AN INFANT'S BODY FOUND

a Sawdust Pile in Peterborough-The Head Severed From the Body. Peterboro Examiner, Wednesday.) The body of a female infant was ound this morning in the sawdust mak, just east of the Dickson Comsany's saw mill, at the foot of Lonon-st. The body, was that of a zwly born infant, but it was heades and there was no sign of the head the child to be found.

The body was noticed by Mr. Mathew McMahon, an employee of the Bekson Company, when he was on his July. my to work this morning. He imrediately notified the chief of police. The body was removed to the undertking establishment of Mr. D. Bellghem, and an inquest has been orsered for this evening. The body of the child was enclosed a small box and had a covering of sheet over it. The box was laid on the ground, or sawdust, but was ourt to covered up, and how long it has ben there is not known, although it astated that it was seen on Sunday

> The authorities have yet no idea as to where the body came from, but the aquest which will open at 8 o'clock b-night will likely bring something

Burghers, Wemen and Children at the Winburg Concentration Camp Received Him as a Leved Here-He Was Never Wounded-Nor Was Stern =16,500 surrenders and Everything Satisfactorily.

London, June 16 .- Despatches ceived here from South Africa show that the surrenders of Boers are proceeding with the greatest good will. The total numbers who have already surrendered numbers 16,500, and the British are extending every possible kindness to the men who come in. The appearance of Gen. Dewet at the camp at Winburg was the signal for the great display of enthusiasm. When he arrived at the camp he was at once suffounded by men, women and children, who struggled and clamored to shake the hand of their here: Gth: Dewet, mounted a table and delivered an address. Neither Gen. Dewet or Mr. Steyn, former president of the old Orange Free State, was wounded during the war. Gen. Dewet has not seen his wife for two years.

The Repatriation Committee which has been formed to assist the Boers in returning to their farms, has a gigantic task before it. The concentration camps will be converted into supply depots to provide the returning burghers with the means to rebuild and re-stock their farms. The wives and families of the Boers will, if desired, be maintained at the expense of the Government while the burghers are preparing the farms for
