MIDGETS WIN IN A DECISIVE FASHION.

Defeated Cobourg Last Week by 13-4 in a fast and interesting game, but of no uncertain results—Cobourg played a good game, but Midgets were in fine condition—Return game Friday.

From Evening Post of March 15. In no uncertain manner did the Lindsay Midgets put their stamp and seal on the game at the rink last night against the Cobourg seven. Owing to the ice man having favored the boys with a fast sheet (perhaps the fastest of the season) the Midgets sped like shooting stars in and out around their opponents, and the fast work of both teams made the game interesting, as a struggle on hard ice should be. Towards the close of the game neither team slacked up a bit on the "up and down" line, and although the Midgets were doing the tacking, the Cobourg boys, nevertheless, fought aggressively to the last gasp to keep down the score.

For the third time this season have the Midgets shown their superiority over intermediate and senior teams. In last night's game they were given a good run for their victory of 13 goals to 4, but when it comes down to the question as to who put up the best game it is with no hesitancy that we say the Midgets, with Cobourg a very close second. Every one of the locals put up a good game, and one of the main reasons why the visitors didn't add to their score was the magnificent work of Bas Newton, in goal, who, especially in the second half, played a phenomenal game. The score, to really indicate the closeness of the play, should read much lower, as, although the locals were stronger on the forward line, the visitors were always upon them, giving them no easy chances, so that almost every goal was notched after clever playing.

From the way matters started off in the first half spectators were led to believe that the visitors were going in to pile up a score, securing the first three goals on good fast work, but once the Midgets got their first goal they began to gain more courage and became more dangerous. They backed right up to the most prejudiced Cobourg supporter must admit that the best team won. The spectators were given the worth of their money all the way, and witnessed a good fast game, with no lags or spots. Forth Hope may feel thankful to the ice man that the calibre of the ice sheet furnished last night was not seen on either the 20th or 23rd of February.

The Midgets—had have not had any games or practice since a week ago—were on the ice fresh and feeling in the best of condition, and the Cobourg team, who have also been having a rest, were feeling just as good. The work of the locals was fine, and it was pretty to see them check back on their opponents, get the puck and swing around in a quarter circle and come down the ice three abreast. This was worked repeatedly, and occasionally the Cobourg seven did the same trick, but the local defense was impregnable. Both teams also did a lot of individual rushing, and in this regard the two captains, Bentley, of the visitors, and Stoddard, of the home brews, were the stars. It would be difficult to say which of these two was the shining light, as they both put up a great game, but while Stoddard did a lot of individual work, he was unselfish and played a combination game as well. In fact the majority of the goals scored were the result of combined "duet" and "trio" rushes.

For the visitors Bentley, at rover, played a magnificent game, and he is credited with scoring the four goals. He is a fast skater and pretty stick-handler. He is also a good shot. Moffatt played left wing and proved a man worth watching. He is a senior player, and was this year reinstated into the O. H. A. after being suspended for some time for playing with Cobourg junior team over the

THE 17TH OF OLD IRELAND: ONE DECIDES THE OTHER.

ST. PATRICK'S NATAL DAY QUIETLY OBSERVED IN LINDSAY.

Large Number of Worshippers at High Mass at St. Mary's.

March 17th, St. Patrick's Day, is a season dear to the true sons of Erin. Few Englishmen could tell off-hand the date of St. George's Day, many Scotsmen did not know when St. Andrew's Day was; it would need a wide search to find an Irishman who did not know when St. Patrick's Day fell. Sprigs of the national flower, Ireland's green, the green of the three-leaved shamrock, bring joy to the hearts of thousands. The popular notion is that when St. Patrick was preaching the doctrine of the Trinity to the pagan Irish he used the plant bearing three leaves upon one stem as a symbol or illustration of the great mystery.

