Now I am doing all the work for four children. My friends say I look better now than ever before. I took one of your bottles when my child was born the time of suffering was over. THE RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR.

HAS BRITAIN BEEN FOILED BY RUSSIAN DIPLOMATS?

North China Daily News Says War Would not Have Occurred but for the Lukewarmness of England and the United States During the Early Negotiations.

In view of the strong alliance between Britain and Japan, and the abundant signs of sympathy manifested toward the Island Kingdom by the United States, the question as to whether the two great Anglo-Saxon nations, in standing aloof during negotiations, have been in a measure responsible for the present war, is one deserving of consideration. The North China Daily News, of Shanghai, which can be regarded as reflecting the opinion held by Anglo-Saxons at the seat of war, is emphatic in issues which have just been received, in placing the blame on the United States and Great Britain. Had Britain and America openly joined Japan in definitely resisting Russian encroachment on Manchuria, if they had united in unmistakably forbidding any annexation of Chinese territory; if they had insisted on the absolute maintenance of the open door, Russia would have been compelled to respect their decision, and would not have dared to attack the independence or integrity of China. A determined joint stand by Britain and the States would have averted war.

This conclusion is interesting, and possibly correct. On the other hand, it is possible that had Japan's hand been strengthened by effective support from Britain and America, Russia would have met the combination by a corresponding alliance with France and Germany, and so, instead of the two belligerent powers fighting out alone the battle for supremacy in the East, with Britain standing on one side to see that Japan gets a fair play in the fight, a general European war would have been precipitated, with consequences too serious and far-reaching to estimate.

PROVERBS

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto, Ontario.

trans-Siberian system, and this, in turn, would forever preclude hopes of Japanese ascendancy in East Asia. As against Russia's determination to secure an ice-free port, and the menace it would be to Japan should one be established on the southern extremity of the Korean peninsula, must be reckoned Japan's natural desire to control both sides of the straits of which the Island Kingdom forms the southern boundary. These straits are Russia's marine highway between Vladivostok and Port Arthur. By Vladivostok's permanent predominance in securing permanent predominance in the straits, and this is an expediency that Russia cannot contemplate with satisfaction. Korea cannot stand alone. Russia's obvious efforts to obtain real control in that distant empire compel Japan to resist the Muscovite attempts to the utmost. Korea is the key to the Eastern situation. Its possession will decide supremacy in the Pacific. In its inalienable Russia finds itself opposed by the Britain of the Orient. From these irreconcilable conditions a struggle for mastery was inevitable.

Determined Mr. Bergeron. (From the Ottawa Journal). Mr. Bergeron has been defeated four times for Parliament since 1900, but says he will run again. It is to be feared the thing has become a habit.

Saturday's Market. Owing to the poor roads the market was not large Saturday morning. The supply of butter, eggs and fowl was limited and sold quickly at the following figures: Butter 20c, fresh eggs 25c, 35c, geese 10c, per lb, turkeys 15c, per lb, chickens 65c, and 70c per pair; apples (Ontario) 60c, a bag. Outside man Sweets 60c. Mr. J. L. Arnold offered 8 carcasses of beef at $6.50 and $7 per 100 lbs, 6 hogs at $6.50 and $7 a sheep at 9c, and 8c, and 9c, and a plump calf. Four or five other dealers also offered fowl at the same price. Hay sold at $8 to $9.50 per ton, and dry tamarac at $6 per cord.

Mr. Whitney's Critics. (Toronto Star, Tuesday). It is an easy thing for a man to walk about town and find fault with the small success Mr. Whitney is having in giving the finishing touches to a Government that has a majority of but three. It is easy for a newspaper to criticize Mr. Whitney's failure to upset the Ross Government. But the job those critics get Mr. Whitney is not an easy one, nor are they offering him any useful hints.

When the Government's majority was reduced to three the Opposition made it appear that victory was within arm's length. Mr. Whitney stored up trouble for himself by encouraging the expectations of his party. He bade his supporters believe that when he got the Government face to face with the Opposition, great things would happen, and that the paltry majority of three would prove inadequate to carry on the administration. He sowed the seeds of his present trouble.

It was plain enough all the time that a majority of three would suffice as well as a majority of thirty, if it were always on the spot when wanted. It is on the spot when wanted, and Mr. Whitney gets no nearer office as the weeks go by. It would be interesting to see some of Mr. Whitney's lieutenants or his newspaper critics who so much to say of his failure to get results wearing his boots. His willingness to overcome a majority with a minority is probably as great as their own.
