FAIR WARNING:

OUR CHALLENGE SALE

NEARING AN END!

BIG returns for money invested have been handed out to hundreds of Gough's customers during the past five weeks. Rich have been the rewards of those who came to buy. We've spared no effort in making our Bargains attractive and tempting; and the people have responded heartily—keeping up the procession to Gough's store daily. It has been a remarkable "Keep Up."

But Great Sales have an end. We are nearing the time when the sale must be withdrawn. Preparations for Spring Trade are encroaching upon the heels of Winter, and can only hold on for a short time longer. The balance of Winter Goods must meet a Price-Waterloo at once. This week will be a harvest of the rarest kind of bargains. Prices are slashed most unmercifully. We prefer to realize in part and invest the money in new stock. It's the progressive policy of Gough's store—the policy that keeps stock ever fresh.

CORRESPONDENT'S LETTERS

LITTLE BRITAIN.

A basket social will be given shortly under the auspices of the A.O.U.W., the I.O.O.F., the C.O.H.C., and the directors of the Public Library in the Methodist church, Little Britain. Proceeds in aid of the Library.

CAMERON.

Don't forget the Orange basket social and concert on Friday, Mar. 6th. Rev. Mr. Clark, of Oakwood, occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday morning last. He preached a very able and inspiring sermon.

Mr. Joe. Mark has given up his position in Mr. Maunders' store and intends going to North Dakota this week. He is now visiting friends in the neighborhood. We wish him a safe and pleasant journey.

Neither foreign nor local dramatic companies can have the use of the school house in the future. The Trustees have planted their feet resolutely on this measure, consequently the clarity concert fell through.

Our enterprising, law-abiding and generally law-enforcing citizens of Cameron, especially those living on the main streets, are slowly getting their wood piles removed off the street by aid of the sawing machine. For the last three months drivers through the village have had to take the ditch in places where wood has been piled across the road. Fortunately no accidents have happened, but these good people don't seem to recognize that they are liable to any damages. Think over it, ye men of Cameron, and try and come to the conclusion that next winter you will not thus jeopardize the lives of human beings and horses.

Mrs. G. M. Cindal. They returned home on Monday.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 Mr. Henry Whetter has purchased the Clark homestead, which is situated about two miles east of the village. This farm comprises about 100 acres and is one of the best in this section of the County. We understand it will be occupied by one of Mr. Clark's sons. The price paid would exceed $4,500.

Mr. John Michael, the popular township councillor, is one of our progressive farmers. He is never behind the times and as a result of his enterprise he can claim the credit of having one of the finest farms in this section. Recently, to add to the appearance of his large barn, Mr. Michael has erected an "Ideal" windmill purchased from the Gould Shapley Co. of Brantford.

Mrs. Whetter, who has been very ill, we are glad to say is recovering nicely and is expected to be about as usual in a couple of weeks.

OMEMEE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 Our hockey team were defeated last week in a keenly contested game at Lindsay by the Junior team of that town. The boys report having had a good game. Mr. Clancy, as cover point played a star. When he chased after the puck he slipped and fell, causing no end of amusement for the spectators. His red cap decorated the wits at one end of the rink, and at the finish of game he displayed some pugilistic powers in order to get it. "If you don't leave that cap alone," said Mr. Clancy in a very angry tone, to a bunch of Lindsay sports, "I'll punch your face." He finally succeeded in securing his cap, but up in the dressing room after he was heard to remark that he never came to Lindsay but what he was insulted by somebody.

the summer tourist trade this year, as there is some prospect of the Kawartha Navigation Co., having an excursion boat at this point.

Mr. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon, was at the Clancey house on Monday last. He has not seen in our flourishing village for some years.

There is only one empty house in our village and we are informed that it will be rented soon.

A large number of our citizens and farmers visited the Lindsay market last Saturday. They report a good market and high prices were paid for farm products. Farmers if you have anything to sell, take it to Lindsay.
