

BACK FROM BUFFALO

FRANK SULLIVAN DOES NOT HELP GAMEY VERY MUCH

Mr. Gamey, M. P. P., Arrives in Toronto Wednesday Afternoon.

AT THE REQUEST OF FRIENDS.

Will Support His Charges Before the Commission—No Explanation of the Missing Deposit Slip—Mr. Crossin, His Partner, Contradicts His Interview—Liberal Salt Entered by Frank Sullivan.

Toronto, April 23.—Mr. Gamey returned from Buffalo yesterday afternoon, and the investigation will continue this morning. It was at the earnest solicitation of his political friends that he came back, and among those who accompanied him were Mr. W. J. Hanna, M.P.P., and Mr. William Masson, his own sound lawyer.

There was no demonstration on the arrival of the train. A couple of dozen were there, chiefly railway employes, and they gazed upon him with interest. During the journey he was rather reticent, in contrast to his willingness to talk on the previous night, and had very little more to say than what has already appeared in the Tuesday night's interview from Buffalo.

Where is the slip? There is a serious divergence between Mr. Gamey's story about the $300 deposit in the Ontario Bank and Mr. Crossin's. The latter says that Mr. Gamey is mistaken in stating that the deposit was made on another day than the $1,500 deposit. The bank books show that a $300 deposit was made in the morning and a $1,500 deposit in the afternoon of the same day, Sept. 11.

A special despatch from London says a writ was filed here yesterday by H. K. Cowan, in which Frank Sullivan sets forth that he identifies John Ross Robertson, proprietor of the Toronto Telegram, as the author of an alleged libelous article. The writ is issued by J. M. McEvoy of this city, who is present in Toronto acting for the defence in the Gamey investigation.

Mr. J. M. McEvoy said Mr. Frank Sullivan returned last evening from Rochester with Mrs. Sullivan and her father, Mr. Wilson, who were called as witnesses by the prosecution.

As to His Absence. The following telegram from Mr. Gamey was received at The Globe office at noon yesterday from Buffalo: "You have no authority to state that I contradicted my counsel. I did not tell them or anyone else where I was going. Please contradict my misleading statement. R. H. Gamey."

Denies Receiving Any Part of Alleged Bribery Money.

HE TALKS OF GAMEY'S "PLOT"

Concocted to Placate Gamey's Conservative Friends.

OFFERED BRIBES TO BACK IT.

Swears That Gamey Told Him That a Certain Conservative Would Pay $5,000 and $5,000 on Top of That For His Corroboration of the "Expense" in the House-Bill on the Stand.

Toronto, April 24.—Frank J. Sullivan was the chief witness in the Gamey case yesterday. The courtroom was crowded all day. In the morning Mr. Gamey himself was absent, and Dr. Barr, M.P.P., said that after a careful examination he had found him in a state of nervous exhaustion for two or three weeks. Whether it was owing to Mr. Sullivan's startling version of their relations or not, Mr. Gamey was in the front row of the courtroom in the afternoon, carefully following the witness in his evidence.

Mr. George B. Wilson, father-in-law of Frank Sullivan, was the first witness.

He denied that he had seen a Mr. Leavitt or a Mr. Davis in Rochester and talked over these matters with them.

Mr. Blake—Q.—Now, these two gentlemen that I spoke of, Mr. Leavitt and Mr. Davis, of Rochester, state that you said, Mr. Wilson, that Mr. Sullivan had been out one evening in Newmarket and had had a conversation with Mr. Grant, and that Mr. Sullivan had paid money to Mr. Grant, and that he, Frank Sullivan, had received one half of it; did you say that to those gentlemen or not? A.—I never said it on oath.

FRANCIS JOSEPH SULLIVAN. Long Expected Witness Called, and Examined by Mr. Blake.

Examined by Mr. Blake. He testified that at one time he had, and a couple of years ago entered the service of the Ontario Government as a sessional clerk in the private bills room, and was afterwards appointed assistant to Mr. Edwards, accountant of the Public Works Department.

Q.—How long did you remain? A.—I remained up to the day of this explosion in the House. I resigned then. Q.—You went up in the explosion, did you? A.—I did; I am down again. (Laughter.) He said he never had a bank account or deposit, excepting a few dollars for some years in the Bank of Hamilton. While not an expert he did typewrite letters on the machine.

Sullivan said that the "other deal" discussed subsequently to the falling through of the McGregor Island and timber deal was the Clewley deal as to timber back of Sudbury. Gamey was to see Clewley, find out how much timber there was and get all the information possible about it.

Q.—Did you know in August, when he was down, that he was anxious about his protest? There was a protest, I believe, against him. A.—All I knew about the anxiety in connection with the protest was, he asked me in the Walker House and came to me if I would find out from some one or somebody what evidence they had against him at the Manitoulin Islands.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

Q.—Did he refer to your father? A.—I think he said that my father had spoken to him at Allandale a couple of days previous to this conversation.

He then thought it would be a good idea to get him to support the application. They had previously discussed an application for Clapperon for Bedford Island, but he learned from his father that it was not a good thing, that the timber was no good. His father said that if they could get Gamey's endorsement they should try for something better.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Gamey's Many Deals. Their application for the McGregor Island is still in the department. Gamey had about ten deals that he wanted him to go into, and he was ready if there was anything in them.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

Q.—What had Grant to do with lumbermen? A.—I don't know. I know he might know somebody. We didn't care whether it was a lumberman or not, as long as we got somebody to take that interest.

never expected him to support the Government anyway. He walked on. I thought well, if this I care to know anything about this I don't care whether you know it or not; if you don't want to know what kind of a fellow he is, I said, then all right. I went out of the Parliament buildings and had my teeth fixed and went home.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

wanted to make appointments that Mr. Gamey had the patronage? A.—Yes, I think I may have said that. I think possibly I did, because Mr. Simes had had a conversation with my father in Toronto.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Gamey in reply to a question of his that you were sure that Mr. Stratton would pay over the rest of the money? A.—No, I did not.

Vapo-resolene. Established 1879. Cures While You Sleep. It cures the air rendered strongly antiseptic by carrying over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children. Is a boon to asthmatics.

Catarrh Invites Consumption. It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Radically and permanently cures catarrh of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, and more delicate organs. Read the testimonials. No substitute for Hood's acts like Hood's. Be sure to get Hood's. Hood's is troubled with catarrh 25 years. Seeing statements at once by Hood's Sarsaparilla resolved to try it. Four bottles entirely cured me. WILKINSON, 1800 St. St., Milwaukee, Wis.