The Pastor's address in the morning on the subject, "He is not left this morning for the Pacific Coast, was meetings during the winter, and he reports here, but is risen," was ably presented, and the Easter lessons and Easter comforts emphasized in the sermon were indeed practical and helpful to a higher and obler life. New Clothing and Furnishing Store.

The class of Clothing we are putting forward speaks for itself. We do not wonder that as Clothing was manufactured and put on sale in the old way that there was a horror against it, and that men shuddered at the idea of wearing it, and to tell the truth we could not blame them. Many have advertised all sorts of Clothing, but have not backed it up with the goods, which has been disappointment to those who have been tempted to buy.

We set out to build up our business on merit rather than take the short cut and work on the credulity of the public by bombastic advertising. Of course this takes time, but we expect substantial results from the common sense thinking people.

Easter Sunday at St. Paul's. St. Paul's church last Sunday was beau

Marsh, was assisted by Mr. Simpson, of Wycliffe College, To ronto, who preached, taking his text from St. John, chap. 20, verse 19, "Then the same day at evening, being the first day fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." The sermon was very interest ing and instructive. The choir rendere suitable music for the day; the anthem, "Awake up, My Glory," taken from 57th Psalm 9:h verse, was sung very impres sively. While the offertory was baing taken up Mrs G. H. Hopkins sang "Ave.