The materials for a life of Ireland's apostle are scanty. The birthplace of St. Patrick has been disputed, but the general evidence indicates that he was born in Dumbarton, Scotland. Taken captive in early life by pirates, who sold him as a slave in Ireland, he escaped to the continent of Europe, where he prepared himself for the priesthood and received a mission from Pope Celestine to preach the gospel to the heathen Irish. The date of his death is uncertain. In the words of the poet, long may the Shamrock

At St. Mary's Church. High mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock in honor of St. Patrick, and the congregation was a large one. Very Archbishop Cassey was the celebrant, and before mass he spoke briefly concerning the significance of the holy day and the duty incumbent on all true Irishmen to observe it in a devout and reverent manner.

A Toast to the Irish Blood.
"The plant that blooms forever,
With the rose combined,
And the thistle twined,
Defy the strength of foes to sever.
Firm be the triple league they form,
Despite all change of weather.
In sunshine, darkness, calm or storm
Still may they fondly go together."

FIRST HALF.
The Cobourg seven pressed matters hard, Capt. Bentley setting the pace, and after a number of end to end rushes he scored the first goal in 5 minutes. McDougall and Maxwell then took the rubber in hand and shot, the puck entering the goal from behind. The goal umpire held up his hand, but before Parkin, who saw the way it happened, rightly called it no goal. Bentley again got away, making a corker rush and locating the nets, 2-0. McWilliams then perched with the timekeepers, for one minute, and while of Bentley again scored, 3-0. This was going too far, and the locals began to press matters. Sullivan started a rush, getting through the Cobourg defense and passing to Stoddard, who scored, 3-1. The locals played fast, and on a combined rush of Maxwell and McDougall and Stoddard, the latter again planted one behind Flesh, 3-2. McDougall brought the next rush down in one minute, passing to Maxwell and he to Stoddard, and the score was tied, 3-3. With 11 minutes to play McDougall made a good save from McDougall, but Maxwell took the puck from him and scored, 4-3. The last goal in the half was scored by Maxwell, who got away from the face off and scored from the side, 5-3. The half was very close and always in doubt.

SECOND HALF.
The second half started with individual rushes, and after 8 minutes play the Midgets made a grand effort to score, but the puck got away behind the nets. McDougall pulled it out and shoved it in around the posts, and No. 9 was counted. Half a minute later Stoddard scored on a single-handed rush, 7-3, and three minutes later Stoddard, McDougall and Randall brought the dice down, the latter scoring, 8-3. Number 9 followed shortly afterwards, "Pacey" getting it on a pass from Stoddard. Stoddard got in a beautiful rush, taking the puck right up to Flesh, in goal, where he was tripped up, but Maxwell, who was following him like his shadow, shoved it in, and the score stood 9-3. The next was scored on a rush by Randall, Maxwell and McDougall, and in half a minute McDougall again scored from a pass from Maxwell, 12-3. The same two repeated the trick shortly after, Maxwell tallying, 13-3. The last goal fell to Cobourg on a neat rush by Bentley, and the game ended 13 to 4.

NOTES ON THE GAME.
Who was the fastest man on the ice—Stoddard or Bentley? Toss the coin.

The Cobourg team played a good gentlemanly game, and played it well at all times.

The following players were penalized for one minute each: McWilliams 2, Moffatt, McDougall, Bentley 2, Sullivan, Stoddard, McCullough.

The Schoolmaster's Toast.
A schoolmaster was called on to give a toast, and produced the following loyal sample: "Addition to the friends of Old England, subtraction to her wants, multiplication of her blessings, division among her foes, and reduction of her debts and taxes, how's that, Bro. Boxall!"

A Hint to Travellers.
White in Suffolk. Va., Henry Croil, Jr., proprietor of the Beaverton, Mich., Hardware Co., was taken very sick with bowel trouble. A travelling salesman from Saginaw, Mich., advised him to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which he did. "It soon cured me, and I take pleasure in recommending it," he says. No one should leave home on a journey without a bottle of this remedy. It is almost sure to be needed and is not obtainable while on steamship or cars. Sold by all druggists.

