SAM HUGHES, MISCHIEF MAKER.

(Winnipeg Free Press.) That terrible man of war, Col. Sam Hughes, M.P., who thinks in terms of gory tayonets and speaks in terms of rifle velleys punctuaird with cannon shots, finds it nard to settle down to the piping times of peace which pravail in Canada. Ever since his achievements in South Africa, when by his own accourt he drove the Boe's before him like chaff, his wind has run gloatingly upon warfare with its slaughters and devasstations. Here is the way he talked to a representative of the Toronto

Coming as they do from a member of the Dominion Parliam nt, how can they be regarded by people unacquainted with Canada in any other light than as going to show that 'nw and order do not exist in this country? People cutside the Dominion cannot be expected to understand that Sam Hughes is a fire-cating figure of ridicule. The sort of people who make the most desirable settlers do not warf to make their homes in a country which they have any reason to believe has not yet emerged from the stage of lawlessness. Hence it is pity that such a brayer as the valregarded serious'y beyond the bounds and amusements for the summer.
