Imperial Limited Train Robbed By Masked Trio.

Although Thieves Confined Their Operations to the Mail Car the Most Valuable Letters and Express Matter Escaped the Robbers - Big Rewards Offered For the Taking

"Dead or Alive" of Bandits. Victoria, B. C., May 10 .- Three maskthe Mission City hold-up of two years ago, Tuesday night held up the Canadian Pacific transcontinental express No. 97 (the Imperial Limited) nine miles westward of Kamloops, compelled the driver to bring up the train and then run the uncoupled combination mail and express car several miles further. Then it was deliberately ransacked, en registered letters, all for Victoria, were taken. Several packages piled on a shelf in the car were carelessly tossed aside, the leader of the trio making particular inquiry for San making particular inquiry for San Francisco registered matter. The dis-carded packages, however, contained upwards of $40,000 in gold and bank treatment accorded by the express hands proved their salvation.