Wild Pigeons Returning.
St. Catherine's Journal: The early risers saw a sight last Tuesday morning about 7 o'clock that gladdened the hearts of the old-timers. About this time a flock of wild pigeons over half a mile long were seen flying south over this city. This is a sight that few of the present generation have seen part of the country of them at the place was so full try, although at one time that you could not see the sun for flying flocks of wild pigeons. In the 70's a boy with a fishing pole could knock down and kill enough of them to keep a whole family for weeks. Although there are no wild pigeons in the part of the country at the present time they are still plentiful in the State of Maine.

ELECTRIC LINE TO PORT PERRY.

Proposed New Railway from Toronto to That Town, 35 Miles
A new line which will seek incorporation this session is the Toronto & Port Perry Electric Railway. This company is being formed by capitalists in York and Ontario counties, chiefly in the district which will be served by the line. The line is projected to run from Toronto eastward to Port Perry, a distance of about 35 miles, but the exact route it will follow has not yet been decided upon.

It would presumably enter the city, or rather, approach it, in much the same way as the Scarborough line. The incorporators expect some opposition from the James Bay railway, which will run for a portion of its route through the two counties and probably not very far from the electric line. As an answer to this it will be argued before the railway committee that the electric line will serve a different section of the travelling public and supply accommodation which the steam line cannot give.

As to whether the new company will seek to secure entrance into the city the promoters will not speak, but they declare that they have no connection whatever with any existing railway.

Lindsay Citizens Interested.

Carl, Durham; E. S. J. Edwards, M. Pearson, W. J. Keller, Watchman-Wardner, A. Burke, Miss H. Clarke, (Hotsprings), J. Ford, (Kinmount), S. Graham, N. Hoekin, E. Martin, J. N. Hol, (Bobcaygeon), F. Scott, (Kinmount).

MERRY WEDDING BELLS
Chlorist—Campbell.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. George Campbell Hartley, Wednesday, when his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, was united in wedlock to Mr. Donald Gilchrist, of Brandon, Manitoba. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Ferguson, B.A., of Glenora. The house was tastefully decorated with red carnations and smilax.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. John C. Campbell, wore a becoming gown of white silk with chiffon trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Katie Campbell, wore a gown of grey tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Archie McMillan, of Hartley, assisted in the wedding march and was played by Miss Cella Campbell, of Glenora.

After the ceremony wedding dinner was served to about sixty guests. The groom's gift to the bride was a black Fuzarian lamb coat, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch with diamond setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist will reside in Brandon, Manitoba. The bride is a cousin of Mr. A. J. Campbell, district representative of the Manufacturers Life Ass. Co., town.

AT THE CHURCHES SUNDAY. Red Clover, Alsike, Timothy Seed.

ARMY SERVICE AT ACADEMY THINNED THE NIGHT ATTENDANCE.
Curlers Listened to a Fine Sermon at the Baptist Church.
From Evening Post of March 19.
The members of the Victoria Curling Club turned out in good force last evening, on the occasion of the annual church parade. This year it took place to the Baptist church, where Rev. G. W. Welch, Chaplain of the Club, delivered a most impressive discourse, his subject being "The Game of Life." The sermon was one of the best ever delivered to Club members.

AT ST. MARY'S.
The annual 17th of March lecture under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Mary's church was given last evening before benediction. Rev. Fr. McCall, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterboro, being the speaker. The large edifice was crowded. The subject of the lecture was St. Patrick and his great work of evangelizing the Irish people.

CAMBRIDGE-ST. METHODIST.
At Cambridge-st. yesterday morning Rev. Geo. Bishop took his text from Romans, 2nd chapter, beginning at the 6th verse and including verses 7 to 11. His remarks were very interesting and dealt with the truth that the apostle was seeking to impress on the minds of the church of Rome. In the evening Rev. Dr. Bishop took his text from the book of Ephesians.

