WILL HAVE AS NEW PASTOR REV. G. W. HENDERSON,

Of St. Mary's, Late President of London Conference.

We are indebted to the St. Mary's Journal for the following sketch of the ministerial labors of Rev. G. W. Henderson, the popular pastor of the Methodist church in that town, and ex-president of London conference, who has been transferred to the pastorate of Cambridge-st. Methodist church, Lindsay. The sketch will be read with much interest.

The Rev. G. W. Henderson, the new President, has for the past two years been pastor of St. Mary's Methodist church, and is one of the most popular and brilliant ministers in the London conference. His pastorate at St. Mary's has been a marked success. The church has prospered spiritually and financially and perfect harmony of purpose has prevailed between pastor and congregation.

The farm has produced some of our most famous and noblest men for their intellect and genius are not equalled by the city born. The subject of our sketch was born on a farm near Sparta, Elgin Co., Ont., May 12, 1855. His father and mother were Francis and Catherine Henderson, now lives on the old farm. He was converted to God at the age of seventeen and very soon after decided to enter the ministry. A year later he received his license as a local preacher, and after two years spent in the Master's cause he was received as a probationer in the London Conference.

His early education was obtained from the primary public schools, but after his acceptance on probation he entered the Montreal Theological College and McGill University, during which time he received theological lectures under the late lamented Dr. Douglas, whose influence will always rest upon his work. After six years of industrious study he was received into the full work of the ministry in June, 1881. He was immediately appointed to the first charge in the order in which they are: Westminster, London North, Hamilton, Chatham, London (Queen's Park) Dresden, London (Wellington street), Windsor and Sarnia.

No man of his years in the Conference has had conferred upon him so many official honors and labors. He has been for three years district secretary, for five consecutive years chairman of Sarnia district. Thrice he has been honored by the position of Journal secretary of the conference, twice as the assistant secretary and at the Sarnia conference in 1892 he was elected by an almost unanimous vote its secretary, and at the conference in Chatham in 1889 was elected delegate to the General Conference, and at present fills the position of chairman of the Stratford district.

At the close of his second year in Windsor one of the newspapers of that town said: "There has never been in our church a more consistent and sympathetic Christian worker, and one who has discharged his duties with more arduous and double the number that one man should undertake are carried on with a faithfulness only equalled by his earnest preaching. The church has flourished under his care. The membership has been added to the membership in the past eighteen months and bids fair to continue increasing in numbers and spirituality." The Rev. Mr. Henderson came to St. Mary's from Sarnia. He is popular with all religious denominations and deservedly so. He has ever been ready to aid any movement that would advance the cause of the Master.

On the lecture platform Mr. Henderson has been very successful. He is a fluent and convincing speaker and carries with him a full knowledge of many subjects.

TO LEAVE ON TUESDAY. Mr. Henderson and Family Leave on Tuesday Next—Mr. Manning and Family Arrive on Wednesday. (St. Mary's Argus, Saturday.)

Rev. Mr. Henderson and family will probably leave here next Tuesday, staying a day in Toronto, and going on to their new charge in Lindsay on Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Manning and family are expected to arrive on Wednesday evening. By the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson from the church, the loss of a faithful and diligent pastor, and the town a family that stood for its highest interests. Some time ago the Argus published an appreciative sketch of Mr. Henderson. From this it has nothing to detract, for the months that have passed since then have only strengthened and confirmed that estimate. Sorry as we are to part with Mr. Henderson, it is a pleasure to commend him and his fellowship and friendship of the church at Lindsay, and to the kindly sympathies of the people of that town. They will find in their good, useful citizens, willing to help in all good works, and in Mr. Henderson a pastor and preacher who will faithfully declare "the whole counsel of God," and yet one who will strive to be "a son of consolation" when the need is.

The Rev. Mr. Manning and family will be warmly welcomed here. We believe they will like the people and people will like them. Meanwhile we bespeak for them that courteous consideration and kindly sympathy which should always attend the settlement of a pastor in a new charge, the needs and desires of which he must be to some extent unacquainted with.

