Mr. Geo. Smith, sr., said he had put in 104 posts for wire fence, but that Mr. Hawkins refused to give him the bonus tecause his fence was a foot or two cutside his line. He thought the Council pllowed three feet for his fence, as the eroad will be wide: piles along the old fence, but would have removed the stone had he known the Council made no allowance. The posts were sunk three feet and it would be expensive to remove them. The Council informed him that no permission had been given to any one to encroach on the road allowence, and that no bonus would be given in future to any one trespassing on the road. Mr. Smith feit disappointed and said he would do with the old fence; that his object in building the wire fence was to save statute labor dur-
