Many women and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable cian. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of Temale weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it I do not believe it will help me."

RUSSIAN EMPEROR. 14

Will Say Parliament Is Trying to Infringe Royal Prerogative.

St. Petersburg, May 19.-The issue of the first encounter between the monarch and the representatives of the people hangs for the minute in the balance. Though the representative chamber of Parliament and the Council of the Empire adopted addresses in reply to the speech from the throne, no answer has been given to either address, and none is expected before Monday. The imperial reply, which will be delivered through the medium of a speech by Premier Goremykin, probably at the first session of the House after President Mouromtseff has been received at Peterhoff, will be temperate and deliberate, seeking to avoid occasion of rupture, but on the other hand not concealing the Emperor's view that Parliament in many respects has attempted. to infringe the imperial prerogative. On these points the response will be a -calm refusal.

Autos For Russian Uprising. St. Petersburg, May 19.-The police, according to the Nasha Shisn, have discovered that revolutionists have imported over a score of automobiles into St. Petersburg for use in a messenber sservice in case of an uprising. The motor cars have been transferred to individuals who will hold them until they are needed by the revolutionists.

Mr. Preston Holds Them In Confidence and Is Honor Bound.

THE COMPANY'S OBJECTION

May Be Revealed to the Government In Confidence-North Atlantic Trading Co. and Immigration Matters Still Under Investigation - Mr. Preston Denies Any Financial

Interest-Troubled Officials,

Ottawa, May 19.-Mr. W. T. R. Preston began his evidence before the Pub-Mc Accounts Committee yesterday morning by saying he had been appointed Commissioner of Immigration in 1901. Negotiations with the North Atlantic Trading Co. began in May or June, 1899, at Bremen, and afterwards at Hamburg. Some of the members of the syndicate came to London, but he was not aware that they met Lord Strathoons. The negotiations leading up to the first agreement had been carried on by himself. The syndicate had examinations of even their family physi- undertaken not to infringe on the laws of the countries in which they operated. On his first visit to the continent knowledge from actual experience is he found large quantities of Canadian immigration literature stored in the offices of various booking agents, not cir-

> Twenty Shillings Per Head. The Government had been paying 20 shillings per head to booking agents, but the largest amount went to the agents at Bremen and Hamburg, though certain other agents who had been doing some active work did not get any bonus. He was warned by the agent at Hamburg that he had better return to London, as the previous year Lord Strathcona had given umbrage to the German authorities by an address given there on emigration. "Lord Strathcona was told that he had better not return to Germany," Mr. Preston added. Out of that incident and out of Mr. Preston's visit grew the suggestion at a dinner in Hamburg attended by several booking agents and himself that a syndicate should be formed on the continent to conduct emigration works. Cannot Give Names,

"Can you give us the names and addresses of the syndicate?" asked Mr.

"No, I cannot." The agents with whom Mr. Preston was negotiating demanding an agreement which "would hide their personality." Preston at the outset, had refused, foreseeing trouble, because there was responsible Government in Canada. It was therefore suggested by the company that their operations "should be judged by actual results in the ports of debarkation in Canada." The company would spend so much a year and would make a deposit with the Government. Preston refused to

"That was the position at the time of Mr. Smart's arrival in London, in Refuses Again, But Explains. Mr. Monk asked Mr. Preston whether he thought, in view of the contract having been concluded, he was justified in continuing to decline to give names of parties forming the company.

Preston's answer was that he had written recently to the company asking for the names for publication. A representative had come to London. They "had been communicated with in some way," and the agent said that us quite impossible to give the names. Preston had then asked for the names to be given to him in confidence. Last night he had received a letter said to contain the names, to be buildings, including lumber stocks, are | shown to the Government, as assurance of the company's standing. The order had not yet been delivered. "I don't know, outside of a wellgrounded suspicion in regard to one or two, the names of the company." No Canadians.

"Do you know whether any Canadians are in it?" asked Mr. MacDonald of Pictou. "I am satisfied none are." "Or any official of the Government "You are not a member."

"Certainly not." Preston said he did not believe it possible that any Canadian or Government official could be or could ever have been in the syndicate. He said also that Lord Strathcona was on record as saying that the names must not be disclosed. "Lord Strathcona had full knowledge of all the circumstances leading up to the ratification of the agreement from beginning to end."

