LINDSAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1902

THANKS!
We feel grateful to a number of our correspondents, who have responded to our appeal to send in their budget of news early in the week. A more general compliance will enable us to issue a better paper, as it is impossible to crowd all the news in when a batch of letters from country correspondents arrive at the last moment. Letters should be mailed to reach us not later than Tuesday morning, but in the event of some important incident occurring the account will be in time if it reaches this office Wednesday evening.

(Special to The Post.)
Dentist—Dr. Bowman's next visit is on May 1st, Chippewa's hotel—w.
Mr. C. D. H. McAlpin was in town last week soliciting excursions for the Str. Sunbeam, of Lindsay, which is going to run excursions on the Kawatha L. K. This is a rare chance for Victoria Road, and you may be sure we will make use of it.

KIRKFIELD.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Miss Nellie Smith returned home on Friday afternoon, after an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Hamason, in Buffalo.
C. D. H. McAlpin, of Lindsay, called at our village while on his business trip through the north country as agent for the Str. Sunbeam. He intimated that the company having secured this steamer (which is one of the very few which will pass through Rosedale locks) contemplate running excursions to the Port, Balsam Lake, and up the T. V. canal regularly during the coming season. It's a good thing—push it along.

ROHALLION.
(Special to The Post.)
Sincere and spontaneous expressions of respect were voiced by all classes of the community on Friday, Apr. 14th, when it became known that Mrs. Strachan, beloved wife of Mr. Thos. Strachan, had departed life at an early hour that morning. She was 63 years of age, and had been in delicate health for a long period and early in February last was stricken with the fourth attack of paralysis, which rapidly exhausted her small store of vitality. Mrs. Strachan was born in Prescott in 1838; her maiden name being Susan MacGinnan. When she married Thos. Strachan, of the same place, she moved to Carden, where she since resided until her death. She was the mother of four sons and five daughters, all of whom were present at her bedside except Mrs. Peter, of Prescott. Her family consisted of Thos. and William, of Kirkfield; Mrs. T. McNeil, Mrs. J. McLaughlin, of this place; Robert, John, Susan and Hannah, of the household. Deceased was of a quiet, retired and loving disposition, always present where sickness and sorrow were known, lending a kind and loving hand to those seeking aid and consolation and was highly esteemed by all who enjoyed the pleasure of her friendship and acquaintance. The funeral was largely attended. The pall bearers were her two sons-in-law and three sons, William being unable to attend owing to sickness of a contagious nature in his own family. Mr. D. McNovin took his place. We all extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family, in the hour of their bereavement. May she rest in peace.

NOVAR.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
It becomes our duty to report the death of one of our oldest pioneers in the person of Mrs. Chas. Russell, beloved wife of our most esteemed and respected settler, Geo. Russell, of Chateaufort township, at the age of 88 years. The couple were driving to Huntsville and when about half way there Mrs. Russell fell sick and took a paralytic stroke. Her husband hastened her to Dr. Howland's hospital but she never regained consciousness, passing away about 5 p.m. Deceased was a kind mother and a general favorite with her many friends. Her loss will be keenly felt in her home, which she always made attractive and cheerful. The funeral on the 14th was very large, the services being conducted by Rev. Austin of this place. The bereaved husband and sons and daughter have the sincere sympathy of the community in their deep affliction.
On Tuesday last after supper a number of our young ladies went up to Mt. Tippeco bush to engage in the eating of maple syrup and taffy. They report having had a very good time.
Our esteemed and respected teacher, Miss Essie McElwain, of Galt, returned school on Wednesday, 9th instead of on Monday, 7th, as she interceded while on her way to Mr. Thos. Martin's, Marlingford Farm, where she boards, the buggy upset and the occupants were landed in the ditch, with the result that Miss McElwain had her arm dislocated at the elbow. Dr. Howland was immediately sent for, and under his skillful manipulation and care her arm was soon put in place. Although she is teaching she is unable to use both her arms, but carries one in a sling. (Too late for last week)

