Gentlemen,-I address you in the interests of Temperance Reform, in relation to the Bill now before the Ontario Legislature to amend the present Liquor License Act. There are several good features about the bill, but there is one proposed amendment to the law affecting Local Option, which if carried into law will block all further advance for temperance reform by way of that road,

Hitherto a majority has been sufficient to carry a Local Option by-law

-by the proposed amendment a three-fifths majority is required.

Every fair-manded elector, loyal to British constitutional government, ought to bring every possible pressure to bear upon his representative in the local House to stand by majority rule. Among many reasons for immediate and determined action for your consideration; against the three-fifths requirement let me present the following

1st.-Local Option has a history dating back nearly a score of years