A PURSE AND ADDRESS Presented to the Rev. G. W. Henderson of Bethesda Church. Since coming to St. Mary's as a pastor the Rev. G. W. Henderson took over the little church, Bethesda, in Downie, that used to be connected with the Harmony circuit. There aided by others, he has conducted regular services. These have been greatly appreciated by the people of that place. Last Sunday afternoon was Mr. Henderson's last service, and at its close he was presented with a purse and an address. The purse was presented by Miss Mabel Tyler, and the address read by Miss Porter.

Mr. Henderson, who was completely taken by surprise, said in reply: "I assure you, dear friends, that this has been most unexpected to me. The two or three things which I was going to say before bidding good-bye, are all gone. I don't know where I had a strange and unaccountable affection for this neighborhood, for I never before got acquainted with any one so large, and the one thing which pleased me most, was that you have come to look upon me as a 'dear personal friend.' I shall think of your interests, even though I have left. I shall be glad to have help. One of my great regrets is that I am not able to pay more attention to you. I counsel you in the name of God to keep up the Sunday school and gather the children to the Lord. I need not say anything about this beautifully worded address. I know that you will not forget me, and I shall not forget you. May God bless you all and keep you in His remembrance."

The service closed with the singing of "God be with you till we meet again," and then the people crowded around Mr. Henderson to personally bid him adieu.

REV. THOS. MANNING, B.A.

LEAVES CAMBRIDGE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.

Brief Sketch of His Pastorate—Farewell Sermon Sunday Evening—Mrs. Manning's Good Work.

After a successful pastorate of five years in Cambridge-st. Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Manning has been transferred to St. Mary's, London conference. As a pulpit man he has been earnest and zealous, a good thinker—his addresses being logical and thoroughly practical,—with ability to express in well-choiced language his reflections and discernments. With eloquence of speech, yet with a marked simplicity as to choice of words, he disseminated the truth from the sacred desk.

As a pastor he has been faithful in the discharge of his duties upon the sick, but being chairman of the district during his pastorate, much of his time, which could have been used in pastoral work had he been free to so concentrate his efforts, was of necessity devoted to looking after the interests of the various circuits under his jurisdiction.

Rev. Mr. Manning's forte is that of a lecturer and speaker on national questions. Those who had the pleasure of hearing his address in connection with the memorial services of her late majesty, Queen Victoria, held in Cambridge-st. Methodist church on February 2nd, 1901, will recall the many patriotic expressions which flowed with ease and grace from his lips. The address was considered a masterpiece—an outburst of eloquence—and it was so acknowledged by those who were capable of giving impartial judgment.

Mrs. Manning had worthily fulfilled the duties of a pastor's wife and helpmeet, concentrating her efforts to the service of the church. Her work, each expressing his deep regret at his departure and assuring him that in the days to come the good seed so faithfully sown would bring forth much fruit.

Mr. W. Flavell at this juncture of the meeting, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. Manning with a handsome solid leather suit case. Rev. Mr. Manning, in rising to reply, said he never felt the more grateful for a Christian minister than now. When one thinks that one is called to preach, and fill an office so important the thought is almost overwhelming, because of the deficiencies which may rise in the mind. Oftentimes a pastor goes into the pulpit not in the best frame of mind and not feeling equal to the occasion, not being able to bring all the animation and fervor into the service that is needed. One needs the exercising of charity for such services. It is not a very easy thing to be a strong man in a pulpit. He felt he had failed to a very large degree in his pastoral work, but intended to do better along that line, and the high appreciation shown and the sympathy extended had proved a great blessing to him, and he would extend these feelings all his life. He hoped that the friendliness and warmth of affection which had always existed between pastor and people would continue to exist.

The meeting closed by singing the doxology. Rev. Mr. Manning pronounced the benediction. Previous to leaving town on Saturday of last week Mrs. Manning was waited upon by the ladies of the Missionary Society, who presented her with an address and a very handsome French clock in marble and a beautiful cut glass dish. The members of the Fortnightly Club, a literary organization of which Mrs. Manning was a valued member, also presented her with two richly bound volumes of W. D. Howells' "Heroines of Fiction."