AT ST. PAUL'S.
Yesterday at St. Paul's church Rev. Mr. Marsh spoke to two good-sized congregations and delivered two very impressive sermons.

In the morning the Rector took his text from St. Mark, 14th chapter and 1st verse, "Daily I say unto you, whosoever shall be ashamed of me here on earth, I will be ashamed of him before the Father and the Holy Ghost." The Rector pointed out how the Jews kept a memorial of their deliverance out of Egypt. All through the ages memorials have been kept, sometimes for a great victory, sometimes for a great memorial when he told his disciples when he broke bread at the Passover, that they had the privilege of receiving the holy communion in remembrance of his death and burial.

What will be the memorial of our lives. Some of us will have granite monuments raised to our memory, but how much better is a noble life of self-denial, spent in helping the afflicted, the poor and needy, or sending the gospel to the heathen? Surely our memorial will last long after the monuments have crumbled away, just as the story of the old that this woman had done in breaking the alabaster box of precious ointment over the head of Jesus has been told all down through the ages whosoever the gospel has been preached.

Mr. Marsh proposes to speak every Sunday during Lent on lessons taken from the Lord's prayer.

W. E. BAKER, 54 KENT-ST., LINDSAY.

OBITUARY.

Demise of Mrs. Sarah Trew, a Popular Lindsay Lady.
On Saturday a large concourse of friends and residents heard with deep and sincere regret of the sudden demise of one of the town's most esteemed and respected citizens—Mrs. Sarah Trew, beloved wife of Mr. D. C. Trew, Lindsay's expert poultry judge, which occurred after a six days' illness on Saturday afternoon at 3.10 o'clock.

Mrs. Trew was widely known in Lindsay circles, especially in philanthropic and social spheres, where she took a very active part, being connected with the Children's Aid Society as treasurer, and also, being connected with the Town Home for the Aged until lately as dispenser. She was also a devoted member of the Presbyterian church. She had also been an active member of the Canadian Order of Home Circles No. 84, Lindsay lodge, for about 20 years, during which she has acceptably filled a number of offices, and has also served the Circle as a Pastor. During the past two years she had acted as secretary for the above Order, and on Monday last she was making preparations to attend as a delegate to the annual meeting of the Home Circles at Peterboro last Tuesday, but owing to a sudden attack of illness on Monday night she was unable to go. In this body she will be greatly missed as a very active worker.

The late Mrs. Trew was born at Oakville, near Toronto, and is a daughter of Capt. McQuorquodale, Her two sisters are in town—Mrs. H. H. Hamilton, and Mrs. D. Morrison, of Sarnia, wife of Mr. David Morrison, who at one time conducted a business in Lindsay. Two of her three brothers pre-deceased her. One son, Mr. Wilfred Trew, of Winnipeg, survives. Mr. Harry Trew, a former cashier in the Lindsay branch of the Ontario Bank, died a few years ago and Wilfred took his place, and is now in the Union Bank at Winnipeg.

The late Mrs. Trew had been a resident of Lindsay for some thirty years, and in that time had endeared herself to a very large number of friends.

TO HELP DAIRYMEN.

Ontario Government Will Furnish Instructions to Factories.

The Ontario Government has just issued a circular letter notifying those interested that they are again co-operating in furnishing instructions to visit factories and creameries periodically throughout the season from May till October inclusive, for the purpose of assisting makers in improving their methods, giving advice as to equipment, drainage, ventilation, etc. The Department requires that each factory receiving instruction pay $15 for the season.

The instructions will give advice to farmers as to the best method of cooling and taking care of their milk. Each instructor will be supplied with leaflets giving the most approved methods of caring for milk, and will have pleasure in leaving one with each producer as visited.

Those desiring instruction should make application to G. G. Pablow, chief instructor for Eastern Ontario, Kingston.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture is sending a somewhat similar letter to the proprietor of cheese factories, notifying them of this instruction.
