MOUNT PLEASANT.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Auction sales of farm stock are very numerous this winter. The evidence of the little persons times that we are now enjoying is the fact that two thirds or over of those who purchase, pay the cash for what they buy. Farmers are retiring, having the means to live comfortably in some city or town for the remainder of their lives.
We regret to hear that Mr. Walter Boyd has decided on leaving Ontario. He is going to the Northwest Territory, where he has purchased a farm. He is a hustler, and if successful, will be able to retire with abundance to live on, providing that himself and family enjoy good health. Our best wishes go with him and family.
The storm of the 18th ult. has filled up the roads so that they are almost impassable. Publicmasters in this part of the township of Cayvan, make very little provision for teams passing each other during such a severe winter that we have experienced so far.
It is with feelings of sadness that we record the death of John Gillett, esq. of Millbrook.
$6.00 a cord for wood is the price of wood in our village, and very difficult to get at that price.
Dr. Dean will move into the house vacated by Mr. S. Casey. His dwelling and office will then be connected. He experienced trouble during a visit to a patient a few days ago; the roads were blocked so that he had to obtain help to extricate his horse. He has been successful in his practice, since he came here, and it is daily increasing.
Rev. Wm. Brown, of Bethel, conducted the services in the Methodist church last Sabbath. The basis of his discourse was "The baptism of the Holy Spirit." "Remember, the Sabbath day to keep it Holy," was the text chosen by the pastor of the Presbyterian church. The subject is one of vital importance to the Christian church, and should have been the discourse for each of the Protestant churches last Sabbath.

OAKWOOD.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
La grippe is going around on its annual trip. Among those laid up are Miss Beatrice Woods, Mr. Fred Perrin, Mr. Wm. Gourd and Mr. A. Hughson.
Mr. A. O. Hogg was in Montreal last week on business.
Miss Mota Middleton, of Lindsay, called on Oakwood friends on Sunday.
Miss Sherlock, of Manitoba, is visiting with her friends, Miss Irwin, at Mr. Joseph Coad's.
Messrs. Hogg & Lytle report having let out on contract over six thousand bushels of farm peas for next season's crop, and say they could have placed many times that amount had they desired.
We notice some of Little Britain's young men in the village last Sunday. We wonder why?
Mr. Fred Coad, our efficient harness maker, reports business on the boom.
Say, Mr. Post, the Watchman evidently thinks it's a winner with that "Under the Barn" cry, doesn't it?
One of the largest sales of farm stock and implements ever held in this vicinity took place last Friday at the farm of Mr. W. A. Silverwood. A great crowd was in attendance and everything sold well. Mr. Geo. Jackson, of Port Perry, was the auctioneer, and everybody who heard him pronounce him to be the best ever here. We understand that the proceeds of the sale amounted to over $3,000.
Mr. Silverwood intends to devote his time entirely to droving in future.

JANETVILLE.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The annual concert given under the auspices of the W. C. O. E. of this village, took place on the evening of Feb. 23rd, and to say the least, was a pronounced success. Miss Emma Irons, elocutionist, of Toronto, rendered the evening's entertainment, assisted by Mr. E. K. Bannan, also of Toronto. This being Miss Irons' second appearance here, was of itself sufficient guarantee to warrant a full house, having created the most favorable impression when heard here a year ago. Her selections were well chosen, and from the frequent applause and repeated encores meted out to her, it was at once evident that her popularity as a reader found favor with the large audience present. Mr. Bannan is the possessor of a clear, well sounding voice which would have been heard to better advantage in a large concert hall. His rendering of "The Death of Nelson" was really fine, and in the more particularly show his great range of voice. Dr. Nasmith performed the duties of chairman in a most satisfactory manner. The committee in charge are to be complimented for the manner in which each detail of the evening was looked after. Their aim was to furnish the audience with a high-class entertainment regardless of the cost. The management is pleased to state that after paying all expenses a substantial sum will be added to the treasury.

HARTLEY.
(Special to The Post.)
Never in the history of Hartley has there been known to be so much snow—the roads have been so badly blocked the most of the winter that our daily mail was out down to pretty nearly a weekly mail.

On Feb. 10th the home of Mr. A. H. Campbell was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when his youngest daughter, Annie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Rod Moran, of South Palestine. The knot was tied by the Rev. J. A. Ferguson, of Glenora, in his usual glowing manner, in the presence of about one hundred invited guests.
Miss Maggie Driscoll acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was assisted through the trying ordeal by his cousin, Mr. John O'Leary.
The wedding march was played by Miss Horace Downey, of Reabrook. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the bride was held. Among the number was a handsome red rocker, from the congregation of Knox church, Glenora, where the bride has officiated as organist for the past three years. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, the happy couple, accompanied by their friends, drove to their own home in Palestine, Eldon, where a most enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. D. B. McQueen, of Port Perry, spent Friday night in our village.

BALFOUR.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The people in this neighborhood are longing for spring. Some of the oldest weather prophets in the lower town claim this winter to be the most severe one in their recollection.
We are pleased to learn that Mr. Henry Folliott, who has been ill for some time with a severe attack of paralysis, is steadily increasing.
Richard Uncle, one of the contractors of this place, has secured the contract of digging a well for the school here. Mr. Uncle has a full gang of men well equipped for the business, and is pushing the work along.
We regret to learn that Mr. Christopher McKee is about to move back to Kirkfield. Although but a short time here he has made many warm friends and he will be greatly missed around here.
Mr. George Folliott, who has been for the past four years in Sandon, B.C., also North Dakota, has returned home looking hale and hearty.
Welcome home, George.

Mr. W. W. McLean has purchased a large stock of new and up-to-date wall paper for the spring, which he intends to dispose of at a very low price.

young friends. Judging from the late hour that a number arrived at the village a jolly time must have been spent.
There is a grand opening in our village for a temperance house. Some enterprising person would be assured of patronage and success.
Miss Lulu McKee is spending a few weeks with her sister in Toronto.
Mr. T. Hall who has spent the winter under the parental roof left for the N.W.T. on Tuesday.
Miss Letherton, of Little Britain, paid a flying visit to our village on Saturday last.

Sunday was a warm day and a great crowd attended the churches, but the white horse tied to the post at a late hour shook as if it was cold.
Some person in our vicinity has lodged a complaint with the post office inspector against our postmaster and mail carrier. Both these men are honorable and above reproach, and we think the complainant had better look after his own affairs instead of meddling with other people's.

DOMESTIC HINTS
To colour kitchen walls dissolve whiting in water and then add enough dissolved permanganate of potash to make it a pretty shade. Put on with a common whitewash brush.
When darning stockings, if you come to a manmoth hole it is a good plan to turn a thread all around and draw it slightly together before beginning. This makes it easier to darn and more compact.
Fresh air is very essential to house plants. In close rooms the vitality of this air is soon exhausted, and there must be a new and regular supply to make and keep it what it ought to be. It is an excellent plan to open a door or window at some distance from the plants, and let the air from out of doors come in and mix with that of the room.

CAMBRAV.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The Rev. W. G. Clarke, of Little Britain, preached a very powerful sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday to a large congregation. The singing by the choir greatly added to the brightness of the service.
We regret very much to learn of the illness of Mr. John Moore, and hope soon to hear of a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster gave a long year party on Wednesday evening, 24th, to a number of their