Illicit Liquor Sellers in Trouble. License Inspector Short has been devoting a lot of time lately to the task of ferreting out suspected cases of illicit liquor selling in the vicinity of the Canal works at Kirkfield, and has succeeded in securing the conviction of a number of persistent offenders. Two charges were lodged against John T. McEneaney, of Kirkfield, former County Magistrate Deason, a conviction being secured on one; Jos. Bonvise, an Italian, was fined $50 and costs; and a third charge was lodged against another Italian named Dominiery, who failed to appear. Inspector Short deserves credit for the energy he is displaying in the enforcement of the law.

Church Notes. —Court Lindsay, No. 125, Canadian Order of Foresters, will attend divine service at the Queen-st. Methodist church next Sunday evening, when a special sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. A. J. H. Strike. —Midland Chapter No. 77, A. F. & A. M., will attend divine service at St. Paul's church Sunday next at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. L. Armitage, Rector of All Saints' church, Peterboro, will be the preacher for both services. —On Sunday last the pulpit of St. Andrew's church was occupied by the Rev. R. M. Beck, of Maple, who preached two very interesting sermons. Rev. J. W. Macmillan, who is attending the Presbyterian General Assembly in Toronto, preached an edifying service on Sunday at Maple. —Catholics throughout the British Empire will enjoy an unprecedented exemption in honor of the Coronation has granted dispensation from the law of abstinence from flesh meat on Friday, June 27th, and of fast and abstinence on Saturday, June 28th, on condition that the faithful shall recite certain prayers as a penance. Catholics as well as Protestants may thus enjoy themselves at Coronation time, being relieved from both the regular Friday fast and from the fast of the vigil of Sts. Peter and Paul, June 29th.

SAY FAREWELL TO THE RETIRING PASTOR MONDAY EVENING. Words of Appreciation from the Official Board and the Various Organizations—Presentations to Rev. and Mrs. Manning. The congregational farewell to Rev. T. Manning, retiring pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church, took place in the schoolroom of the church last Monday evening.

Dr. Freeman, noting in the capacity of chairman, referred to the object of the meeting—that of showing in some tangible way the high appreciation of the services rendered by Mr. Manning during his five years pastorate. He looked upon Mr. Manning as a personal friend, a man of strong common sense in conversation, and expressed the sincere desire that the rev. gentleman may be as highly respected in St. Mary's as he has been here.

Mr. E. W. Sackville responded on behalf of the Y.P.E.C.E. Mr. Manning, he said, had given great assistance to the young people and had taken a deep interest in their work, and he hoped that during his pastorate his coming charge he may be of as great benefit and blessing to the young people.

The closing exercises of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute will be held this year on Friday evening next, at the Collegiate Assembly Hall. Those exercises six past years have always been of great interest to large numbers of our citizens. They have been addressed as a rule by prominent educationalists. Last year Hon. R. Harcourt, minister of Education, gave the closing address. The year the speaker of the evening will be the Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior in the Dominion of the ablest young men in public life in Canada to-day. His subject is one of special interest to all Canadians—"The Boundary Questions Between Canada and the United States." These exercises are always free and an invitation is given to all to attend.

The band instruments loaned. Oddfellows Secure Them for July 1st. A meeting of the Town Property committee was held Wednesday at 11 o'clock in the Clerk's office to discuss the loaning of the band instruments owned by the town to the Oddfellows, that society proposing to organize a band for the 1st July celebration. Those present were Mayor Inglis, Aldermen Burrows, Hoge, Jackson, McInnis, Mr. E. Dingle, representing the Oddfellows committee, and Messrs. Gregory and Greer, the Oddfellows.

After some discussion it was moved by Ald. Burrows, seconded by Ald. McInnis, that the instruments be loaned to the Oddfellows for the purpose of organizing a band for the Dominion Day celebration, and that Messrs. Gregory and Greer sign an order guaranteeing that the instruments loaned will be returned in good condition on July 2nd. A statement was made by Mr. Gregory that it was probable that in future the band may be an Oddfellows' band.