A Letter Which Went Astray. Afterwards, to satisfy Lord Strathcona's doubts as to international complications arising, a legal opinion was obtained from Mr. Vesey Knox, to whom the witness was referred by Hon. Charles Russell, son of Lord Russell. Mr. Knox suggested that the question was one of policy rather than of law. Mr. Preston stated that later on when on the continent he received an envelope containing an opinion which was not altogether favorable to the project. He threw the envelope away in disgust, when he noticed that the envelope contained another paper, and on taking it out he found that it was a letter addressed by Mr. Knox to Mr. J. G. Colmer, secretary of the High Commissioner, which was marked private and conndential. The letter read somewhat to the following effect: "I have sent the paper agreed upon to Mr. Preston, which will probably have the effect desired upon and stop Preston's project." A Millstone on His Neck.

He could not give the exact words, but that was the effect of it. "I may say," added Mr. Preston, "that Mr. Colmer had been a millstone around my neck in emigration work up to that time." Replying to further questions, Mr. Preston said that monies to the North Atlantic Trading Co. did not go through his hands. They were paid by check, which he countersigned. could not get a rake-off.

Moved to Report. F. D. Monk moved to the effect that in view of Preston's refusal to reveal names, the House should be called upon to intervene and the evidence should be reported to the House. The demand of the committee, Mr. Monk urged, should free Preston from any obligation toward the syndicate. Liberal members objected that Preston did not know the names. There was another wrangle on procedure, and Mr. Mac-Donald, of Pictou, moved an amendment which, after half an hour of more wrangling, was declared out of order by the chairman of the committee. The Monk motion was put to the committee and lost on a vote of 30 to 43.

Two Laberals, Gilbert McIntyre and Ralph Smith voted with the Opposition.

No Permission Yet. Mr. Carvell asked how last night's letter, supposedly containing the names of the North Atlantic Co., had reached him. Preston said he got it through the mails and that an accompanying note instructed him not to break the seal over the envelope containing the names until given permission by telegraph. He had not got that permission Replying to one of Ralph Smith's questions, Mr. Preston said that the Leopold employed by the Atlantic Trading Co. was the same Leopold who had run the immigration bureau in Charing Cross in the same building with the Canadian immigration commissioner.

DENIAL OF LORD STRATHCONA. Says He Was Not Aware of Mr. Preston's Stolen Letters.

London, May 19 .- The Ottawa correspondent of The Tribune, in a cable states that Preston, in giving evidence at the Public Accounts Committee said he was unable to produce all the private correspondence, because some letters had been stolen from his office last year. He had traced the missing papers to the office of the High Commissioner for Canada, and Lord Strathcona had admitted that they were in the possession of his secretary. Never Knew Of It.

On being shown The Tribune cable by the C. A. P., Lord Strathcona, in a very emphatic manner, denied ever having made such admissions. "Never, never," said Strathcona, "neither unofficially, officially nor personally, am I aware that Griffith ever had letters obtained in such manner as Mr. Preston asserts."

LABOR BILL KILLED BY LORDS. Measure Prohibited Importing Aliens to Take Place of Strikers.

London, May 19 .- The House Lords Thursday, by 96 to 24 votes, rejected the second reading of the bill introduced into the House of Commons by James Keir Hardie, the labor leader, the object of which is to prohibit the entrance into Great Britain of aliens to take the place of British workmen during trade disputes. The measure had previously passed all stages in the House of Commons without discussion. The action of the House of Lords in throwing out the bill is deeply resented by the labor members of Parliament, and is the absorbing topic of discussion THE GERMAN SURTAX.

Tageblatt Suggests That Canada Be

Approached For Trade Settlement. London, May 19 .- (C. A. P.)-The German home office has published figures showing a great reduction of German trade by the Canadian surtax. Commenting on this, The Berlin Tageblatt suggests that Germany take the first step towards bringing about an undertaking with Canada, and states this is not to be a sign of weakness, but a proof of farseeing commercial and political wisdom.

AN UNPROVOKED SHOT.

Mr. J. B. Roy of Ottawa Wounded In the Face.

Ottawa, May 19 .- Mr. J. B. Roy, merchant of this city, when returning on Wednesday evening from his farm on the Cyrville road, was shot at by one of two men who passed him in a rig. The shooting was done with a shotgun, apparently loaded with duckshot. The shot ploughed several holes in Mr. Roy's left cheek, and badly injured his left eye. Mr. Roy has no idea who his assailants are.