NORLAND.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Robt. Armour, an old and respected resident, was drowned in Moore's Lake last Sunday evening. The deceased was about 72 years of age and one of Lindsay's pioneer settlers, although for the past twenty-five years he had resided at Oshawa. He had removed to Norland with his nephew, Mr. S. B. Trick, about a year ago. Five sons and daughters were left to mourn the loss of a faithful and devoted father. Mr. S. B. Trick accompanied the remains on Tuesday to Oshawa, where they were taken for interment.
Mr. Will Wakelin, who has been in the General Hospital, Toronto, for the past three weeks, returned home this week very much improved.
Mr. Thos. Walsh, of Peterboro, has been spending a few days visiting friends in Norland.
Mrs. (Rev.) Fisher, of Port Sarnia, is spending a week nursing her mother, Mrs. Jas. McKennie, who is at the point of death.
Mrs. Wm. Fox is spending a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. Brentnall, of Bexley.
The E. L. of C. E. is going to have a picnic at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bowlin on May 1st. A good time is expected as usual.

CAMERON.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mrs. Lily Cook came down on the noon train Saturday from Toronto to attend the funeral of her niece, Mr. Herbert Perrin, is residing in his barn.
Mr. Wm. Waffle, of Cobocok, spent a couple of days in Cameron and vicinity getting cattle to pasture on his ranch. He will take them away about the first of May.

WOODVILLE.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Dentist—On the first four Fridays in May Dr. Bowman will be at the Queen's hotel, come early—w.
McKay, the tailor, carries a large stock of suitings, dressings, etc. Call and see him for your next suit of clothes. His garments are the very best—wtf.

OAKWOOD.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mrs. W. T. Hogg has returned from the city for a short time, as we understand it is the intention of Mr. Hogg to take a trip to California, accompanied by Mrs. Hogg.
We notice that our esteemed townsman, J. B. Wilson, has another empowered to act as Commissioner for taking affidavits, etc.
A most enjoyable evening was spent in the basement of the Methodist Church Monday evening, the subject being to bid goodbye to James, two of the oldest and most respected members of the church, who left for Manitoba on Wednesday a.m. The choir was ably filled by Rev. Mr. Lane, and the time passed very pleasantly. Refreshments were served to over one hundred, after which each of them was presented with a handkerchief and hymn book, etc. The gathering broke up about 11 p.m.
Mr. L. S. Bower was in the city again this week. We believe he will be going to the Old Country soon with a load of prime export cattle.
Rev. Mr. Gault, of Fenelon Falls, filled the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday, both morning and evening. Good congregations and good sermons.
Miss Bettha Knight has returned home, she having spent a pleasant time for the last month with friends at Pickering.

WATERLOO.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
We presume the biggest excitement in Oakwood for the first two months will be Hogg's Bazaar. Their object is to reduce the stock as much as possible before the first of July and no doubt big bargains will be the order of the day. As we notice by the posters that all kinds of goods will be taken as cash, we wonder if they at the prices they will have to pay for the goods they are getting equal to 15c. a doz. for their eggs and 20c. a pound for their butter while the sale continues.

Ray, Jas. Wallace, B.D. of Queen's College, Kingston, will preach in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning and evening.
Things would like—let, that the Town fathers would bustle up and get a new bell for the village. All since the bell. And that the village stand where they could play a few selections, say twice a week. And that the streets have a general cleaning up and the street lamps be properly lighted.
D. McLachlan is making some changes in his shop, which will be a decided improvement.
D. J. Molloy, of the Hotel, Glenora, will remove here to the Queen's hotel on or about May 1st.
Suitable grounds for lawn tennis will likely be put in shape here by the manager of the Young People's Club.

LITTLE BRITAIN.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. J. Jones has moved in above his shop, which makes it much more convenient for the public.
Mr. Ray, who has been canvassing in our village and the surrounding country for the engraving of pictures, has had grand success, having delivered about 50 pictures in the last three weeks. He will soon have another delivery.
The order of the day now is house-cleaning, and no matter what way you look you will see the married men out with long faces pulling their carpets of stove pipes. That's what it is to be married—serves them right.

FENELON FALLS.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Rev. I. G. Chas. of Oakwood, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church on Sabbath last, and Mr. Davison, a student of Knox College, addressed the congregation of St. Andrew's on Foreign Mission work at the morning service.
Mr. J. H. Delamora, of the Minden Echo, was in the village Monday on business.
The Council have erected a place under the town hall tower for drying and otherwise protecting the fire hose. This is a move in the right direction and it will also have a two-fold benefit, as it will have a tendency to steady up the unsightly object of a tower, which should never have been built the way it is.
