, whose majority was 330, in 1906, but Mr. Hatch went over to the Liberals last year and did not seek re-election.

In the short race for the biggest majority Romford bids fair to be second.
Sir Edward Clarke, Conservative, with 10,706, in the City of London, is still at the top, but Romford yesterday disclosed a Liberal majority of 8,888, a change from a Conservative majority of 3,042 last time.

John Smolich, who was elected for Forfarshire, Scotland, is the Secretary for Scotland, and son-in-law of Lord Aberdeen.

The score to date is: Liberals, 374; Labor, 87; Conservatives, 115; Nationalists, 80.

Party gains: Liberals, 150; Labor, 20; Conservatives, 3; Nationalists, 2.

Worse Than Expected.

In a campaign speech last night Mr.
Chamberlain admitted the majority against him was much larger than he expected, and recognized that a political revolution had been in progress.

"But," he admitted, "I want once more, how at the end of the session, to put on record my determination to pursue to the end the policy which I believe to be demanded in the interest of the population."

War's return is not dead. When the cannibals which have for the moment overwhelmed it have gone, it will rightly wait for the side issues are forgotten, but reform will remain as the only political remedy for the distress with which our English trade and workmen are confronted. It will come back, and meanwhile our duty is to keep the lamp alive."

NEAR END OF SAD JOURNEY.

Remains of Dead Minister Arrive At Halifax and Are Received With Honor—The Funeral Procession.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 23.—The body of the late Hon. Mr. Prefontaine was landed at 11:30 yesterday from H.M.S.
Dominion, and the funeral procession passed from the dockyard to the station between lines of soldiers.

The funeral was a striking one.
About 400 blue-jackets and marines from H. M. S. Dominion were in line, as well as the Canadian soldiers and marines. It was one of the most spectacular funerals ever seen here.

LOW TAX RATE

Not Always Good—
The following from the Municipal world has a local application:

No one wants to pay a larger tax bill than is necessary, but on the other hand, the municipality with a low rate is rarely a desirable place to live in. The meaning of a low rate is usually bad roads, poorly kept streets, and an inferior character of public service. By means of municipal organization modern improvements, or rather modern necessities, can be provided in a general way for less than the individual working alone can obtain it. It is a means of economy in securing sewerage, water supply, fire protection and other common necessities. It is not the business of councillors to strive any of these services in order to reduce taxes, but rather to see that the people obtain the best value for the available expenditure upon them.
There must be efficiency as well as economy in municipal work.

MADE HIS LAST RUN.

Driver Clark, I. B. & O Ry., Dies Suddenly While Oiling His Engine.

Bancroft Times: A few minutes before 1 o'clock on Tuesday while Engineer Asa Clark, of the I. B. & O. was oiling his engine preparatory to starting out with the firebox, he fell dead at the feet of the despatcher who was in the act of handing him his orders.

The deceased leaves a widow and a family of five children. He was a member of the Bancroft, I. O. F., and carried an insurance of $1,000.

A Cruel Record.

The United States has a bloody record for the past year. In 1905 there were 9,912 deaths by violence in the United States, compared with 8,482 in 1904. Jealousy provoked 379 murders. There were 9,982 suicides, an increase of 542 over 1904.
Of the self-destructors 370 were physicians. There were 133 legal executions, 51 in the north and 82 in the south. May Rogers, of Vermont, was the only woman executed. Lynchings numbered 66, the smallest number since 1885.

Newspapers and Magazines.

For the woman of fashion, the February Delineator, with its display of spring styles, is a most attractive number. Besides the fashions there is much of interest for the general reader, and the departments concerning the practical householder may have been abundantly contributed to. There are short stories by Zona Gale and Margaret Beauchamp, with an interesting travel sketch entitled, "In Cairo with a Camera," by Horace Wyndham, Miss Winslow's story of club life. The President of Quax is continued in the next issue. The "Collector's Manual" is concluded with an article on "Old Time Lights". For the children there is a delightful serial, "Sunlight and Shadow", written by Alice Brown, "Grand Fair Tales," and amusing games by Lila Beard. Mothers will find Dr.
Murphy's "Liberator" on "Exercise and Physical Culture" particularly helpful to put on a new year's favor to matters of household interest, such as cooking, gardening, house finishing, etc. and will prove to be of equal interest to the young housewife.

The Seven Ages.

A little laugh;
A little fun;
A blossom bordered
Way to fun.
A getting tall,
And serious, too;
And then the school,
To labor through.
Then blossom bordered Ways of love;
Just two on earth
And stars above.
Then to the altar,
Then away
To homely care
Of every day.
Then joys untold,
Then new delight,
A baby crying
In the night.
Then something more Than parent's gloom,
A grandchild
Climbing on your knees
And then to sleep;
Green sod above;
But life's worth living,
For the love.

A Useful Invention.

A marvellous little instrument has been invented at the Zeiss works at Jena for the purpose of measuring distances. It is based on the principle that lateral displacement in the line joining the eyes of an object is one of two angles, the angle of rotation of the eye, and the angle of rotation of the object, in each of the object so placed. In short, it is a telemeter. The Zeiss Zeiss field glass has been used for the purpose of measuring distances. It is a Zeiss Zeiss field glass, and is the most perfect of its kind.

Animal Second 2nd Place in 2:30 class at Lindsay.
Peterborough Review, Thursday: At the Lindsay winter ice races yesterday a surprise was shown in the performance of a grey colt, owned and driven by Mr.
McMahon, of Peterborough, Ont. The colt in a green harness having never started in a race before, and was entered by the owner in the 2:30 class race the day previous. On coming to the track on Tuesday something went wrong with the harness and the race was run off without the colt as a contestant, though Mr. McMahonian paid the entry fee.

Desiring to do what was fair, as Lindsay horsemen are always ready to do, the committee offered to let the colt start in the entry fee charge.
McMahon elected to go in the 2:30 class, putting the colt against such veterans as Gladstone and a field of six other good ones.

To the astonishment of the spectators the colt buckled down to work like a little man, scored in fine shape and cleaned the field, pushing the winner in three straight heats, and taking second in each heat.

The colt was afterwards bought by Mr. Harry Nesbitt, of Peterborough, and will be delivered here in time to start in the Peterborough races. It is understood that the price paid was about $600, and all admitted that it was for good value.

Russell House Fined $100.

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—Mulligan Bros. of the Russell House has pleaded guilty to the charge of serving ruffed grouse at the forestry conference dinner, and paid a fine of one hundred dollars. The charge was laid by the game warden, acting on instructions from Toronto.

"For what is worth in anything But so much money as 'will bring"

This speech of the poets is truly realized in the commercial world, and never was there a more fitting time to apply it than the present day.

GRAND TRUNK ENGINEERS.

Relations With Management Said to be Near Breaking Point.
Belleville Ontario: For a considerable time past negotiations have been going on between the management of the Grand Trunk and the locomotive firemen and engineers employed by the company in regard to demands presented by the men. Some three or four months ago committees representing both the engineers and the firemen went as delegates to Montreal for the purpose of settling the matter, which, it is said, include increased pay and shorter hours—before the management. They have been trying ever since to reach a settlement, but have been unable to do so. Both the management and the men preserve the utmost reticence in regard to the state of the negotiations. Nevertheless, the rumor is going in railway circles that the relations with the management are near the breaking point.