ARCTIC COMMISSION.

Sir Wilfrid Denounces Opposition's Froth and Wild Talk.

Ottawa, May 19 .- Reference of the Arctic charges to a special committee of the House yesterday was the occasion for an animated debate, in wich the Liberal members boldly accused their opponents of coming down somewhat from their high altitude of a few days ago. Terms of the reference, as previously stated by the Premier, covered only the purchase of supplies for general roving investigation of the Ma-

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other Liberals denounced the Opposition for their frothy statements and charges which they were not prepared to specify when the time came. Sir Wilfrid referred feelingly to the attempts to reflect on the reputation of the late Mr. Prefontaine, who was not here to defend himself, and Mr. Brodeur, his successor, warmly condemned Mr. Borden for his failure to specify his charges and pledge his seat for their proof. In the end the amendment was defeated by 42, and the resolution carried unanimously, though the Opposition supported it only on second thought. The House spent the evening very quietly in supply. Many of the members had gone to Quebec to attend the banquet to-night to Sir Thomas It is announced that adjournment on

CLAIMS BELLE ISLE FOR CANADA. Indian Chief Has Old Chart Which

Brings It Within the Boundary. Windsor, May 19 .- Claiming to have discovered an old chart showing that Belle Isle is in Canadian waters, and that the island was never legally transferred from the British to the American Government, Louis Sands, chief of the Chippewa Indians, on the reservation at Walpole Island, River St. Clair, was here yesterday to have Sol. White, ex-M. P. P., present his finding to the proper authorities.

Several islands in the American waters of the St. Clair River are also said to be shown in the old chart as belonging to the Dominion Government. When Chief Sands found that Mr. White was in Cobalt, he refused to show the chart, but says he will follow up the matter. Belle Isle is Detroit's largest park, lying in the river opposite the north end of the city and is considered one of the finest parks in the world. Several million dollars have been expended upon it since the city bought it about twenty-five years ago from the owners.

COYOTES CHEW HEAD OFF.

Brother of Late James Bethune, Q. C., Dies In Death Valley Country.

Cornwall, May 19 .- Cornwall friends were shocked this week by news from Ely, Nevada, that the headless body of Judge Lawrence Bethune had been found near Arsenic Springs. He was the second son of the late Angus Bethune, for many years police magistrate at Cornwall, and a brother of the late James Bethune, Q. C., of Toronto,

He left this country a quarter of century ago. Nearly a year ago he started on a prospecting trip to the Death Valley country and was never seen alive afterwards. The remains, when found the other day, were badly bitten by coyotes, which had chewed the head from the body. It is thought that Bethune ran out of water, became crazed and died of thirst.

Explodes and Partly Wrecks the Town of Cobalt.

TWENTY HOUSES SMASHED

In the Larger Fire Following the Terrific Explosion Fifty Shacks In the French Quarter Were Burned-No One Was Seriously Hurt, Though Many Person Suffer From Shock -Officials' Splendid Work

Cobalt, May 19.-A terrific explosion took place here at 4 o'clock yesterday. A large powder-house, filled with seven and a half tons of dynamite, near the north end of the town, was ignited by a fire, which began in a shack a few yards away. The explosion wrecked a score of houses, and destroyed nearly every pane of glass in the town. The contents of many stores were hurled from their shelves, and a great deal of valuable property was destroyed.

Hurt and Prostrated. A number of people were hurt by flying rocks, falling timber and cut by glass, and many are prostrated from the nervous shock.

No person was seriously hurt, as they were warned by the authorities in tings to flee. Splendid work was done by Policeman MacKay and License Inspector Blackwell in the work of rescue and fighting the flames.

About fifty houses in the French section were burned, but the fire has been gotten under control. There is a lot of indignation felt by the citizens against the owners of the explosives having it stored in the town. Killed by Lightning. London, May 19 .- Lorne Wickerson, aged 24, son of Henry Wickerson of the base line, about a mile from Byron, was killed by lightning yesterday at the farm of Charles Jarvis, a neighbor. Wickerson, with his brothers Clarence and Everett, sought shelter in the barn. All were near the door when lightning knocked the three men down,
