THE POST'S NEW STORY

In this issue of The Weekly Post will be found the first instalment of our new serial, Turpon," the story of two days' fishing at "The Yellow Man." It is a particularly Fiorida," by Lynn Tew Sprague The thrilling tale of Power tife in China, and who'e number is profusely illustrated, and thrilling tale of Power life in China, and deals with one of the great secret societies of Sports and Country Life that honeycomb public life in that land of teeming millions. We can assure our NERVOUS DYSPEPS ! readers that they will pronounce "The Yellow Man" one of the best of the many serials we have published in late years, and ] paper-borrowing neighbors should be urged to subscribe at once.

AFTER THE FIRE.

After missing one issue, and being compelled to wait several days for the arrival of another copy of somewhat peculiar appearance and make-up, our readers will welcome the receipt on time of this issue of Tne Weekly Post, even though it does not number as many pages as type-setting machine has compelled us to go back to the old and tedious method of hand composition until the makers can build for us a new Typograph, which will give a somewhat darker and much more readable type face. Under the circum- Stuart's Dyspensia Tablets are a radical stances it was impossible this week to set cure. They go no further than this and as much type as usual,

Our job printing department is again in shape for first-class work-in fact is in better equipped than ever, hew type faces and other material having been added. Better printing and faster work is also 'assured by the addition to the plant of a Colts' Armory job press-one I is great success in curing stomach of the very best made—the makers being the tamous Colts' Arms Mfg. Co., whose weapons are noted all over the world for their great precision and excellence of finish. The press just put in combines all the latest improvements known to press builders. There are only some fifteen similar presses in Canada as yet, log sleep and the blessings which always and these are to be found only in the larger officers-a circumstance due to the excessive coat as compared with the dieting is required. Miracle, but Simply a Rational Cura

In these days of humbuggery and deception the manufacturers of pat n medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicine) will not sell unless they claim that it will care every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving cut dyspensia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face ct absurd claims it is refresh ing to note that the proprietors of S art'. customary. The destruction of our coatly | Dyspepila Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or fale representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles any man or woman suffering from Indi gestion, chronic or nervous dyspensis, who will give the remedy a trial, will find that nothing is claimed for it that the fac's will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomacl troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will diges whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the over-worked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshaccompany a good digestion and proper ssimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspensia Tablets no wholesome food, and take these tablets at In the course of a few weeks extensive | each meal, thus assisting and resting the
