CONTRACTOR CHALMERS CALLS THE BALANCE DUE HIM. Remission of Magistrate's Fines Becoming Popular With the Aldermen.

Mayor Vrooman and all members of Council responded last Monday to the call of the chairman of Finance, Ald. O'Reilly, business being taken up soon after 8 o'clock.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL. On motion Mr. W. H. Roenick, leader of the Sylvester band, was heard. In compliance with the wish expressed at the last meeting of Council a financial statement had been prepared as follows: Estimated expenditures for year 1906, $692; new instruments, etc., required, $236; amount at present due to Sylvester Co., $260.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL. On motion Messrs. F. C. Taylor, Robt. Bryans and H. J. Lytle were granted permission to address the Aldermen.

WILL ENCOURAGE PAYMENT. On motion Mr. Joe Lytle, guide, fisherman, hunter, etc., was heard. He explained that, having unintentionally omitted fixing up a little matter of dog tax with the Chief, he had been summoned before the Cadi and mulcted in the sum of $5.45 fine and costs.

SOMEbody BLUNDERED. On motion Mr. Thos. Stewart was granted permission to address the committee. He explained that he was present on behalf of Contractor Jas. Chalmers to ask that the town pay over the balances due on two sewers constructed in 1904.

CLAIM FOR DAMAGES. On motion Mr. E. Robson was heard concerning his claim for damages caused by an alleged overflow of a sewer on Albert-st. Certain statements made at last meeting of Council would lead the public to believe that there was no water in his cellar, but Aldermen Maunder and Rea had made an examination and could vouch for the truth of the statement.

SUNDAY MATTERS. Ald. McFadden pointed out that the fire alarm system was costing $200 per annum to maintain. He had taken the liberty to enquire as to the cost of a generator to operate the system, which would not exceed $100 and could be operated for about $8 per year thereafter.

was held to cover the cost of possible repairs. Mr. Stewart, after a whispered consultation with Mr. Chalmers, said he did not wish Council to misunderstand the position of affairs—they had had a full year in which to examine the sewer for any defects, and the time having expired last July, Mr. Chalmers did not feel like waiting any longer for his money.

Mr. Stewart—"I'm not here to tell you what to do." Ald. Eyles—"A good many people say the work on the sewers is bad. Of course, if he is entitled to the money, all right—let us pay him."

Ald. Rea—"He got a lot of money at last meeting that we should have held, and he wouldn't have got it until after the expiration of the legal time for making objections." Ald. Maunder—"McBrea reported the main sewer to be not far wrong, he said the laterals were bad."

Mr. Chalmers—"The Engineer was inspector on the sewer for three weeks and saw every bit of it, and during the balance of the work he inspected the sewer every day. It is strange that he would condemn his own job."

A COUPLE OF REPORTS. On motion Dr. Herriman, Town Physician, was heard in connection with a report for 1905 submitted in compliance with a resolution passed at last meeting. Estimated at ordinary rates the value of the work done for the salary of $100 was $255.75. He underscored that previous to his coming to town the treatment of poor people had cost about $600.
